

SHACKLETON'S DYING SHIP, the Endurance, crushed by an Antarctic ice floe on his former trip. Shackleton is peering over the bulwark to the right. He starts today on a similar voyage in the Quest Underwood & Underwood

THIS TRIP Shackleton expects to use these air-propeller sledges to drag his sledges over the ice, with a taxi airplane with clipped wings to carry food American Press Assn.

WALKED CLEAR TO FRISCO recently from New York. These sturdy pedestrians are Mildred Karp, left; Esther Eisman and Fay Fink. They quit positions as stenographers to take the trip K. & H.

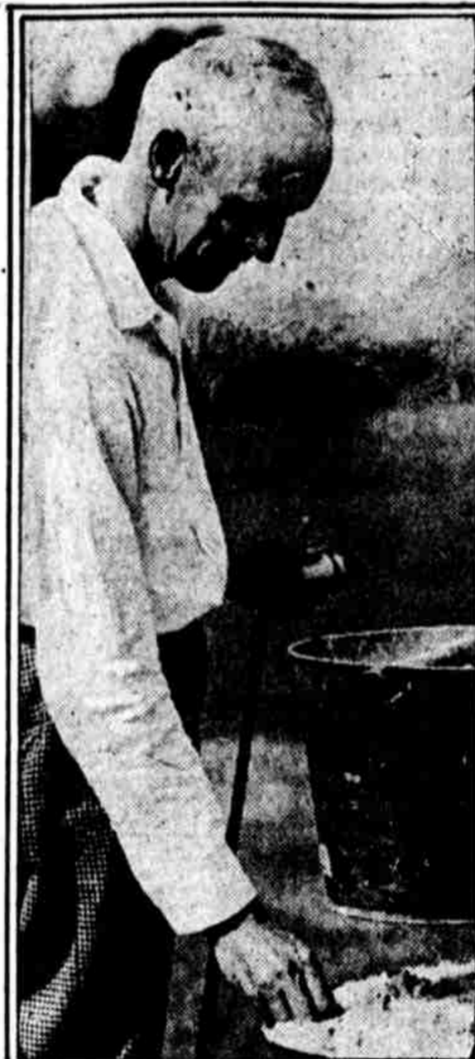

THESE LITTLE GIRLS are Lady Alexandra and Lady Victoria, daughters of Field Marshal Earl Haig and Countess Haig. The picture was taken in London Bassano, Ltd.

JOLLY GOOD SPORT, YOU KNOW, for the Household Brigade when they hold a punting race on the Thames. One chap punts and the other paddles. It's a bit of an effort to shove the bally things ahead Central News Photo

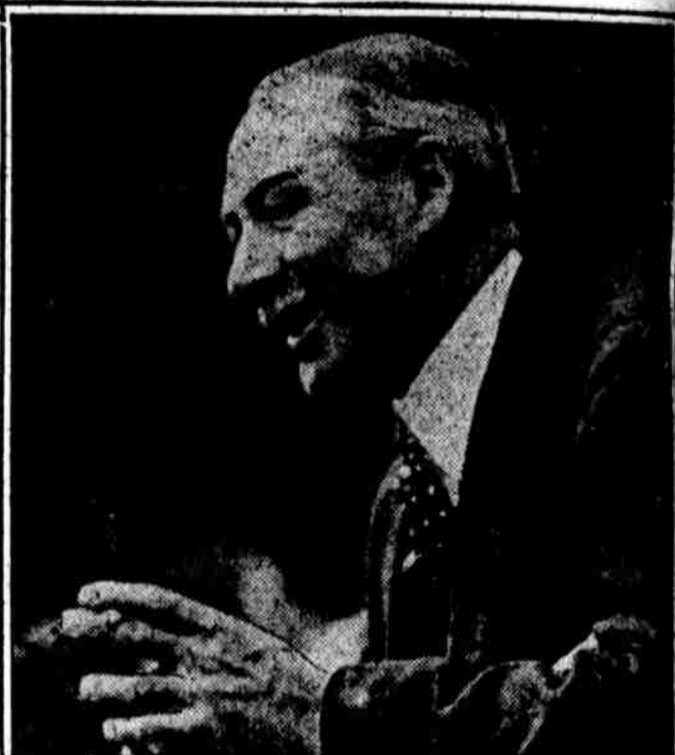

TWENTY-EIGHT STORIES UP and cool as a cucumber is Alfons Kurtzo, a Y. M. C. A. physical director. This is Alfons' idea of fun Underwood & Underwood

GENIAL J. B. COLAHAN in St. Martins Cup golf contests at the Philadelphia Cricket Club Ledger Photo Service

MISS EDITH SIGOURNEY plays in tennis finals at Phila. Cricket Club today L. P. S.

