Rev. H. Medley Price Tells Min-Inters Exhibition Was Worst He Ever Saw

CONDUCT WAS OUTRAGE

The Rev. H. Medicy Price, paster of the Tennent Memorial Presbyterian Church, Fifty-second and Arch streets. thus summed up his impressions thi ummer in Atlantic City in his address before the first fall meeting of the Phil-adelphia Ministerial Association, held today in Westminster Hall, Wither-Building.

was the worst exhibition of the

Got An Awful Shock

the Rev. Mr. Price lamented. 'The styles have reached such a point of tic City, brevity that sashes are used where skirts. Copies o be. meeting are to be presented to Presi-one instance, while walking dent Harding and Secretaries Hoover consider such conduct an outrage. 'I wish it were in my power to cor-

That hotels may be conducted prof-approached with the pleas of organized and subservience. Christianity.

Tells of Outdoor Revivals day's meeting of the Ministerial Asso-clation. The Rev. John F. Sheppard.

the Calvary Methodist Church, Forty-eighth street and Baltimore avenue, told orthwest this summer.

Among sermons advertised, he said, nemede, were three on "Why Is a Rooster?" and "Getting God's Goat" and "How to Ge Through Hell Unseen."

The Rev. N. J. Downing, paster of description

Jefferson streets, presided. Among the other speakers were the Rev. Dr. Charles M. Boswell, corresponding secretary of the association, and Dr. J. R. Taylor Gray, of the Bryn Mawr Methologies (Physick

LOBSTERS CLAW CHEF

Gas Explosion at Shore Cafe Mixes Cook With Cookables

Atlantic City, Sept. 12.—A loud ex-plosion rocked the Turner Hall, South New York avenue, today and sent the occupants of the building scurrying for safety. Clarence Ford, a colored chef. catapulted neross the kitchen. where he became entangled among sevceral live lobsters and bottles of pre-

The lower floor is occupied as a restaurant and cafe conducted by Harry Strassburg. The night cook departed jets turned on. This morning when his nome at the started of sixty- She declared, however, that the girl's mind had been a blank as to much that sion resulted

When Strassburg and Harry Noonan. a waiter, hurried to the kitchen, they found several live lobsters had closed their claws on Ford's hands and face and the chef was suffering extreme pain. They succeeded in releasing the chef the grip of the lobsters, and barring a few abrasions and a bad shaking. was little the worse for his ex-

WARNS OF SPEED TRAPS

Keystone Automobile Club Also Asks Careful Driving

driving in an effort to reduce the num-"The Keystone Automobile Club em to co-operate with the authorities in reducing the number of necidents which have occurred recently on Lancaster pike. say the notice The Paoli police have been instructed to arrest motorists for reckless driving and exceeding the fifteen-mile speed limit. Don't speed. Blow your horn which occurred several weeks ago.

Wanted

She said in pr

the other side of the card is a townships where special attenn is being paid to the enforcement of tor laws. This includes Paoli and Ilbourne, in both of which places This includes Paoli and WOMAN DEFIES U. S.

ther Says Let It Find Alleged Slacker Son

Defying the Government to find her Crease street, listed by the War De-partment as a deserter, Mrs. Anna partment as a deserter, Mrs. Anna Walton, his mother, said yesterday that the Government wants her son, "let them find him Walton, with Edward Lennox, Jr. of 1027 Sarah street, and Arthur Mor ris, of 1055 Germantown avenue, who falled to fill out questionnaires sent out by the draft boards after the registraof eligibles, was classed as a de-r by the War Department in a "slacker list for the last municipal dance on the larkway, which will be held a week

Want Gaelic to Displace English Tongue in Ireland

Belfast, Sept. 12.—(By A. P.)-Irish has been declared the official language of the Irish Republican Purliament, declared Pierce Bensley, a prominent Republican, today in addressing the Waterford Gaelic Festival.

He added that when the Dail Eireann controlled its own government it would "no longer allow an English education board to officiate. but would start to make Irish the spoken and written language of Ireland from the center to the sea."

