8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 61 |63 |64 |65 |66 |69 |70 |

VOL. VIII .-- NO. 6

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice at Philadelphia. Pa. Under the Act of March 8, 1879

PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1921

Published Daily Except Sunday, Subscription Price $6 a Year by Mail. Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Company

PRICE TWO CENTS

DEFIANCE OF LAW BY KLAN UPHELD BY KU KLUX 'WIZARD'; SHARP WARNING BY GOMPERS

SIMMONS REVIVING GRIM MENACE ONCE KILLED BY CONGRESS

"Emperor" Insists Present-Day Organization Is Same as Mystic Body That Spread Terror After Civil War

SOCIETY STARTED IN SOUTH AS JOKE SOON BECAME A FRANKENSTEIN OGRE

broanized Labor Is Keenly Aware of Evils Inherent in Revival of Methods That Were Used a Half Century Ago

THE Ku Klux Klan, Inc., is a revival of a movement which led to lynchings and outrages more than fifty years ago, and which finally had to be crushed out by the Government.

Defiance of the law is one of the manifestations of the Ku Klux drit. "Emperor" William Joseph Simmons himself stands as an authority This spirit is eulogized by Simmons in the booklet, "The Ku Klux

Can Yesterday, Today and Forever," which is used by his Kleagles in greating the doctrines of the Klan and obtaining members on a commis

"Throughout the annals of the ages," he says on page 4, "we see the manifestations of what may justly be termed the 'Ku Klux spirit'-the pirit that rebels at oppression and even defies law itself.

* * Before the great Persian Empire was created there was an rganization formed for the purpose of enforcing justice. It worked secretly, " * took the law into its own hands (so to speak); but the attitude of this early order hundreds of years later was indorsed by so less an authority than Thomas Jefferson when he declared: "Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God."

"Emperor" Simmons boasts that his "Invisible Empire" is a revival of Organized labor, looking back at the movement shattered a half cenmy ago, is keenly aware of the evils inherent in revived Ku Kluxism. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor hundered a warning against the Klan today.

Eluxism as a subtle and deadly foe of labor. It is now time to look into the original Klan and the fruits of the

Matthew Woll, vice president of the federation, already has held up original Ku Klux movement which Congress suppressed by a law passed in

SIX SOUTHERNERS STARTED FIRST KLAN AS JOKE TO SCARE NEGROES Washington, Sept. 20: - Samuel

Almost at once the Ku Klux

They state that the transformation was effected first by the impressions the order made on those who joined it; sec-

"Mission" Was Undefined

spread that a mission existed just the

Gregory Explained Klan Work

Not always, however, were the means under his robe.

DRECISE logic does not make open South, and everywhere "Dens" of Ku Ku Klux Klan and said it outraged advocacy of open rebellion identical Kluxes were enjoying the baffled curioswith secretly "taking the law into its public.

own hands (so to speak)." But Simmons does this, and goes on the to land the Vehmgerichts of old-time what was to the South an alarming sit-Europe, the religious movements led by Klan became transformed from bur-Luther, Calvin and John Knox, the re- lesquers to a band of regulators. Section and Charleston "tea parties," best available authority on the change is a little history of the Ku Klux Klan written years afterness. end the old Ku Klux Klan of the re- John C. Lester, one of the six original construction period, as all equally members, and the Rev. D. L. Wilson. In the percration of this booklet, on page 14, he makes clear his intention ving this spirit in the fellow-

That this spirit may live always the warm the hearts of manly men, is the paramount ideal of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

"Is Genuine," Says "Klonel"

Since elsewhere and frequently he has claimed his order is the genuine, ice he here claims it is a revival and traditions, he stands absolutely committed to responsibility for all that he has brought back to life in Amers propaganda and propagators have added to the original matter.

The original Ku Klux Klan was established in 1866. The resultant Ku movement started about a year people later, and in three years developed into nocturnal Ku Kluxes and imagine they such a nightmare of terrorism and veiled were spirits of deceased Confederate wlessness that its own directors grew its actualities and potenlities that they tried hard to disband he order and break up the movement were unable to until Federal aubority took the matter out of their n grim joke that Ku Kluxismeloquent assertions there has never been a bucketful of water and dispose of it xact parallel in any other counhan the United States—was a loke itself in the beginning.