CHEERIO—This is Walter Kurtz, scorekeeper at the women's Middle States tennis tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket Club at St. Martins Ledger Photo Service

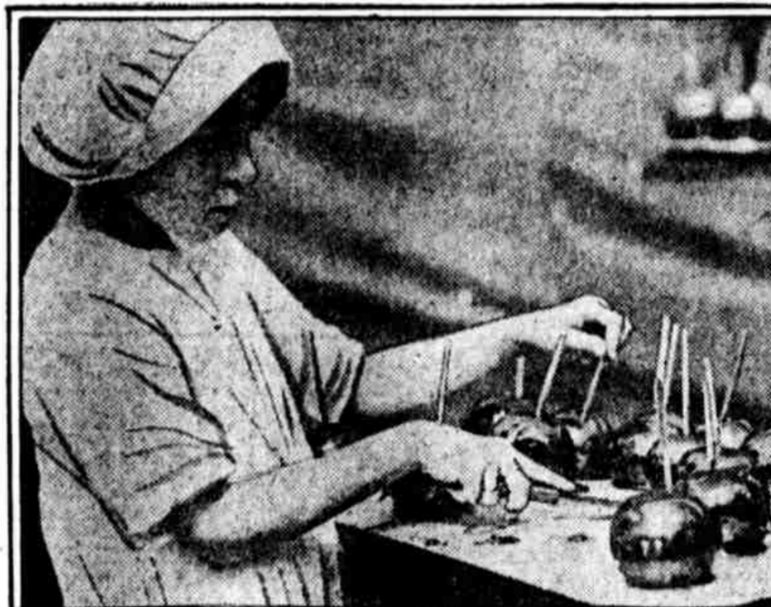

ALL THE PEOPLE at St. Martins are not playing golf or tennis. Here, for instance, are Beatrice Sewell, Marie Falck and Elizabeth Morris L. P. S.

