

THE SLATE WINS FOR MAGISTRATES

Alliance With Cunningham 'Puts Over' 11 Candidates for C. O. P. Nominations

MISS FOSTER RAN WELL

The Vore-Cunningham slate of eleven candidates for magistrate was overwhelmingly nominated in yesterday's primary, crashing through all opposition with the ruthless weight of a tank grinding steadily ahead.

Vare and Penrose leaders united, in most instances, to put the Vore slate through. The machine workers stood almost solidly behind the slate in ward after ward, whereas the independent backing was scattered.

The Vares won as much because of the large number of votes on the Republican ballot as for any other reason. The trained workers were able to concentrate on eleven men.

Six Are Renominated The Republican nominees are: Magistrate John F. Dugan, William Beaton, John J. Harrigan, Joseph Coward and William J. Glenn, and Joseph M. Theobald.

The Democratic candidates are: Magistrate John F. Dugan, William Beaton, John J. Harrigan, Joseph Coward and William J. Glenn, and Joseph M. Theobald.

The candidates on the Vore-Cunningham slate are credited politically as follows: Magistrate Dugan to Senator Patton, a Vore leader; Magistrate Beaton to the Vore organization in the Fifteenth Ward; Harry Keeley, chief deputy of Receiver of Taxes Kendrick, is the leader; Magistrate Coward to Congressman Ransley, Vore leader of the Second Ward; Magistrate Harrigan to the Vore organization in the Nineteenth Ward; Perri to Congressman Vore; Roberts to Richard Weglein; O'Connor to A. M. Waldron; Magistrate Theobald to A. M. Waldron; Vore leader to Tom Cunningham and Scott to the Vares.

Amos Scott, the Vore leader of the Negroes, was out all over the city, even in so-called Democratic wards, in the Second Ward, for example, where Congressman Ransley is the Vore leader. Scott received only 1665 votes, while others on the Vore slate received considerably more than 2900 votes.

Harry J. Trainer, Administration leader of the Third Ward, turned in big votes for his political lieutenants, Thomas A. Conroy, Vore leader of the Third Ward; Fitzgerald, Vore leader of the Third Ward; and George J. McElwain, Jr., Trainer also gave a vote of 1617 to Magistrate Dugan, who was on the Vore slate.

Magistrate Carson, who had the endorsement of the Voters' League and the city of Pittsburgh, was expected in Trainer's ward. He received only nineteen votes, while Miss Foster got ten. Magistrate Imber received 515 votes in Trainer's ward.

Imber Did Well in Fourth As was anticipated, Magistrate Imber, who was dropped from the Vore slate, ran well in the Fourth Ward, where he got 2111 votes, running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

Frank N. O'Connor, former city detective, was running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

Frank N. O'Connor, former city detective, was running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

Frank N. O'Connor, former city detective, was running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

Frank N. O'Connor, former city detective, was running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

Frank N. O'Connor, former city detective, was running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

Frank N. O'Connor, former city detective, was running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

Frank N. O'Connor, former city detective, was running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

Frank N. O'Connor, former city detective, was running ahead of the Vore slate. Senator Salus refused to abide by the decision of the Vore-Cunningham cabinet to drop Imber.

'Buck' Devlin, leader of Senator Penrose's home ward, evolved a rain-colored slate in his district. It included the names of Magistrate Oswald, an appointee of Governor Spruill who failed to 'make' the Vore slate; Magistrate Dugan, of the Vore slate; Magistrate Harrigan, of the Vore slate; and Charles Smith, a lieutenant of President Judge Brown in the Fifteenth Ward.

PITTSBURGH NAMES MAGEE FOR MAYOR

G. O. P. Organization Candidate Wins Over J. N. Mackrell, Newspaperman

DEMOCRATS PICK M'NAIR

Pittsburgh, Sept. 21.—Closely than was forecast or was indicated in earlier returns last night, the regular Republican organization ticket was successful in all but three of the thirteen chief contests in yesterday's primaries.