WAGE CUT AT NAVY YARDS

Machinists Appeal to President to Reverse Board's Ruling

tional Association of Machinists will world, the flesh and the devil I have make an appeal to President Harding clared. chairs or foll on the wage cut ordered by the General Navy between North and South Ireland. lack of garb shocking to min- Wage Board. Following a profest meeting here last night a committee hended by William H. Johnston, prestdon't know what they're coming dent of the association, left for Atlan-Copies of a resolution adopted at the nlong Atlantic avenue, I saw a woman Denby and Davis. The resolution says: with a market basket over her arm. "We, the members of Columbia Lodge going from store to store. She were 174, I. A. of M., in mass meeting as-nothing but a flimsy bathing suit. I sembled, September 11, 1921, hereby entnestly and emphatically against this apparent distegard of previous governmental policies, unjust in-That hotels may be conducted prof-terpretation of the wage law and dis-tably without permitting drinking or regard of facts and figures gambling was the assertion of the Rev. Dr. Matthew Hyndman, of the Oliver Covenant Church, who said that from to direct the adoption of a wage scheds observations of the manner in which the commensurate with the facts as here-Quakers conducted hotels at a New in set forth or at least allow the pres-York State resort and in Atlantic City, ent scale to remain in effect until the he was convinced lawlessness was not cost of living is actually reduced, which essential to profits in the hotel busishe Wage Board has admitted is abnormally high and on the increase, and Captain ('Gypsy I'nt') Smith, a thus carry out the real wishes of the Scotch exangelist, who has been in masses of the people of the United America eight months, declared that, States as against the insistent and wellfrom a study of American veterans of defined plans of minorities of our poputhe World War, he has decided that lation who desire apparently to see the Continued from Page One they are not in a receptive mood when wage earner reduced to poverty, want

"And be it resolved, our protest and The reason, he believes, is that they were not under fire as long as the Britpublicity throughout the United States for Miss Rappe during the twenty-four were not under fire as long as the Brits public by throughout the workers of the nation hours preceding her death.

Ish soldiers and, consequently, did not in order that the workers of the nation hours preceding her death.

Is a long the same thought to eter- and the public at large may know the Mrs. Jameson, the nurse, revealed nal things. He served throughout the war, was twice wounded and rose from navy yard employes under the guise of economy; and be it further resolved, that copies of these resolutions ternal injury, had spoken reproachfully Tells of Outdoor Revivals

The Rev. W. L. McCormack, of the States, members of the Cabinet, to the Bethlehem Presbyterian Church, Broad and Diamond streets, presided at toand the President of the United States and had died with the words on her

Slayer of Wife

Circulars bearing a photograph and the Methodist ministers at their meeting in Simpson Hall today that he had describing George Dobson, alleged son. encountered peculiar advertising of slayer of his wife Isabella, who was an attack by Arbuckle. That makes it church services while touring the found dead in their bungalow at Runnemede, near Camden, last Friday, buckle can pull stuff like this in San were three on "Why Is a Rooster?" have been sent broadcast to and in his and "Getting God's Goat" and "How to Go Through Hell Unseen."

The Rev. N. J. Downing, paster of the Methodist Church at Sixty-first and Jefferson streets, presided. Among the Rev. Dr. he took with him when he left. No

Deaths of a Day THOMAS W. SPARKS

Thomas Weston Sparks, for many plant, supervened from a ruptured years identified with the social and bladder."

Mrs. Jameson, in an interview reiterlast night, leaving two of the oven gas business life of Philadelphia, died at ated her previous statement that the jets turned on. This morning when his home at 4100 Walnut street late girl had accused Arbuckle.

Born in this city in 1854, Mr. Sparks was the son of Thomas and Annie E. Sparks and a great-nephew of Thomas

Mr. Sparks was a member of the continuously throughout the Mr. Sparks was a member of the vestry and rector's warden of Old Swedes' Church; member for thirty-street years of the Union League, Society of the Sons of St. George, Franklin Institute, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Union Lodge No. 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior She Pennsylvania, Valuation of the Pennsylvania Said Works.

No. 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 122, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 123, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 124, Philadelphia Consistory Scottish Hite, and senior director of the Pennsylvania Said Works.

No. 125, All Signet Chapter No.

No. 126; Signet Chapter No.

No. 127, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She said:

No. 128, All She said:

No. 129, All She said She was a member of the themty-to-ther death. At times ther themty with the said that Mrs. Delmont in the start from Los Angeles. Consistently throughout the day he resisted any and all attempts to get him to talk.

Even when at midnight he staggered, which may. The rotund star agreed to the lawyer's injunctions at the start from Los Angeles. Consistently throughout the day he resisted any and all attempts to get him to talk.

Even when at midnight he staggered.

No 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She will not the face, forlorn of expression and weak of knee, out of the office of Captain Matheson, shocked at the series before the emind wandered in delirium, while start from Los Angeles. Consistently throughout the day he resisted any and all attempts to get him to talk.

Even when at midnight he staggered.

