actively as our tongues, what wonders we muld accomplish! Almost every one loves to hear his own voice.

It is so easy, too!

Yet if we could say less and do more for each other's good, not alone would every home be happier, but communities would be enriched thereby.

Instead of criticism by speech, to show to ome one a better way to do a thing would be of much greater value.

No Finer Fox Fur Scarfs Anywhere for $25 to $400

Fox is one of the richest and most becoming of furs. The breadth of the skin gives more actual protection to the shoulders, as well as more background for face and hat, than do the tinier neckpieces.

Every fox scarf in this assembly as been carefully chosen for its eptional quality. Even at $25 are broad, long, one-skin, single scarfs of surprising richness beauty, that for color and quality have every appearance of he price. The Cry of "Wolf" Is Raised Over New Coats

Only this time it is a joyful cry, for every one of the coats n this particular group has a huge collar of wolf fur, and some have cuffs as well, or deep bands trimming the side panels. The coats themselves are beautiful garments of a silky-finish

Bolivia cloth. They are very loose and, if not belted in, they are slightly fitted in to the waist line. In all events they have the new flare at the hem.

Colors are Malay brown, navy blue, taupe or black, and there are a number of styles, $100, $150 and $175. (First Floor, Central)

Waltham Hall Clocks Are Run Down in Price

The good reliable Waltham quality is there, however, and the people who are buying these clocks at the new prices are doing a very wise thing, we believe, for there is little chance of their costing less, so far as we can see, for a long time to come.

Besides which, at the present time, the collection of these clocks is particularly good.

They all have handsome mahogany cases and, with hour and half hour strike, are $250 to $335. With Westminster chimes on five tubular bells $545 to $635. With Westminster, Whittington and Oxford chimes on nine tubular bells,

Proving That the Strongest Trunks

And They Are Specially Priced in the Housewares Sale

The trunk of utility today is the wardrobe trunk. Nearly everybody buys a wardrobe trunk. The average full-size wardrobe trunk weighs 75 to 100 pounds. Our special full-size wardrobe trunk in the Housewares Sale weighs 69 pounds and is priced $65.

The average three-quarter size wardrobe trunk weighs 84 to 90 pounds.

Our special three-quarter size wardrobe trunk in the Housewares Sale weighs 62 pounds and is priced $60. The average steamer-size wardrobe trunk weighs 74 to 80 pounds. Our special steamer-size wardrobe trunk in the Housewares Sale weighs 52 pounds and is priced $50.

Yet these are the strongest of all trunks, as has been shown by tests. They are beautifully made of three-ply veneering, criss-crossed on the grain, making splitting impossible, and with two-ply rulcanized fiber in and out.