Ku Klux Klan was organized Truly a bullet of water and dispose of it in the same way, remarking it was the first drink he had tasted since he was 'killed at Shiloh.'

"In other cases Ku Kluxes would 20. on of 'Klan' gave a title of mys-portent which made the new cised it to the fullest extent.' success from the start in its burlesque, fun-making and joiner of 1866 was like his and methods of regulation enly to maintain an air or de-tery, adopt a grotesque and ghostly Association of Texas in 1906 Thomas their meetings in the cellar of a ruined the United States, speaking of the his-

The impression of profound mystry and exclusiveness made the rush of applicants all the greater. Further-The sheeted horsemen did not merely warn and intimidate, especially when the warnings were not heeded. In many the warnings were not heeded. In ma

The secret handclasps of the Kiansmen, part of the most carefully guarded mysticisms of the order, are illustrated herewith, showing the position of fingers, the above showing the hand of the "signaler" and below the answering "clasp" which shows two Klansmen are together

tion of Money-Making, Oath-- Bound Klan

Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, today flayed the ity and wild speculations of a mystified every tenet of faith in Americanism. His statement, given to the EVENING But in March, 1867, Congress passed Public Ledger, follows closely a de-Reconstruction Acts, developing nunciation of the Klan made by Matthew Woll, vice president of the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Gompers' statement follows: "Ku Kluxism, as we have seen it in ecent revelations, is nothing more or less than the organizing of roving bands of marauders, setting their will above the law and seeking to place their unlawful conduct beyond reach of the ind, by the impressions it made upon When an organization of this kind public, and third, by the anomalous is builded on a money-making basis it and peculiar conditions then prevail- is doubly dangerous. Ing. "The Ku Kluz Klan, as we have seen it, is a profit-making machine. "The impression made on those who Trained salesmen recruit membership joined was that behind the amusement everywhere. These salesmen derive t features, and expressed in its ritualistic fee from every new member. They work, was a deep purpose—a, solemn mission to be undertaken later. What it was none knew, but the feeling business and its resultant fees. features, and expressed in its ritualistic fee organized selling. They are out for

Seeks to Rule Country

The impressions made upon the "What this amounts to is that a public showed that the organization highly skilled sales organization is possessed a certain power nobody had combing the country to find every indimagined it would possess. This power vidual who can be got to pledge himwas largely one of fright and intimida self to become part of an oath-bound tion, and was shown in the case of the society having as its object the ruler ignorant Negro more than in the white ship of the country and the defiance of Negroes would see the ghostly its laws and institutions. "This organization, with its fiercely were spirits of deceased Confederate worded oath, its 'Emperor,' its soldiers, and the Klansmen were quick 'Realms' and and 'Domains,' is called to use the idea to the utmost advan- an 'Invisible Empire.' Every tenet of faith in Americanism is outraged by the trouble should be past. 'A figure in white would ride up to Continued on Page Eighteen, Column Five a Negro's house and ask for a drink of water. The frightened Negro would hand him a gourd, which the rider would pour lute a rubber bag concealed CHILD BURNS TO DEATH: FOUR HOMES DESTROYED tion today, warning the citizens "The hooded rider then would demand

Tragedy at Cape May Courthouse

Cape May Courthouse, N. J., Sept h Pulaski, Teun. in May. 1866, by wear false heads, ride up to a Negro was burned to death this morning in a fire that destroyed two double houses. fire that destroyed two double houses. Many persons say that the child might service in the Confederate Army, held. The Negroes soon spread alarm- Many persons say that the child might be purpose was purely sociability ing tales to each other about the Klan have been saved if some of the bystandmusement. Even the name was a and its doings, until soon the name was ers had been quicker to jump into the 'Kuklos'—the Greek word for one that invoked horror and terror, house when the blaze first started. house when the blaze first started.

was proposed. "Call it Kusuggested a member; and the new power of frightening the Negro, nof "Klan" gave a title of mysportent which made the new cised it to the fullest extent."

