BRIAND FAILS TO END STRIKE f Premier Briand to settle the textile Probably the agricultural States are more interested in this topic than the industrial States, which talk chiefly about when prosperity will return.

Every one says that the tariff is a subject never mentioned spontaneously by voters back home. Only when a Senator or Representative brought up the tariff did the voter talk, and then in a way that showed he had not been futile. He tried to induce the strikers and their employers to agree to arbitration, with Daniel Vincent, Minister of Public Works, as arbiter, but the employers are reported to have fused to negotiate. The strikers accepted the Premier's plan. The employers expressed willingness to deal directly with the strikers, it is said.

Only Philadelphia Representative of Steinway & Sons:

It is unapproached by any other—a union of the most versatile player and the piano the whole world accepts as its musical standard. In selecting a player-piano, the reproducing mechanism is of great importance—it should be the best—but the quality of the piano itself determines the real value of the combination. The Steinway masterpiece carries with it both musical dignity and assurance of continuing satisfaction.
