Nancy Wynne Tells of the New Members of the Assemblies Committee This Season—Balls to Take Place January 6 and February 24

It's always interesting to me, and I guess it is to every other subscriber of the Assemblies, to hear the committee list each year, for there are usually several changes, you know.

At this year the names of two members on the board, who have served an unusually long time, owing to the fact that they do not appear.

DR. HART'S own niece, Eleanor Hart, who is extremely attractive, is one of the debutantes.

HAVE you noticed how many of the new frocks are trimmed with beads? I don't mean the small bead embroideries which was so much in vogue last season.

I WAS so sorry to hear that Mrs. William Carter has been quite ill at Bretton Woods, where she has been spending the greater part of the summer.

MISS sister took Betty out for a walk the other day, and they stopped in one of the pavilions along the beach.

THE most important of the coming season's balls is the Misses Wynne and Howard Hart, who will be formal in costume.

Design of bedroom interior approved by Good Housekeeping's Department of Furnishings and Decorations. The Barcalo bedstead shown is number 8710, finished in mahogany, or walnut.

A room where health grows

IT IS in delightful surroundings that real rest is found. Whether you live in mansion or cottage, there is a little corner of that home that is truly yours—your bedroom.

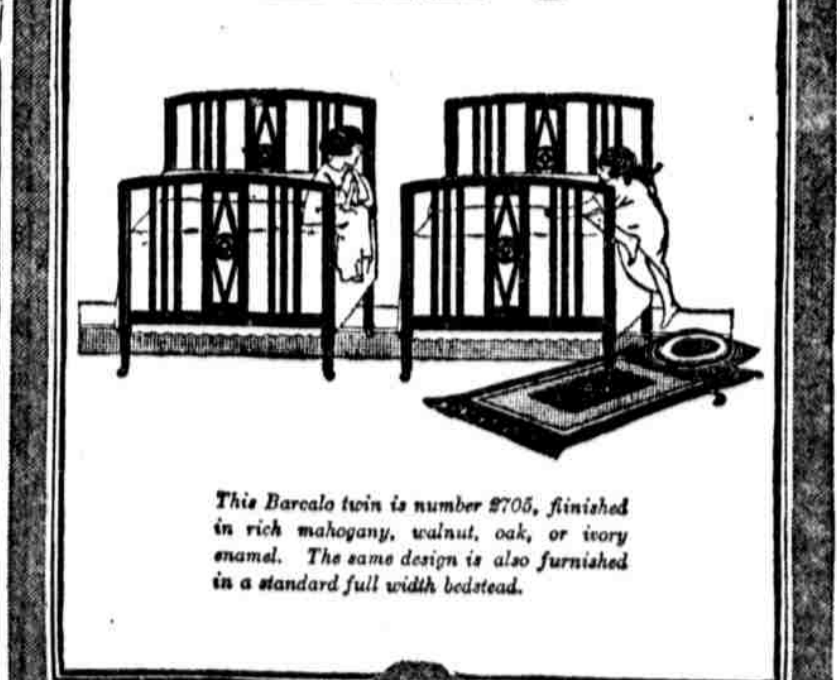

When you climb into bed, all of your daily cares should leave. Rest comes when the body is at ease, and the mind is calm. It is then that health grows.

In the very design of a Barcalo-furnished bedroom, there is more than rest for the body. The bedstead's pleasing lines create real contentment. Eyes worn by the harsh demands of a strenuous day—are soothed by the beauty of the bedroom's furnishings.

If you need new beds for this room that means so much to you—it may be well to look at some Barcalo Beds. Among the many Barcalo designs there are some that will please your taste, and will harmonize with your other furniture.

With the all-steel, creakless construction of Barcalo Beds, and with Barcalo springs that will not sag—your bedroom should be a garden where health will flourish.

BARCALO BEDS

This Barcalo twin is number 8705, finished in rich mahogany, walnut, oak, or teary enamel. The same design is also furnished in a standard full width bedstead.