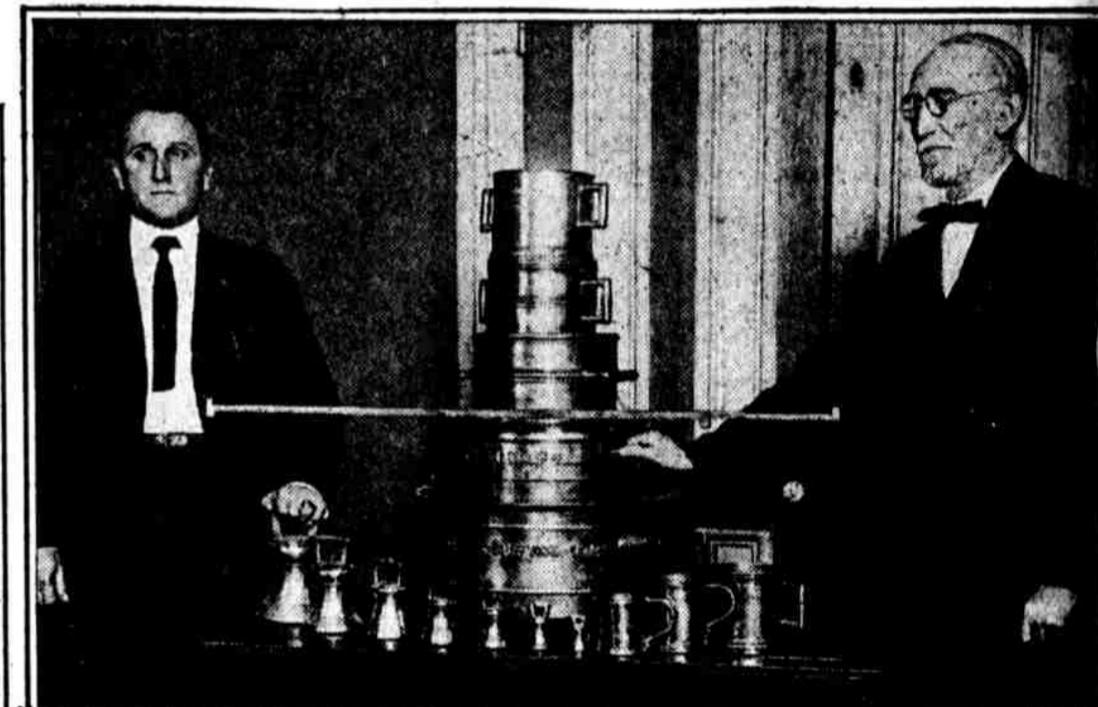

JACK RYAN is pitcher and captain for the Hohlfield Mfg. Co. nine Ledger Photo Service

CHIEF JUSTICE VON MOSCHIZKER talks on U. S. Constitution on Editorial Page

ABOUT THE FINEST EXHIBITIONS, after all, at the Mount Holly (N. J.) Fair, or anywhere else, are the kiddies. This is little Irene Miller at the candy apple stand Ledger Photo Service

OLD GEORGE II HIMSELF sent these weights to Virginia in 1744, and they have been the standard ever since. They have recently been removed from active service. These weights are now priceless. Mayor Duncan, of Alexandria, Va. (left), and Market Master Ballinger L. P. S.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

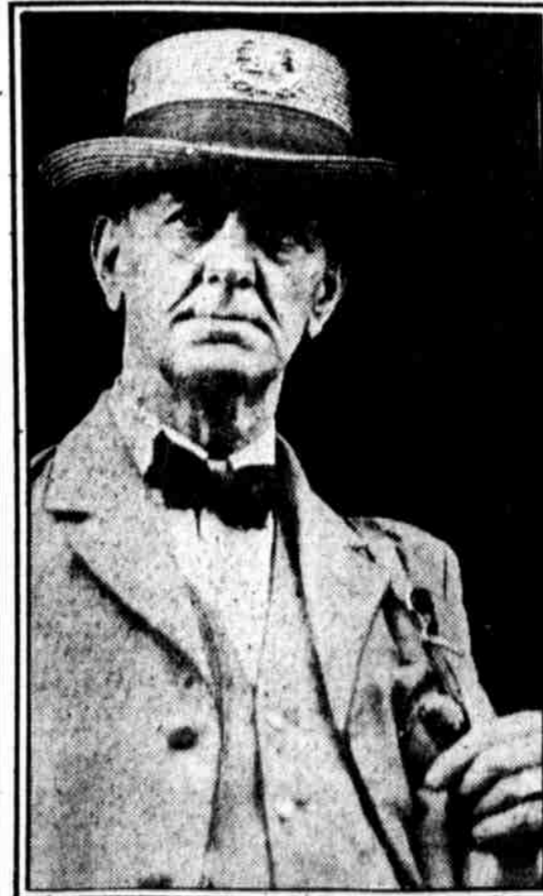

A SHAVING MACHINE which does 100 dozen skins a day at the plant of the Quaker City Morocco Company, Fifth and Huntingdon streets, is operated by Samuel Bullock, of 111 Pine street Ledger Photo Service

AT THE RECENT MEETING of the United Hunt Club in New York were Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. August Belmont, Jr. C. N. P.

MAIL!

EDWARD M. PEREIRA, 918 N. 50th st; 34 years' service. Route: Brown Bros., Mariners & Merchants, Stock Exchange Bldgs. L. P. S.

A VERY FUZZY HAT worn by Miss Baddy, Parisian society woman. It is made of long fur and built in form of a turban, giving a Zulu effect C. N. P.

ONE MUST DO ONE'S KNITTING, even if exciting tennis games are being played by one's elders. This is Jeannette Wear at Philadelphia Cricket Club L. P. S.