

OVER THE HEDGE. This is how President Harding cleared a hedge at the Seaview Golf Club, near Atlantic City, yesterday at the conclusion of an eighteen-hole game. He gave a quick spring, and before his Secret Service guards knew what had happened he was on the other side of the barrier. Some of them jumped over also and some walked around. In the other picture the President is strolling over the course with his caddy. L. P. S.

GROPING FOR A CHAIR. Rudolph S. Frye, of Baltimore, a blinded Fifth Division veteran, is being aided to a seat on the grandstand during review yesterday by Mayor Moore. L. P. S.

THREE LITTLE BLACKBIRDS SAT ON A RAIL. They are Helen Laudrett, Ruth Laudrett and Betty Leffen, returning from Europe and apparently glad to get home again. Paul Thompson

ONCE AGAIN THE FIFTH DIVISION MARCHED, and with clank and rattle the tractors of the 108th Field Artillery followed yesterday in their train. It was the anniversary of the battle of St. Mihiel, and the veterans of that fight of three years ago rode the caissons and marched in their old uniforms. They were happy in their spirit of reunion, but the metallic crunching of the uncouth machines that dragged their 155s brought the past back again. Ledger Photo Service

THEY NEVER HAD BETTER SPORT in Merrie England than at the games held by Sons and Daughters of St. George at Maple Grove Park. Miss Frances Edwards was winner of the fifty-yard dash for women, while the three-legged race was won by Annie Daykin and Anna Rochelle. Ledger Photo Service