Former Mayor William A. Magee, for Mayor, has a lead of about 15,000 votes over Joseph N. Mackrell, anti-organization candidate, with only fifty-five of the 640 election districts or divisions to be heard from.

Mackrell, making a wonderful run against his more experienced and older opponent and his organization supporters, appears on the face of the latest returns to have carried ten of the twenty-eight wards of the city. In the Democratic primaries Attorney William N. McNaair was nominated for Mayor.

The contest between the opposing Republican groups for the five Republican nominations for City Council appear to have resulted in three organized and two anti-organization candidates becoming the nominees.

Dr. W. J. McGregor, of Wilkinsburg, who lost both legs in the World War, was elected to the office of Mayor.

Captain Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

Magistrate Robert G. Woodside, anti-organization candidate, who was nominated for Sheriff by the greatest plurality known up to that time in a contest for nomination.

VOTE FOR REPUBLICAN MAGISTRATES

Table with columns for Ward, Candidate, and Vote. Lists candidates for various wards and their respective vote counts.

STERRETT WINNER OVER GERAGHTY

Supported by Donnelly-Lank Group, He Lands District Attorney Nomination

COLLET IS ALSO VICTOR

Robert J. Sterrett won the Democratic nomination for District Attorney yesterday, defeating Michael J. Geraghty.

Without opposition, Mrs. Jessie L. Collet, of the Ninth Ward, was nominated by the Democrats for City Treasurer.

Incomplete returns for the Democratic candidates for magistrates indicate the nominees are: Francis E. Scullen, Fourth-fourth Ward; Magistrate James H. Toughlin, First Ward; James P. Darby, First-sixth Ward; Charles J. Marshall, Third-sixth Ward; Miss Edna N. Snyder, Third-eighth Ward; Magistrate Benjamin H. Renshaw, Fourth Ward; Magistrate Charles E. McEwen, Third-eighth Ward; Henry C. Kline, Third-eighth Ward; Henry J. Burns, Third-eighth Ward; Lewis J. Dorn, Third-third Ward; William H. Belcher, Fifteenth Ward.

WOMAN'S MOTORCAR HURTS 3 IN PRIMARY NIGHT CROWD

Miss Catharine Marshall Held After Thirteenth Street Accident

Two women and a man who came into the heart of the city last night to hear the election returns were struck and injured by a motorcar at Thirteenth and Market streets.

The injured are Emma Le Spade, 666 North Nineteenth street; Mrs. E. Maxwell, 477 North Passon street; and Frank Waterberg, 1222 M. V. non street. Miss Le Spade's skull is fractured. Her condition is grave.

Police say the car was driven by Miss Catharine Marshall, 1222 M. V. non street, who moved here recently from Berlin, N. J. She was held in $5000 bail for court by Magistrate Renshaw in Central Station today.

Waterberg said he and the two women were crossing Market street when Miss Marshall's eastbound motorcar hit them. They had no chance to escape, he testified.

Miss Marshall said two other young women and three army lieutenants were in the machine with her. They left hurriedly after the accident. The young woman must be blamed for the accident. She said she was piloting his companions across the street and that she suddenly turned back.

BURNED RESCUING WOMAN

Acting Captain Cunneff Brings Her Safely From Third Floor

Acting Captain Patrick Cunneff, Engine Company No. 39, Sixth and Locust streets, had his hands badly burned and his face scorched when he rescued a woman overcome by smoke on the third floor of a three and a half-story brick building at 321 South Sixth street in a blaze which did several hundred dollars' damage at 10-10 o'clock this morning.

The fire, of unknown origin, started on the second floor of the building occupied by Joseph Sarsoff and spread quickly to the floor above. The smoke caused by burning furniture poured up to the third floor, cutting off the escape of a woman who screams attracted Captain Cunneff. Dashing into the house, the fire chief carried the woman from the fire in a semi-conscious condition.

Cunneff was treated on the scene by a police surgeon. The woman was revived by neighbors.