No 121, F. and A. M.; Excelsior Mark She will have not the face, forlorn of expression and weak of knee, out of the office of Captain Matheson, shocked at the series in the face, forlorn of expression and weak of knee, out of the office of Capta for a quarter of a century and more a member of the Bureau of Fire, and lately stationed at Company 37's ho bestant Hill, who died suddenly Friday evening at his home, 5665 Ardleigh happened. street, Germantown, wil be held on Tuesday afternoon with services in Covenant, Presbyterian Church, East ermantown. Death was attributed to heart disease. He was born in this city. For a period of twenty-six years,

William Dougherty's Funeral The funeral of William Dougherty,

Vork He was a graduate of St. Jo-seph's College, this city. Since 1900 and the has been identified with the railway, the St. Francis. They had several and during the last four years had been drinks. Fortlouis said, but he saw Last Parkway Dance Arranged seph's College, this city. Since 1996 and Miss Raspe ap the has been identified with the railway the St. Francis. a director of several of the railway comnothing unusual and heard no disturbpanies. He was a director of the York ance. He departed when some one in began acting motion pictures at from Thursday night. There will be two singers and special musical features. Miss Margaret Walz, who is in charge of the dances, announced that the 'tango trot' would be demonstrated by professional dancers.

There will be panies. He was a director of the York including annual and heard no disturbly need. The departed when some one in the 'newspaper men of the County Red Cross, president of the National Accountants' Association, a member of the Knights of Columbus and of the York Elks, Mr. Landers is survived by his widow and a sister.

Mothing unusua, and heard no disturbly need. He was a director of the York in the 'newspaper men of the 'newspaper men of the York Elks, Mr. Landers is survived by his widow and a sister.

Mothing unusua, and heard no disturbly need. He was a director of the York in the 'newspaper men of the York Elks, Mr. Landers is survived by his widow and a sister.

FEARS IRISH STRIFE EMBROILING WORLD

Don't Curtail Powers of Ulster Parliament, Warns Speaker O'Neill

SAYS U. S. WOULD STEP IN

By the Associated Press

Belfast, Sept. 12.—Warning to the thing the powers of the new Ulster Parliament was given by Hugh O'Neill. caker of the Parliament, in an address Ballymens, County Antrim, vester

Any diminution of the rights and Washington, Sept. 12. — Navy yard privileges of the new Ulster Parlia-employes represented in the Interna- ment as a result of the projected negotiations between members of the British Cabinet and the Sinn Fein,' ever seen," he said, in expressing his make an appeal to President Harding clared, "would lend to a bitter civil opinion of the women who sit cross- at Atlantic City for reversal of the war in Ireland. It would mean war horrors and misery of which we do not like to contemplate. The calamity, as Prime Minister Lloyd George has truly said, would not be confined to Ireland.

The war would become worldwide. Hundreds of thousands of people from Great Britain and the Empire would support the point of view held in Northern Ireland and there would be bundreds of thousands of people United States, and possibly from the British colonies and dependencies, who would come to the aid of Southern Ire-'In brief, there would be in Ireland war which would embroif Great Britain and the United States and would spread horror over the earth."

Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, returned to Belfast this forenoon and resided at a meeting of the Cabinet. Tre Ulster Parliament will open its ession on September 20, the date be ing the same as that set for the preposed Irish peace conference at Inverness.

Arbuckle to Face First Degree Charge heard by the Grand July will be Miss Zey Pryvon, showgirl; Mrs. D. Maud Delmont, friend of the dead actress, and "Get Arbuckle; follow this t lins:

of the Considerate Prespyterian Church, fold of outdoor revival meetings in the South.

The Rev. Dr. William Mitchell, of Wide Search Pressed for Alleged Afterward they made no statement, ex-Assistant District Attorney I'Ren and Captain of Detectives Duncan E. cept that the case against Arbuckle was tronger than befor

"This woman," said Captain Mathe-"without doubt died as a result of don't feel that a man like Fatty Ar-to lay bare at this time.

According to Dr. William Ophuls, pathologist, who performed the post-morten examination, there were no marks of violence on the body, and "absolutely no evidence of a criminal Shot Manufacturer and Salt Works Director Buried Tomorrow

"Absolutely no evidence of a sand that the girl had been attacked in any way. Death," he Thomas Weston Sparks, for many said, "supervened from a ruptured had happened within the room.

Victim in Delirium 'I know from long experience that Sparks, builder and original owner of the old Philadelphia shot tower, at the old Philadelphia shot tower, at Front and Carpenter streets.

Jameson. "The girl was calling for me

Careful Driving Lincoln Highway motorists are Sylvania Salt Works.

Funeral services will be held at the actress had said that she had a feeling to make the actress had said that she had as if to speak to Dominguez.