house when the blaze first started, A heroic attempt to save the child was made by Prof. Earl Witner, of Quakertown, Pa., who is visiting here, but when he arrived the flames had got The telephor too much headway for any one to enter the room, where the little girl was Mrs. Frank W. Smith, mother of the ent-day successor. The boys had and terrorization confined to such inno-to maintain an air of deep mys-cent acts. In an address before the Bar Glasstown, a suburb, to gossip with grotesque and ghostly Association of Texas in 1906 Thomas some neighbors, leaving an oil stove they were to and from W. Gregory, later Attorney General of burning on the first floor. Her little daughter was sleeping on the second floor. The stove exploded, the force of bouse on the outskirts of Pulaski, give tory of the old Klan. said:

out hints of the wonders of the new conditions of the work of the Klan involved no latching it.

daughter the second floor. The stove exploded the force of the blast closing the front door and latching it.

etions to the local newspapers, to act of personal violence. Mere knowling eager candidates flocking to the community and patrolled it by Mystery Idea Stressed

Mystery Idea Stressed

Mystery Idea Stressed

Mere knowling in the local newspapers, to edge that the Klan was organized in the community and patrolled it by night accomplished most that was developed in the explosion, and the delay undoubting the explosion and the explosion and the delay undoubting the explosion and the explosion are explosion. sired. But masked ricers and mystery edly cost the child's life. The flames were not the only Ku Klux devices. destroyed the house where it started were not the only Ku Kux devices. destroyed the block of the sheeted horsemen did not merely and the one next door. Mrs. Irene To- tary for Foreign Affairs Curzon will

Labor Chief Demands Extinc- Sheriff, Fearing Trouble, Swears in Armed Specials and Warns Voters

SNARE FOR THE CREDULOUS WOMEN'S VOTE IS HEAVY

Klankraft Bigotry Is Seen in Chester Fight

Klankraft has made its appearance in the bitter primary contest in Delaware County. Residents of the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh Wards in Chester, found under their doors this morning handbills reading:

ATTENTION PATRIOTIC AMERICANS! "Do not vote for E. M. White.

HE IS A ROMAN CATHOLIC AND A K. OF C. (Signed) "K. K. K." Eugene M. White, an undertake and Deputy Coroner, is running for re-election to City Council. He belongs to the McClure faction.

Fifty armed deputy sheriffs are being held at Chester's City Hall, to serve if trouble arises at today's primary, one of the bitterest is many and the Delaware County Republican Bieg would be taken to Washington League, the rival factions, had polled on a special train lington Cemetery. a heavy vote in Chester in the morning hours, there was no indication that the armed men would have to be called

They were ready, however, for instant emergency, armed to the teeth and led by Sheriff Albert R. Granger, of Delaware County, who swore them fore now when a light motortruck was in after midnight, intending to hold struck by an Atlantic City train at To carry the armed deputies to any point where trouble may arise, the Sheriff had fifteen big automobiles parked back of City Hall. Sheriff Granger issued a proclama-

Hesitation of Bystanders Blamed for and guard their right to vote freely and without moiestation at any cost. Albert R. Granger, High Sheriff of Delaware County, hereby give notice that I will be prepared today to afford protection to the voters in case of any disturbance or disorder in the city of Chester or the county.

"My duty is to see that the constiterfered with and that order is pre-"In case of any disorder, telephone

The telephone number is that of the bine avenue last night after a week Chester City Hall.

On Own Initiative

Sheriff Granger swore in his deputies after a telephone conversation, held shortly before midnight, with T. Woodward Trainer, chairman of the Republican League Campaign Committee, The Continued on Page Two. Column Five

LLOYD GEORGE WON'T COME

London, Sept. 20.—(By A. P.)—It has been definitely decided that neither

Primary High Lights

Polls are open between 8 A. M Big fight in Republican primaries s over nominations for Receiver of Taxes, City Treasurer, City Con-troller and Register of Wills. Only contest in the Democratic primaries for a row office is between Michael J. Geraghty and Robert J. Sterrett for District Attorney.

This is also the day for special election of Congressman-at-large, and on question of holding a constitutional convention.

Those registered as non-partisan can vote only for Congressman-atlarge and on the question of a con-

Women are participating in primary in this State for first time. Approximate registration for primary-430,000 of whom about 100, 000 are women.

Eleven magitrates are to be nomi nated by each party; in the November election the majority party will elect eleven and the minority six.