Harding Receives Facts on Ku Klux

Continued from Page One and property, and for jury trial. It also violates those sections which relate to freedom of religious worship and involuntary servitude.

Will Go 'Behind the Screen' In response to questions about his plans, Mr. Daugherty said that if Colonel William Joseph Simmons, the 'Imperial Wizard,' or Edward Young Clarke, the 'Imperial Kludge,' were guilty of a conspiracy to defraud and had been carrying on their business through the mails, the Department of Justice could indict him in New York.

The literature of the Ku Klux Klan is a real menace to the country, he said. Some of the trusts of the department has had to do with it. The declared purposes are not necessarily illegal, but it is what they do behind the scenes, the wink and the nod, that do the trick. We will go behind the screen and see what they are doing.

Mr. Daugherty was asked how action would be taken if the department decided to bring the Ku Klux Klan to court.

At first step, he explained, would be to seek a Grand Jury investigation and urge an indictment. He said District Attorney Bayward, on sufficient evidence, could ask for an indictment on the charge of conspiracy.

Mr. Daugherty declared the Ku Klux Klan has a right to organize as other national orders, but he said the Klan is a real menace to the country.

The District Attorney in Atlanta, in a letter, had been asked to inquire into the Klan's conspiracy to defraud. Mr. Daugherty is not yet ready to say whether Colonel Simmons and his associates can or will be formally indicted with respect to the Klan's crime, but he has set his forces to work to get the facts and report to him.

GOBLIN DEMANDED ANOTHER TEN, BUT 'JINER' REVOLTED

Yonkers Man Got Jolt When Second $10 Was Called For

New York, Sept. 21.—"It will be necessary for you to provide for regalia, etc., before going further, which amounts to approximately $10. YOU MUST BE SURE TO BRING WITH YOU."

In these few words is the explanation of how the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., of Yonkers, N. Y., has been able to raise $100,000 in the last few months.

They are the concluding paragraphs of a notice from Lloyd P. Hooper, Grand Goblin of the Invisible Empire, in which Mr. Hooper gives information how to get to the meeting to be initiated.

Having made the "donation" of $10, which entitled him to be received "through the portals of a Klan" as a full-blown Kluxster, Mr. Robinson was very much anguished at the letter.

The Klux Klan who got me to join the thing told me a lot about it," said he. "He assured me the $10 'donation' would cover everything. I was told that if I didn't bring the $10, I would be considered a 'quaker' and would not be allowed to join the Klan."

After having been assured $10 would be all the money required, I felt that the Klux Klan was a very clean and honest organization, and I decided to join.

It was the eighteenth annual competition for this trophy, which was won last year by Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, of the Mary Thayer Farnum Memorial Cup.

It was the eighteenth annual competition for this trophy, which was won last year by Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, of the Mary Thayer Farnum Memorial Cup.

THOUGHT HIS AUTO HIT DOG, NOT BOY

W. L. Irish Admits Machine Struck "Something" Night of Fatality

Warren L. Irish, a Philadelphia coal broker, on trial for manslaughter in Norristown, testified in court today he did not stop his auto the night of June 10, after he realized he had struck something while driving along Montgomery avenue, in Lower Merion, because he feared stopping in the dark because of his headlights.

Mr. Irish is charged with killing, with his car, Edward Foley, twelve years old, of Villanova. Edward's brother, Joseph, was injured.

The proceeding was instituted in the Merion Cricket Club, at Haverford, the morning of June 10, in company with Robert Irish, a cousin; Joseph D. Price, of Plymouth Court, to play golf. Mr. Irish and Mr. Price returned together.

"As we were driving toward Norristown, shortly after we left the cricket club, about 11:30 that night," said Mr. Irish, "we struck an object in the road, when blinded by the undimmed lights of an approaching car. There was a sharp impact, and a heavy impact. I said to Price, 'What was that?' and he replied, 'a dog.'"