Automobile (Muh against speed traps in various townships. The club at the speak to pound a feeling to make the common at 2 been dragged by Arbuckle into the room, but she declared unhesitatingly stern counsel, who in the inner office of the length of the services will be held at the pounding on the door.

They were in the room and locked the common and locked the common and locked the struggling and screaming and who followed close behind. But the pounding on the door.

"They were in the room a quarter of the length of the services will be added the struggling and screaming and who followed close behind. But the common and locked the struggling and screaming and who followed close behind. But the struggling on the door.

"They were in the room a quarter of the length of the struggling and screaming and who followed close behind. But the struggling on the door.

"They were in the room a quarter of the near truggling and screaming and who followed close behind. But the struggling on the door.

"They were in the room a quarter of the near truggling and screaming and the struggling and scre

Before Detective Griffith Kennelly solve died at his home in North Giensole shortly after midnight yesterday and Henry T. McGrath the nurse told to the city prison.

Mennediately after midnight yesterday and Henry T. McGrath the nurse told tives to the city prison.

When Arbuckle arrived in San Francisco about 8 o clock Saturday night and was met at Market and Montgomery tarily due to that eleganstance love of rounding the control of the control of the city prison.

When Arbuckle arrived in San Francisco about 8 o clock Saturday night and was met at Market and Montgomery tarily without fear of punishment or

Wanted Him Punished

She said in part:
"Miss Rappe said she took three drinks and did not remember anything She said Arouskle was rough with her, and at other times she and say that she did not know what

While at the sanatorium she was calling to me to ask if we had got Arbuckle, and I told her 'yes' to please her She said she blamed him for her injuries and wanted him punished for it. This was just before she died.

John J. Landers, a director of the John J. Landers, a director of the Wiss Rappe in the lobby of the Palace Friday of a compileation of diseases at the home of his cousin, J. J. Cannon, Hatboro road, Fitzwatertown, Mr. Landers was forty-four years old. He St. Francis, Fortlouis mentioned that he had been struck by the beauty years, Mr. Landers' home was in York He was a graduate of St. Jacobs W. Landers' home was in York Ho was a graduate of St. Jacobs W. College, this city, Since 1966.

York gown manufacturer, said he saw Miss Rappe in the lobby of the Palace Hotel Woodruff, Woo

FILM STAR AND ALLEGED VICTIM

was as extra man for companies producing slapstick comedies. Since then all there were five men and four girls in Arbuckle's apartments at the St. Francis last Monday afternoon, and that Arbuckle showed the effects of drink and that the party became tremely rough, ending with Arbuckle's pulling Miss Rappe into his own room and locking the door.

Mrs. Delmont has said that she could hear the girl scream and the sounds of scuffling and that for nearly an hour she made vain attempts to get Arbuckle When he to unlock the door came out, says Mrs. Delmont, Virginia

Made "Too Much Noise

The latter portion of Mrs. Delmont's story has been corroborated by Alice Blake, who already had told the police

"When Arbuckle thally opened the door," Miss Blake says, "I went in with Mrs. Delmont, and Miss Pryon.

Was Arbuckle's Director.

a cold bath, and of their attempt to the movies—a boy, not a bartender—dress her, only to find that her clothing had been turn so hadly as to make it cleaning glasses and spittoons. indication that Miss Prycon made fur- dress her, only to find that her clothing ther revelations which the police refuse had been torn so badly as to make it made utter denial, declaring that Vir-ginia Rappe, intoxicated after one or two drinks, had voluntarily gone into the other room of his suite, and in delirious manner, had torn off her own garments. He denies that any violence was used by him on the girl. Exaggerated, Says "Fatty"

"The accounts of the party last Monday have been grossly exaggerated," Arbuckle said on his return to this city after a fast motor drive from Los An-"and portions of them have been circulated with the sole idea of doing of the lungs as first reported. An me a great injustice."

Arbuckle had been cautioned by Frank Dominguez, his Los Angeles attorney, to "say no word to any one, come what may." The rotund star agreed to obey the lawyer's injunctions at the

Laird Weber. for many years an exother injuries that resulted later in her
store, died at his home in North GlenBefore Detective Griffith Kenneily

Laird Weber, for many years an exother injuries that resulted later in her
store, died at his home in North GlenBefore Detective Griffith Kenneily

Laird Weber to utter an hour when we heard a terrible of having caused the bruises and the a word in his own defense, quickly scream. I threatened to call the hotel office and Arbuckle opened the door. I tion. Arbuckle, in obedience, closed his found Virginia's clothing had been torn lies and followed his spard of detection. lips and followed his guard of detec-

to the Hall of Justice, he was subdued, but showed no indications of great distress. He personally drove his custombuilt, sportively decorated touring car over the road from Los Angeles, and when the detectives met him he was standing on the curbing opposite the Crocker National Bank coolly smoking a eightette. While a photographer had him in charge Arbuekle made his only break in silence of the entire evening. As Arbuckle stood before this camera elty. For a period of twenty-six years, with the exception of one year when he worked as an engineer at Cramps' Shipyard, he was a member of the Fire Department. He is survived by his widow and one daughter.