CAMPBELL IN ROW WITH WAR VETERAN

Says Magistrate Threatened Him - Ballot-Box Stuffing Charged in 7th Ward dministration worker, told the Votrs' League he was threatened with a F. Campbell. Combine candidate for

McGill, who is first national vice commander of the Disabled Soldiers' League, said he drove up in a motorcar this morning to the polling place of the twenty-eighth division of the Twenty-fifth Ward, at Belgrade and

As he was about to alight, he alleged, Magistrate Campbell, who was on the sidewalk, ordered aim to stars walked out into the said of the bunga-in the machine. He said Campbell low where I found a police club. When threatened to whin him if he ap-proached the polling place. McGill had leave her. She told me she would explanned to visit the workers there. He had cast his own vote in another di-

Says Campbell Was Enraged McGill left the polling place and ported the occurrence immediately. He

A report that election officials in the seventeenth division of the Fifth Ward were ignoring challenges made by Independent watchers was made to the children, he said, he went to Detroit Voters' Lengue. The polling place is on Locust street near Fifth, not far home of a brother. While there he was leader of the Senate, who has been sefrom the scene of the fatal election dis-given a clipping, sent by a relative in lected by President Harding as a dele-orders of September, 1917.

Many voters were allowed to have for the nurder of his wife, he said, at the White House today to thank the assistance, the report stated, although He then field for Courtland, leaving President for the appointment, and to they were not required to make affidayly the two children with the relatives at that assistance was needed. Myers Woodsley, he said.

Bush, a Voters' League watcher, said Detective Doran said that when he American Government in the negotiahe was ejected from the polling place. An excited woman, who did not give fessed slayer, he was told Dobson had her name, telephoned to the Voters' gone to visit another relative, twenty

TO BURY BIEG AT ARLINGTON returned to Courtland and reported he

Mrs. Valentine M. Bieg. of Haver- and arrested him. ford, widow of the commander of the arrigible ZR-2, which exploded above son, number of intimate friends, has gone to New York to receive the body, which was brought to this country Satur-Though both the McClure machine is widely known as a golfer, said that

TRAIN KILLS TRUCKMAN

Driver of Motor Vehicle Fatally Hurt at Westville, N. J.

A man whose identity has not been fully established was killed shortly bethem under arms until all possibility of South Westville, N. J.

The motortruck belonged to a baking struck by an Atlantic City train at company in this city.

AMERICAN BALLOON LANDS

Belgica I Comes Down in Wales After 420-Mile Flight New York, Sept. 20. - (By A. P.)-

The Belgica I., an American entrant in the international balloon race which started from Brussels Sunday, has landed at Brach-y-Pwll, North Wales Ralph Upson, one of the pilots cabled this information to the Aero Cluof America today. The balloon traveled 420 miles in twenty-seven and one-hal absence they discovered a sneak thief had stolen Mrs. Smith's fur coat, valued $1000. The theft was reported to the police.

Sneak-Thief Gets Fur Coat When Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith

League Gives Women Voters Powder Puffs

Every woman who voted at the ainth division of the Thirty-fourth Ward. Fifty-sixth street and Haverford avenue, was given a powder puff ried with blue ribbon by workers for the Voters' League.

Facetious persons said that the puff was a reminder that the women should "take things at face value," while the color of the ribbon subtly urged them to be "true blue."

DOBSON, ON GRILL, ADMITS SLAYING HIS WANT-AD WIFE

Runnemede Highlands Man Says He Beat, Kicked and Robbed Her

FAILS UNDER QUESTIONING ON RETURN FROM CANADA

fore noon today that he beat his wife Isabella with a police club until she was semi-conscious, then struck her with a fence rail, placed her in bed, and kicked her before he fled from their home at Runnemede Highlands, N. J., Scotember 8.

The hody of the wife was found by neighbors September 9, terribly bruised, lying on the bed, where Dobson confessed he left her dyrng. Dobson confessed to Prosecutor Wol-verton, of Camden County, and Detectives Smith and Doran, who brought him to Camden this morning from Detroit, following his capture in Canada. He also confessed he took $140, part of the money Mrs. Dobson raised by a mortgoge on her home, and her wedding ring before he fled with her nephew and niece and his son.

ARRESTS IN THIRTY-NINTH vertisement.

"She was friendly with another the only statement Dobson Eugene L. McCill, a war veteran and would make in defense of his crime. After a grilling in the County Prose-cutor's office, which began shortly after beating today by Magistrate William ton's stubborr resistance to questions was finally broken.