"Having in mind the numerous hold-ups of Norristown, I thought we were being stopped. We kept on going. I saw in the paper the next day an account of the accident and was most concerned. At that time I consulted my lawyer in Philadelphia, and he advised me to stop. He would not positively identify the broken fender exhibited as that taken from his car."

He said he, which his companion in the car, which was a dog, was a dog and heard no outcry of any kind. He had no idea at what speed he was traveling, but thought it was from twenty to twenty-five miles per hour. He would not positively identify the broken fender exhibited as that taken from his car.

BURSUM LEADS DEMOCRAT IN RACE FOR U. S. SENATE

Victory by 8500 Plurality in New Mexico Election Claimed

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 21.—(By A. P.)—Partial returns from eight of the twenty-five counties in New Mexico from yesterday's election to choose a United States Senator today gave Holm O. Bursum, Republican, a lead of approximately 8500 votes over Richard H. Hanna, Democrat.

The count is proceeding slowly and in many precincts is not expected to be completed before noon. The fact that the election is being held in the most remote wire communication area to the delay.

O. L. Phillips, Republican chairman, claimed the election of Bursum by 8500 plurality in the election. Hanna, Democratic chairman, refused to make any statement.

The vote for A. A. Sena, independent candidate, was light.

The election in New Mexico was the first since the presidential election of 1916, which is being considered as a test on national issues.

HENRY LYSHOLM DIES

Shipbuilder, With Offices Here, Succumbs at Beach Haven

Henry Lysholm, of Woodbury, N. J., shipbuilder and contracting engineer, died last night at his summer cottage at Beach Haven, N. J., after an illness of several weeks. He was sixty years old.

Mr. Lysholm's offices were at 139 South Third street, this city. He was a native of Sweden and was a member of the shipbuilding and patented the Lysholm roller plate table.

He was for the three years general manager of the Gloucester shipyard of the United States Shipbuilding Corporation, supervised torpedo-boat construction at the yards of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation in Camden.

He is survived by a widow and four daughters. His body was today brought to the Lysholm home at 72 Encinedale avenue. Lysholm's funeral arrangements are not yet completed.

Window-Smashers Busy Again Thieves smashed a window of the pawnshop of Samuel Danay, at 4014 Market street, early this morning, and escaped with loot valued at $200.

BRIBERY CHARGE UP IN N. J. CASE

Cape May Court House Jury First to Decide Malfeasance Allegation Today

SENSATIONS ARE EXPECTED

Cape May Courthouse, N. J., Sept. 21.—With the case of the State against eight of the Freeholders of Cape May County due to go to the jury at noon today to decide a charge of malfeasance in office, with a bribery case coming up this afternoon, this quiet county seat is all braced and ready for a series of sensations.

The case still pending concerns the re-entrance of Landis avenue, Sea Isle City, which is alleged to have been a shoddy job. It is charged the malfeasance in office consisted in the payment by the freeholders of the county of $10,000, despite the poor quality of the job.

A total of $1,000,000 in graft is alleged by the State in various street and road contracts and the trail of official corruption is said to have many ramifications. Today's malfeasance in office case is declared to be weak, and counsel for the defense are sure of acquittal.

In the bribery case a loud wail is expected concerning alleged bribe money paid, for which the goods were not delivered.

According to Assistant Attorney General William Newcorn, a former county collector has confessed to having paid freeholders for votes which were not delivered when he came up for re-election.

This man will take the stand, according to Mr. Newcorn, and will tell of having paid $400 each to Joseph Mackessic and Otto Koesmeck, freeholders, for their votes and influence in the election of the county of Cape May, when he ran for re-election last term. He will also, said Mr. Newcorn, of $3500 paid to some other whose name he is expected to reveal. Hence the tense atmosphere in the county today. Young will not be in court, having suffered a paralytic stroke. His case will be postponed today because of his condition.

The indictment against Mackessic, Koesmeck and Young was found in the testimony of this ex-tax collector, according to Mr. Newcorn.