In occupied bruises on her body, her left turch and right arm, I think, and she said they were made by Arpuckle.'

In the Erricuits, salesman for a New York gown manufacturer, said he saw york gown manufacturer is not said the saw of the saw york gown m sponded the actor in a low tone. Plans Thomas Demio, also employed at the John total and living at 2429 South Twelfth he has produced many film plays as head of his own company. MISS RAPPE SLAIN. HER FIANCE ASSERTS dancer in Oakland, Calif.

Special Dispatch to Evening Public Ledger New York, Sept. 12.—Messages from San Francisco to Henry Lehrmann, a motion picture director, who was Miss Virginia Rappe's fiance, leave no doubt in his mind but that Miss Rappe was murdered and did not die as the result pneumonia. Mr. Lehrmann was in a highly nervous state when he was in-"The loss of Miss Rappe has nearly iriven me crazy." he said. Long-distance telephone talks gave him the information, he said, that Miss Rappe died in an effort to save her

"I know she fought and fought des-where the wild festival was being held:

trace of the man has been found since he was known to have placed Barbara's younger brother John on the train for Mount Holly at Camden.

It was first thought Dobson would be here and the wild festival was being held:

We heard Miss Rappe meaning 1 am dying. She was lying on the bed almost unconscious and evidently in extension for Mount Holly at Camden.

Baptist Convention

We heard Miss Rappe meaning 1 am dying. She was lying on the bed almost unconscious and evidently in extension for Mount Holly at Camden.

Baptist Convention

We heard Miss Rappe meaning 1 am dying. She was lying on the bed almost unconscious and evidently in extension for Mount Holly at Camden.

Baptist Convention

We heard Miss Rappe meaning 1 am dying. She was lying on the bed almost unconscious and evidently in extension for Mount Holly at Camden.

Baptist Convention

We heard Miss Rappe meaning 1 am dying. She was lying on the bed almost unconscious and evidently in extension for Mount Holly at Camden.

Baptist Convention

We heard Miss Rappe meaning 1 am dying. She was lying on the bed almost unconscious and evidently in extension for Mount Holly at Camden.

Both girls szieams, and trying dying. She was lying on the bed almost unconscious and evidently in extension for Mount Holly at Camden.

Both girls szieams, and trying dying. She was lying on the bed almost unconscious and evidently in extension for most unconscious and eviden go to Clayton, where he has several found Miss Rappe lying exhausted on relatives and where he formerly lived with his first wife. County detectives cled. Attempts to restore her and resolution and of the national distance of the solution of the national Baptist Convention of the National Baptis

Lehrmann said that Mrs. Mamie Delmont would take the initiative in assisting the State to investigate the actses' death. Lehrmann explained that he was di-telegram from Mrs. Delmont which rend in part: "Will tell the truth if I have to die Virginia did not die from congestion injured, proving violence," "Did Not Trust Arbuckle"

"They were in the room a quarter of a bour when we heard a terrible shreds and she was unconcious."

Lehrman said that Miss Rappe had a physical aversion to Arbuckle and he quoted her as saying. "He is coarse and some one made the trite suggestion, Blanco was using to furnish an alleged disorderly house at the Cherry street address.

she P. i-Mayor Humes today notified all motion-picture houses in this city that turbne in Angeles in 1917, and took leading parts in several.

Arbuckle's case has been disposed of in Arbuckle was born in Kansas thirthe courts. In one picture hou, an Arbuckle film was withdown on the Mrs. Delmont has declared that in old he appeared as a pickaninny in a Mayor's orders.

ST. MIHIEL HEROES WILL PARADE TODAY

Fifth Division Veterans to Commemorate Battle Fought Three Years Ago

PERSHING NOT TO BE HERE

Veterans of the Fifth Division attend-Veterans of the Fifth Division attend-ing their first reunion smee discharge peated. Mr. Schwartz uttered two un-pleasant sounds and flung Mabel twice from the army will parade this afternoon to commemorate the Battle of St. Mihiel, fought three years ago today.

