

DOBSON EXPECTED BACK TOMORROW

"Want Ad" Wife Slayer Suspect Is Being Brought to Camden by Detective

WAS CAUGHT IN CANADA

George Dobson, of Runnemeade Highlands, N. J., will arrive here tomorrow in custody of detectives who chased him into Canada to arrest him on a charge of murdering his wife Isabella on September 9. The two little children he took with him on his flight are with him. The party left Detroit yesterday.

Dobson is alleged to have said while waiting to start from Detroit to this city: "I guess you've got me right." This is tantamount to a confession if it can be proved he said it. From the start he has not resisted the detectives in bringing him back. He was captured in Woodale, Canada, by Detective Doran, of the County Prosecutor's office in Camden after a chase covering hundreds of miles. He waived extradition and has been a model prisoner so far.

As soon as the news reached Prosecutor Wolverton that Dobson was in custody he sent Detective Howard Smith to Detroit to aid Doran in bringing back the prisoner and the two children he took with him.

Dobson's wife, whom he met through a want ad, was found beaten to death in her bed. As Dobson disappeared the day previous and Mrs. Dobson had not been seen after his departure, he has been suspected of the crime from the first. The State will contend the motive was a desire to obtain some money his wife procured through a mortgage on the home in which she was murdered.

of Twelfth and Chestnut streets this morning. The property, which was formerly occupied by Mitchell, Fletcher & Co., has undergone extensive alterations. The store was tastefully decorated with flowers today.

Some simple draperies, a few odd pieces of furniture and an inexpensive floor of Armstrong's Printed Linoleum transformed this attic from a dusty store-room to this cheerful, cozy upstairs living-room.

Get Acquainted with this Modern Floor

THERE is a new floor for up-to-date homes. This floor is modern linoleum.

Get acquainted with this new kind of permanent floor. Go into any good store, and ask the salesman to show you Armstrong's Linoleum. See what a solid, smooth, elastic floor it makes. Look at the rich, plain colors, the beautiful two-tone Jaspé effects, the distinctive parquetry, inlaid and tile designs.

You will understand how a well-chosen floor of linoleum may be the basis for the color scheme of a room or suite. You will see why architects are specifying floors of Armstrong's Linoleum for all the rooms of the house.

You lay your rugs on these floors; they are kept in condition by occasional waxing and polishing. No other floor is so easy to clean.

An inexpensively-priced floor covering for your kitchen, bathroom, bedrooms, is Armstrong's Printed Linoleum, shown in many attractive patterns, also in Armstrong's Linoleum Rugs of several sizes.

Any store will be glad to give you estimates of the cost of Armstrong's Linoleum floors, put down in your home. All Armstrong's Linoleum is guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Women's Dresses—Renee, Premiere of Paris Uses Crepe-Weaves Above Everything

—for the simplest tailleur she makes (and—oh, what a "simple" Renee gown looks and costs!) to a gown for "visiting royalty!"

$35 is as "Strong" a Price This Autumn as $59 Was, Last!

And here are four beautiful models—at $35—in the three leading crepe-weaves of Paris: Canton crepe, crepe-back satin and satin-faced crepe.

In the black that all Paris wears except for the "lighted times of day." But the browns, too, and the navy blue, that American women wear as freely as they do black. Six wonderful models in tricotine—also at $35.

A Splendid Tricolette Model --Special at $19.75

With a circular tunic, smartly beaded. So "good" for a plump figure that it lends all the "chic" of a smaller size even to a 48! But it comes in sizes 38 to 48. Navy blue, brown and black. —Gimbels, Salons of Dress, Third floor

Silk Petticoats—of a New Heavy, Elastic Weave—$5

Jersey—but almost as heavy as tricolette—outwears the other kind almost two to one! All good suit-matching colors. —Gimbels, Second floor

College Skirts

—Specials at $5, $7.90 and $10

Pleated plaids at each price. Pleated stripes at each price. Plain blue serges at $7.90, besides. —Gimbels, Salons of Dress, Third floor

TOMORROW Women's Coats at $48.50

Last Year's Best $125 Coat Values Couldn't Equal Them!

Soft—luxuriously, richly soft bolivias, erminies, Normandies, vel de cygnes, chamoistyns, Pollyannas, and duvette velours. Twenty-Eight Styles—Mostly Variations of This Year's Favorite Straight-Line Belted Effects——but somehow dressier than last year's

Wrap-styles, too — for the women whose figures wrapper effects suit better.

And—Oh, Such Wonderful, Wonderful Big Fur Collars!

Mostly beaver or squirrel—the two leading collar-furs. But Scotch mole, or nutria, or fox, or even wolf, for the woman who likes something different.

Every New Brown-Tone—and Brown's Better Than Ever in Coat-Fashions

Sorrento blue, too. And black. And a deep, soft, flattering new shade of rose-taupe. Sizes 36 to 46. —Gimbels, Salons of Dress, Third floor

Don't Neglect to Vote Tomorrow Men and Women Voters of Pennsylvania

Whether you are enrolled in any political party or not you are entitled to vote on Tuesday, September 20th, for the calling of a Constitutional Convention.

At the primaries, September 20th, your ballot will have this diagram printed at the bottom.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Shall a Constitutional Convention be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two as provided in the Act of Assembly approved the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one?

YES	X
NO

Voters favoring the holding of a Constitutional Convention in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two will mark a cross (X) to the right of the word "Yes."

Those opposing the holding of a Convention will mark a cross (X) to the right of the word "No."

Good roads mean greater service and longer life for every vehicle passing over them—lower hauling costs to and from every farm—markets, schools and churches brought nearer every home.

Your vote for a Constitutional Convention at the primaries will be a vote for good roads and for civilization.