FIGHTS INCOME TAX RULING

Solicitor General Beck Asks Review by Supreme Court

Washington, Sept. 21.—(By A. P.)—Solicitor General Beck asked the Supreme Court today to review an income tax case which he declared of vital importance to the Government, investigating the question whether incomes of estates are subject to the income tax.

Mr. Beck said he had gone to the United States District Court of Chicago by the First Trust and Savings Bank as trustee of the estate of Otto Young, deceased, to recover $30,000, which the Government had collected as tax on the income of the estate during 1913, 1914 and 1915. The Government won, but the Court on Appeals reversed the decision.

"This decision should not be permitted to stand," the solicitor said in his motion, "as in effect it would permit the accumulation of enormous amounts of money for future and uncertain beneficiaries which would escape their just share of taxation under the income-tax law."

CONGRESS MEETS; FACES BIG TASKS

Senate Tackles Treaty, Tax, Beer, Rail, Canal and Allied Debt Measures

LODGE CONSULTS HARDING

Washington, Sept. 21.—Congress convened at noon today (1 P. M. Philadelphia time) after a recess which began August 24.

Under a gentlemen's agreement in the House, however, that body is to begin immediately a series of three-day recesses until October 4, while the Senate goes ahead at full speed on tax revision, the ratification of peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary, and with a number of other important measures, including the Anti-Beer, Railroad Debt Funding, Allied Debt Refunding and Panama Canal Tolls bills.

Presentation to the Senate of the peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary, and possibly of the Revenue Bill were expected to be the principal events today, although there was a possibility that only a perfunctory session would be held and business put off until tomorrow.

The tax measure was to be reported out of the Finance Committee and the peace treaties were to be transmitted with a brief note by President Harding.

To Speed Action on Tax Bill Indications were that both the Revenue Bill and the peace treaties might be considered virtually simultaneously when taken up. Speedy progress is expected with the former, but a hard fight is said to be in prospect with the Revenue Bill.

Senator Lodge, however, discussed with President Harding today the situation relating to the ratification of the treaties. It was indicated that the treaties would be referred to the Foreign Relations Committee as soon as they are submitted today by President Harding and that the committee probably would meet tomorrow to begin their consideration.

Senator Curtis, of Kansas, vice chairman of the Republican conference and party whip, it has been indicated, may be elected president pro tempore of the Senate in case Senator Cummins, of Iowa, who now holds that office, should desire to relinquish it because of ill health. In such an event it is expected that Senator Watson, of Indiana, will succeed Mr. Curtis as Republican whip.

Boosts Beer Bill A proposal that the beer bill which failed of final passage just before the recess of Congress be pressed for early action was taken to the White House by Senator Sterling, of South Dakota, who is in charge of the measure in the Senate.

Senator Sterling said, after a conference with President Harding, that he believed the latter was anxious to see the bill enacted and was certain it would receive presidential approval when sent to the White House.

The 1921 Tax Revision Bill, regarded

By Republicans and Democrats alike one of the most important pieces of legislation to come before the Congress, will be returned today to the Senate from the Finance Committee, which has spent three weeks in amending many of the provisions agreed upon by the House.

Advertisement for Louella butter, featuring the text 'The finest butter in America!' and '54c lb'. Includes an illustration of a woman with a child.

Advertisement for 'The Pillar' newspaper, featuring the text 'I remember an old wood cut—A Stalwart Pillar, with equally strong spokes radiating from it—' and 'How very much like the PUBLIC LEDGER!'

Large advertisement for Jacob Reed's Sons, featuring the text 'Have You Ever Bought at Reed's?' and 'The number of men who answer in the negative is daily becoming smaller; this year especially we have made tremendous increases in our list of new customers.' Includes an illustration of a man in a suit.

DEATHS STAUDERMAN—On Sept. 18, HARRY D. STAUDERMAN, of 1014 Locust St., Philadelphia, Pa., died at his residence, 1014 Locust St., Philadelphia, Pa., at 2 P. M. He was 72 years old. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia. He was buried at the Woodlawn Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pa., on Sept. 20, 1921.