Contrary to expectations, General
Pershing will not lead the march. At the last moment he received orders from the War Department sending him over-seas. He had to retract his acceptance of the invitation to both lead the parade and speak at the exercises in Independ

The route of the parade, which will The route of the parade, which will leave Brond street and Fairmount avenue, extends south on Broad street to Spring Garden, west on the Parkway and southeast on the Parkway to Broad, south on Broad to Locust, where the line countermarches to Chestnut street and continues east to Independence Hall for the outdoor neeting.

Sergeant John L. Burke, formerly of the Sixty-first Infantry, will be the grand marshal. Near the front of the parade will ride in autos 100 members of the Philadelphia Chapter of the National American War Mothers, with their president, Mrs. John E. Galla-Ten cars will carry guests and various city officials. Sergeant Rudolph S. Frye, of Baltimore, Md., formerly of Company D. Sixtieth Infantry, will ride in one automobile. A bursting shell in the con barrage in the Argonne destroyed onels. signed. Another car will note who White, 2021 North Fairhill street, who Other organizations in this line will be 300 sailors and marines from League Island, Second City Troop, Veterans of Foreign Wars, a detachment of 150 men from the 114th Infantry, the American Legion, State Fencibles, the British Great War Veterans, the Federation des Veterans Français de la Grande Guerre and the Society of the Forty Arbuckle's first motion picture work > in the Bellevue-Stratford. Among the distinguished speakers will be Major General C. A. F. Flagler, Brigadier General Joseph C. Castner, Brigadier General Paul B. Malone, Richard Weglein, president of City Council; Colonel Herbert Parsons, of New York, and Captain J. F. Bacon, president of the Philadelphia society. Lieutenant John S. Anderegg will be the toastmaster. The mothers of members of the Fifth Division will be entertained tomorrow morning from 10 o'clock until noon at the Philadelphia Chapter of the Na-tional American War Mothers, 1807

Ranstead street. The veterans spent yesterday in Atlantic City, where they greeted President Harding.

WOMAN AND PASTOR SHOT

New Orleans, Sept. 12.—(By A. P.) claim of my being with his wife at the time of the murder is absolutely false."

uto the auditorium. had been torn so badly as to make it useless. And then, she says, the hotel office was notified and the physicians from pneumonia is a silly lie. Dr. is being held for the shooting, the more summoned.

Brummel, of the Wakefield Hospital, were summoned.

San Francisco, telegraphed me to the the five bullets fired by Miller were in the five bullets fired by Miller were fired by Miller were the fired by Mi tended for his wife, and the Rev. Mr. Itavel was the victim of a stray shot. clergyman is secretary of the Baptist Training School.

recting the production of a picture for Owen Moore in Great Neck, Long Island, and probably would be unable to go to the Pacific Coast. He showed edy at Preston Park, Pa.

Binghamten, N. Y., Sept. 12.—(By A. P.)—Raymond Green, twenty-three, and Chester Eldred, twenty-two. both of Preston Park, Pa., are dead as a result of wounds received in a gun duel. The shooting occurred after Mrs Green returned from a dance with Ray Knapp, and is said to have been the result of a jealous quarrel between Green and Knapp, which ended fatally when Eldred interfered in behalf of the later, his brother-in-law. Eldred, with four bullet wounds in searchers in a barn, badly wounded. He was rushed to Honesdale but died.

Patrolman Is Acquitted John A. Kelley, a patrolman, 931 North Eleventh street, charged with attacking Mrs. Florence Taggert, 1620 North Sydenham street, was discharged by Magistrate Renshaw in Central Station this morning.

physical aversion to Arbuckle and he guoted her as saying. "He is coarse and vulgar and he nausentes me. He thinks he is funny when he is only cheap."

HELD FOR ROBBING HOTEL

HELD FOR ROBBING HOTEL

Silver and Linen Used to Fix Up

"Love Nest," Police Say

Detective Woodraff arrested three men this morning on charges of robbery of one of the central hotels of silver and linen. Juan Blanco, 1539 Cherry street, a cleaner in the hotel, was accused of taking $600 worth of silver and linen, which Woodraff said Blanco was using to furnish an alleged disorderly house at the Cherry street address.

Thomas Demio, also employed at the hotel and living at 2429 South Twelfth street, who came to this country from Italy four months ago, and his father. TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

Jeweled Cigarette Tubes

Rock crystal, amber, jet, carved jade, or ivory, with precious stones.