Tells D-tails of Crime

"I had a quarrel with my wife the day before I disappeared," he said. "It was about her friendliness with another man. In this quarrel I beat her with my fists. "Next day-the day I disappeared-the fight was renewed. I told her I was going to quit her. I said I didn't want to live with a woman who was friendly with another man.

"She was ugly that morning. I plain everything.

"Then I beat her with the club. There was a fence rail nearby. I ment." the Mayor remarked in a joyial grabbed it and hit her with it. Then put her in bed. She was still semi-said several days ago Campbell asked him to go along with the Combine. He said the magistrate promised to take care of his friends in county offices. McGill said he refused to support the Combine and that Campbell became enson and her nephew and niece.

Dobson sent his wife's nephew

Mount Holly from Camden.

Saw Report of Murder

visited Courtland, in pursuit of the con- tions. League headquarters that she had been miles away.

Doran said he sent an automobile

Continued on Page Four, Column Four salesman to learn if Delson was at the wholeheartedly toward that end in the had seen a tran answering Dobson's description. When Doran arrived at Widow of ZR-2 Victim to Receive description. When Doran arrived at the relative's home, he said, he found the fugitive enthic smoking his pipe.

After Dobson's confession today his Raymond, and his wife's nicee. A report in the divorce action to voters are marked against the con-para, were turned over to relatives brought by Mrs. Cordelia Biddle Duke, vention. The Voters' League, on the candy by other passengers, the trip was Common Pleas Court. Before leaving. Mrs. Barlow, who swidely known as a golfer, said that he body of Lieutenant Commander along was shackled all the way, it was a "tonght rip," as the detertive tersely described it when he stepped off the lington Cemetery.

Common Pleas Court. It is understood action on the report will be taken in the near future.

The findings of the master appointed to make the stepped off the train, Detective Dorat, the fifth member of the party, had charge of the two local to discuss the case, it is rumored to the suggesting "No" on the constitution. The ballots were children, and by the time Philadelphia

Continued on Page Two. Calemn Two Duke has been made,

A Vote for Decency

MRS, JOHN WANAMAKER, 3d

Casting her vote today for the Voters' League candidates she had already aided greatly during the primary campaign MAYOR, IN JOVIAL MOOD.

COMES TO CAST HIS VOTE

ernment." He Says Mayor Moore and Mrs. Moore came up by auto from Island Heights to vote. They reached the polling place of the ninth division, Pifth Ward, 304 Cypress street, at 10:56 A. M. "I am hoping that the people will vote for a continuance of good govern-joining booths. The Mayor was in the booth ten minutes. He emerged a few seconds before Mrs. Moore.

As he stepped into his automobile the Mayor said. "The results of today's election will speak for themselves."

The beginning the booth ten minutes. The beginning ten by Vare people?

UNDERWOOD SEES HARDING

He said afterward that he did not regard the question as a political one. that he was heartily in favor of reduction of armaments, and would work

DUKE DIVORCE REPORT IN

Made Public

the Humber River, Eng., with her Barbara, were turned over to relatives brought by Mrs. Cordelia Biddle Duke, vention, mother, Mrs. R. H. Barlow and a in New Jersey. Dobson arrived at North Philadelphia at S.39 o'clock this morning. To the children with him, petted and given candly by other massagement. ionaire tabacco king, has been filed in Constitutional Convention for the purtused to discuss the case, it is rumored thousand technique and a divorce for Mrs. checken

MARSTON .: UP ON OUTMET

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20,-Max Marston, Marston, C. C. Phofadet. phia, was 3 up -a Fenncis Onimet. Boston, at the and of the first eighteen hales in the first round of the untoqual enveteur colf tourney here today.