J. E. Caldwell & Co. Chestnut & Juniper Streets

THIS CAT COMES BACK:
SAVES FAMILY FROM FIRE

Despite Rebuffs Mabel Is a Hero. Pint of Cream for Him

It is a more or less fortunate thing for the family of Harry Schwartz, 3206 Mantua avenue, that there is truth to Monument to Civil War Veterar the adage, "A cat comes back." The Schwartzs are the owners of

The Schwartzs are the owners of a black cat called, in a happy disregard for gender, Mabel. Early this morning Mr. Schwartz awakened to find that Mabel was in his bed and was briskly pulling the coverings from his body. Mr. Schwartz uttered an unpleasant sound and, picking up Mabel, despite vigorous protests, flung him out of the room. Mr. Schwartz had hardly settled back to sleen when the occurrence was re-NORRISTOWN MAN BURIED Pottstown, Pa., of the Civil War and of the World War and members of patrictic organizations joined yeisterday in dedicating as hard and twice as far, and, to make sure against another intrusion, closed the monument placed at the grave of Mrs. Annie Wittenmayer, a Civil War

The door opened quickly and Mr. Schwartz, uttering in rapid succession no less than twenty unpleasant sounds, tushed forth and chased Mabel down-stairs. Halfway down the smell of smoke struck the nostrils of Mr. Schwartz and his indignation gave place to alarm. Investigating, he found a basket of clothes in the kitchen had been set ablaze and fire was threatening the BANDHOLTZ QUITS W. VA.

Thanks Governor and Residents for Reception of Troops

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 12.—(By P.)—Brigadier General H. H. Band holtz, commanding troops in the South-ern West Virginia coal fields, where recently disturbances and clashes oc-curred between armed men on the bor-ier of Legan and Boone Counties, left today for his headquarters at Washington

Regiments remain in the fields, under the command of their respective col-The Nineteenth, however has Sergeant Frye's sight on November 10, been designated as a headquarters out-1918, the day before the armistice was fit with regimental headquarters at Another car will hold Fred Kanawha City, near Charleston. White, 2021 North Fairhill street, who is believed to be the first man in the Fifth Division to be wounded in the Wars. He had both legs blown off at Ban de Sant. diers during military occupation. "The Federal troops have been shown only the atmost courtesy," General Band-holtz said. Williamson, W. Va., Sept. 12.--(By second Matewan battle trial began here today before a jury composed of resi-Hommes and Eight Chevaux. An important tribute to the more than 2000 men on trial, Recce Chambers and Fred today. Hommes and Fagat Chevalent and 2000 men on trial, Recce Chambers and Fred portant tribute to the more than 2000 men of the Fifth who died in action will be conveyed by six caissons and four win-Felts detectives slain during the sisters. Other wills probated and disfieldpieces.

After the meeting in Independence Square the veterans will hold their final celebration of the reunion—a banquet of the distribution of the reunion—a banquet of the trial would be of short street. $5000; Isabella C. Dallas, 503 four originally indicted were to be tried.

"SHOT" 3000 MILES AWAY

Alleged Victim Contradicts Tale of Wife-Slayer

Richmond, Va., Sept. 12 .- (By A ?.) - Dr. Jesse Ansley Griffin, whom Dr. Wilmer Amos Hadley, confessed wife-slayer, is said to have declared been committed.

In a telegram to Sheriff Snydor, of Henrico County, Dr. Griffin said he had never seen Hadley or his wife since November, 1916, and that "Hadley's

Brill Gets Canadian Plant

The Canadian Brill Company, Ltd. M. Curwen, of this city, remains president of the Brill Company, and subsidiaries. The new company starts business with substantial volume of orders including cars for Toronto and Winnipeg street railways and Temiskamig and Northern Ontario Railway.

Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary of the Grand Army of the Republic. The presentation address was made by Mrs. Abbie Lynch, of Pittsburgh, past national president, and the speece of acceptance by Mrs. Jennie Dinsnurse, in Edgewood Cemetery by the Dedicated by Patriotic

Organizations.

Sept. 12.-- Veteran

more, department president of the Wom. an's Relief Corps, Mrs. Laura E. Willow, secretary, of Johnsonburg, Pa. Mrs. Wittenmayer, who died in 1900 Mrs. Wittenmayer, who died in 1900 in Sanatoga, was instrumental in installing sanitary kitchens in field hospitals in the Civil War. She spent $3000 of her own money for that purpose, and raised $200,000 by personal appeals. She placed her plans before President Lincoln, who gave her a pass for transportation to all the armies of the North. She also aided in starting. the North. She also aided in starting soldiers' orphans' home in Davenport, Ia. She was the anthor of several books dealing with the work of women in the Civil War and in the reconstruc-The Tenth, Nineteenth and Forticeh > Norristown, Pa., Sept. 12.—A cortege a mile long followed the body of George Moyer from the home of his father in Center Square to Bethel Methodist Church, where services were conducted yesterday afternoon. Interment was at Rose Hill Cemetery, Ambler, Hamilton K. Fish Post No. 20, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Philadelphia, had charge of military cere. phia, had charge of military ceretion period.