PENROSE NOT COMING TO VOTE TODAY

Senator Penrose telephoned to his local entry today he will be unable to come to Philadelphia to vote at the primary. He explained he is may with a speech he is to delive. ..., the ifor in the Senate tomorrow in presenting the revenue of the ball

AMERICAN REPORTED KILLED BY MEXICAN SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.-Carl B. Tabb, a | American carploye of the Mexican Petroleum Company, was not and failed Sunday night "by Mexican soldiers" in the oil to be hear Tain pico, the American consul at Tampic reported to the State

BROWN CASTS BALLOT

Bysher Discharged Following Dis- Votes "Penrose Ticket"-Mrs. Harmon Just Missed Him

Judge Brown, president Judge of the ing to acquaint himself with gambling Municipal Court, voted at 10:10 o'clock conditions in Springfield township, this morning at Spring Garden street brought out in the gecent raid on the | near Fifteenth, the polling place of the Wheel Pump Inn, James G. Bysher, fourth division of the Fifteenth Ward. for many years chief of police in that He asserted he had voted the entire district, was discharged by the Board with Penrose as strongly as ever. Mrs. Archibald R. Harmon, vacate the township property where polling place and expressed regret that he is now living.

BOTH SIDES SEE VICTORY AS VOTE BATTLE WAGES

Combine Confident as Reports Indicate Strong Early Support in South Phila.

INDEPENDENTS PUT HOPE IN CLOSING HOURS' RUSH

Vare and Brown Followers Said to Be Opposing Constitutional Revision Openly

WOMEN FLOCK TO POLLS

Complaints of Irregularities Made by Faction Chiefs as Contest Grows Warmer

The Contractor Combine exerted all ts strength early today and rolled up a leavy vote in South Philadelphia, while In other sections the tide of independent otes began rising this afternoon.

The polls opened at 8 o'clock this morning and will close at 8 o'clock this evening. The crest of the independent wave is expected in the last three hours of voting. The Combine supporters were reported to be working solidly against the proposed constitutional convention. Some Penrose leaders also were opposing the convention. The Voters' League The Voters' League announced it would prosecute all cases of illegal fines face every offender, the League stated. The announcement followed reports of numerous cases of alleged illegal assistance in wards where Com-Charges of ballot-box stuffing in the Seventh Ward also were reported to The Mayor and his wife entered ad- tering arrests in various wards for alleged infractions of the election laws by Vare workers. The big issue is: The Vares or the

The Voters' League, supported by Mayor Moore and Senator Penrose and Thanks President for Appointment party name, by the Voters League. This Receiver of Taxes; Edwin Wolf. for City Controller; Arthur G. Graham, for City Treasurer; V. Frank Gable. for Register of Wills, and Samuel P. Rotan, for District Attorney.

Vares Kniffing Rotan

The Vares, nided by ward leaders who have refused to follow the leadership of Pencose, such as Tom Cunningham and James A. Carey, are cking this slate: W. Freeland Kendrick, for Receiver of Taxes; William F. Campbell, for Register of Wills; Will B. Hadley, for City Comptroller; Thomas F. Watson, for City Treasurer, and Mr. Rotan, for District Attorney, although there were reports that some of the Vare men were knifing Rotan in favor of Evan B. Lewis.

Vare workers are urging their followers to vote "No" on the question of holding a Constitutional Convention. Sample ballots distributed by Varemen

Electors throughout Pennsylvania are voting on the proposal to hold a other hand, is calling for a "yes" unestion.

The ballots were consequention. checked for all the "row" office candidates supported by the Voters' Longue, thely three candidates for Magistrate, Elias Abraus, Robert E. Deady and Charles Smith, were marked.

The Voters' League issued this state. "the reports from ward representative- indicate that the early vote is as Continued on Page Four, Comma Two

Rival Candidates for Row Offices Today

Receiver of Taxes Colonel George E. Kemp. Voters' Lengue W. Free and Kendrick, Vare. City Treasurer Arthur G. Graham, Voters' League.

Register of Wills V. Frank Gable, Voters' League. William F. Campbell, Vare. City Controller Edwin Wolf, Voters' League

Thomas F. Watson, Vare.

Will B. Hadley, Vare. District Attorney Samuel P. Rotan.

indorsed by both clements DEMOCRATIC TIRCET District Attorney

Michael J. Geraghty. Robert J. Sterrett. Receiver of Taxes William M. Moore. Register of Wills

Mrs. Jessie L. Collett. City Controller

John W. Graham, Jr. City Treasurer Nicholas Albrecht.

OUST SPRINGFIELD CHIEF

closures of Wheel Pump Raid Charged with neglect of duty in fail-

Bysher's discharge takes effect im-trying to drive women voters into the mediately and he has been ordered to Vare fold, called at Judge Brown's