WILLS PROBATED The will of Elizabeth B. C. Hunter,

1300 South Broad street, who died ber 2, was admitted to probate
It amounts to between $50,000 The September South Forty-eighth street, $6750. Katie Treacy, 122 Hortter street, $4700. An inventory of the personal estate of Agnes V. Alburger, $30,240,87, and Bestel C. Hansen, $5424.19 were filed. Letters of administration were granted this morning for the estate of James Coolidge Boys Enter Mercersburg Northampton, Mass., Sept. 12.—(By P.)—Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge, with their sons, John and Calvin, he shot on the bank of the James River Jr., left Northampten today for Washhe shot on the bank of the James River in December. 1918, just before he threw the body of Mrs. Hadley into the water, wired the local authorities from Los Angeles yesterday he was in France at the time the murder is said to have been committed.

Jr., left Northampten today for Washington. The Coolidge boys, who will enter Mercersburg Academy, were elasted over the fact that their trunk, which had been shipped shead to the school, was the same one which was been committed. used by their father when he left Plymouth, Vt., to enter Amherst College.

Mrs. Woodruff on Grand Jury Mrs. Clinton Rogers Woodruff, wife of the president of the Civil Service Commission, begins service today on the Grand Jury. Forty-three other women also begin jury service in the Septem-ber courts. Mrs. Woodruff was drawn under her maiden name of Florence V.

GODOWSKY and many other famous pianists have contributed to the library of WURLITZER REPRODUCING PIANO 809-11 Chestnut St.

Between 8th & 9th Streets

Copyright: BEST. The Buridge World Zer Co. DEATHS

NUGENT.—Sept. 12. 1921. ARTHUR J., Jedoved husband of Mary A. Nugent. Due notice of funeral will be given, from his late residence, 3757 N. 15th st.

FLEMING.—Sept. 11. 1921. ROBERT J., husband of the late Mary Fleming, formerly of 1432 Catharine st. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral Wed. 8:30 A. M., from the residence of his Bon-in-law. Mr. Joseph R. Eldred. 2620 Reed st. High mass of requiem St. Gabriel's Church. 10 A. M. Interment Holy Crast Cometery.

Church 10 A. M. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.
STOVER.—At his late residence. 1927 N. 12th st., Sept. 10, 1921. JAMES M. STOVER.—Burner services Wed., 2. P. M. precisely, at David H. Schuyler Bidg. Broad and Diamond sts. Interment private. GHSON.—At Riverside. N. J. Sept. 11. ELIZABETH G. GIBSON (nee Shazer), daughter of Elizabeth M. Shazere, aged 33. Fineral Wed., 8. A. M. late residence. 303 Kessouth st. Riverside. N. J. High mass St. Peter's Church, 9. A. M. FILEISHMAN.—Sept. 11, at Chicago, SAMELL S. FILEISHMAN father of Louis and Morris Fleishman. Mrs. Albert Lehmas. Mrs. Fred Kilne. Mrs. Jules Josephson. Relatives and Griends are invited to attend funeral Tues., 2. P. M., Chapel of Mt. Sinal Cemetery.
GREER.—Sept. 11, 1921. GEORGE W.

Cemetery, GREER,—Sept. 11, 1921, GEORGE W. GREER, Relatives and friends are invited GHEER Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services Wed., 2 P. M., chapel of Andrew J. Bair & Son. Archael of Andrew J. Bair & Son. Archael of Andrew J. Bair & Son. Archael 19th sts. Interment private.

WHARTON.—On Sept. 11, 1921. MARGARET HENDERSON WHARTON, aced 82.
Services on Wed., 2 P. M., at the Oliver H. Bair Building, 1820 Chestnut at. Interment private.

H. Bair Building, 1820 Chestnut and private.
WILLIAMS—Sept. 10. DANIEL WILLIAMS. Relatives and friends invited to funeral services, on Tues, at 10:30 A. Mararlors of Edward J. Gliden. S. E. cor. 25th and Columbia ave. Remains may be viewed Monday, 7 to 9 P. M. Interment private. LOST AND FOUND

CASE—Lost gold evergiass case, marked H. B. E. Friday, Sept. 9. either at Broad Street Station or Green Hill Farms, Over-grook, suitable reward and no questions poiet if returned to J. E. Caldwell & Co. Thestaut and Juniper sts. HELP WANTED MALE

HOY Wanted, office boy for engineering fice; must be over 16 years eld, no and clean. Address Box C 307, Ledger Office