JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Talks of the Marriage of Mr. Biddle and Mrs. Gordon in Baltimore-She Tells of the

Drayton Tea on October 4

THOUGH the engagement of Mr. J. Mr. Rodman P. Bright, of Germantown, Wilmer Biddle, of this city, and Mrs. Douglas Gordon had not been an-Mrs. Douglas Gordon had not been an-the early fail at Chelsea.

Wilmer Biddle, of this city, and Mrs. Douglas Gordon had not been an-nonneed and the wedding announcement was made the day of the marriage (that was made the day of the marriage (that is Monday), it is safe to say that very few of us, if any, were surprised.
We have all known that Mr. Biddle has been devoted to Mrs. Gordon, and it seemed but a question of time till they should announce their intention to the world.
They were married in Baltimore at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Triplett Haxall, close friends of Mrs. Gordon, and Mr. Lynford Biddle, a brother of Mr. Wilmer Biddle was best man. Douglas Gordon, Jr. Mrs. Biddle's son, gave her in marriage. Mr. Bid-dle and his two daughters, Marianne and Harriet, live in Chestnut Hill. His first wife, who died several years ago, was Miss Cora Rowland.
After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Biddle will live in Chestnut Hill. Krs. Biddle is a most attractive woman and Biddle is a most Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkin-son and their family, formerly of 2219 Spruce street, have returned from Cape May, where they spent the summer, and are occupying their new home, 2122 De Lancey street.

Biddle will live in Chesting woman and Biddle is a most attractive woman and will be a decided addition to society will be a decided addition to society here. She has visited in this city a great deal, and is much liked. She is a daughter of Mrs. James Eldredge Clarke, of Virginia. Her first husband, Douglas Gordon, died several years

Lancey street. Mrs. Francis S. Dougherty and her daughter, Miss Gertrude D. Dougherty, and sons, Mr. Daniel Dougherty and Mr. Andrew W. Dougherty, have returned to their home, 2306 Locuat street, after spending the summer at Jamestown, R. L. and Cape May. Miss Dougherty will be formally presented to society at a tra to be given by her mother on Satur-day afternoon, November 5. Mr. and Mirs. Graham Dougherty, of Cross Roads. Wyncote, will entertain at a dance on Friday evening. October 21, in honor of Miss Dougherty and Miss Isabel Fraser. to be given at the Philadelphia Cricket Club. Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. C. Kramer. TT'S really marvelous how much we are going into in the way of gayety that the senson has started. It's now that the school and senson too, extra going to be a long senson too, extra long I should say, because starting last week it will last until the end of Feb-

 In that no other city in the unit of the winter and her daughter, Miss Eisle Du Puy Graham Week it will last until the end of February. The bal masque which always takes place the last day of the season or on Shrove Tuesday, will be given at the Philadelphia Cricket Club.
 Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. C. Kramer, of Laurel Springs, N. J., formerly of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Karlyn Kramer, and Mr. Charles John Draude, of Laurel Springs, in the Episcopal Church of the Atonement, Laurel Springs, at 9:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning, September 20. On their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Draude will be at home after October 1.
 Mrs. Barton Cooke Hirst and her daughter, Miss Eisle Du Puy Graham thas such suburbs, for with strue Philadelphia pride I maintain that no other city in the Union tain that no other city in the Union has such suburbs, and such accessible ones, as ours. And you go to so many parts of the country. So far the teas have been on the Main Line, but now the cards for Evelyn Drayton's at home are out, and that will be a de-lightful motor trip out to Penlign. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edward Dray. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edward Dray.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edward Dray-ton, who with their son Bob. Evelyn's father, are giving the at home to in-troduce her, live at the old Drayton house, "The Cedars," which was for-merly occupied by Mr. Drayton's par-ents, the late Mr. and Mrs. William Drayton, whose town house was on Spruce street above Tenth for many verse To go out there the casiest way Miss Rachel C. Baker, daughter of Mrs. Louis C. Baker, Jr., of St. Asaphs road, Bala, who has been spending several months abroad, will return to her home the latter part of next week. Mr. George A. Huhn and his daugh-ter, Mrs. Joseph W. Bailey, Jr., who have been spending the summer at their home in Haverford, will return to their town house, 1706 Locust street, the latter part of next week. rs. To go out there the casiest way years. To go out there the casest way is to motor to Chestnut Hill, and then take the Bethlehem pike to Fort Wash-ington village. When you reach there do not go on across the bridge, but take years. To go off there the callest way is to motor to Chestnut Hill, and then take the Bethlehem pike to Fort Washington village. When you reach there do not go on across the bridge, but take the Morris road and follow it straight along for about three miles.

The at home is to be given on Tuesday afternoon, October 4, and for those who may wish to go out by train there will be buses to meet the train leaving the Reading Terminal at half after 4 o'clock.
TAVE you seen Evelyn lately? I AVE you seen Evelyn lately? I always thought she would develop into a stunning girl, and she certainly has. She has that wonderful soft red gold hair, which is not red nor yet gold, but a real combination of the two, and her eyes are rather dark. She is tall and slim and very graceful. You remember her mother, who was Anna Jones. She was a lovely woman and devoted to her daughter. She died about three years ago quite suddenly that is, after a very short illness. I remember how whok de we all were at the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time, and what a sad thing it was
for her little daughter, who was the
the time. The time the time the time the time the time. The time the time the time the time the time the time. The time the time. The time the

THIS SEASON'S DEBUTANTE

MISS CORNELIA A. S. RANKIN Photo by Bachrach Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall Rankin, who will be presented to society at a tea by her parents on Wednesday, October 7, at Deep Run Farm, their estate at Penllyn the week for Atlantic City, where they will spend a fortnight at the Ritz-Carl-ton while her daughter is recuperating from an oversite DELAWARE COUNTY Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Saul are entertaining Miss Eleanor Plaisted Atholt at their home in Rose Valley from an operation tor a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Flood, of Wayne avenue and Hortter street, and their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. A. Frederick Leopoid, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butterworth, and Miss Eddie Flood, who spent the summer at their cottage at Ventnor, returned home last Sunday. Mr. Edward Janney Johns, son of Mr and Mrs. Walter Robinson Johns, o and Mrs. Walter Robinson Johns of Media, has been spending a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. William, Johns, at her home in Moylan.

S

The marriage of Miss Florence M. Vanderslice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vand relice, of 135 East Mee-han street, ω Mr. Walter H. Reck-ard, of 5935 McCallum street, took place ard, of 5936 McCallum street, took place at 4 o'clock on Saturday atternoon at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. William Beatty Jennings, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Germantown, performed the cere-mony, and Mr. Vanderslice gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Marle Goneringer attended the bride as maid of honor and Mr. Edward Naegele was best man. A small reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Reckard are on a trip to Washington, Jackson-ville, Fla; Key West, Fla, and Havana. Cuba. They will be at home at 136 East Meehan street after October 1. Miss Marthan Stinson, of Glenside.

Miss Marthan Stinson, of Glenside, Miss Marthan Stinson, of Glenslde, entertained at a luncheon and a kitchen shower at her home on Saturday after-noon in honor of Miss Helen Lawton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Lawton, of 5520 Morris street, whose marriage to Dr. Joseph Hummel, of Ai-lentown, will take place in the First Methodist Church, Germantown, on Saturday evening, October 8, at 7 o'clock. o'clock.

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

WEST PHILADELPHIA Mrs. Max Gartman, of 5847 Chestnut street, accompanied by her daughter. Miss Anna M. Gartman, will leave with-in a fortnight on a tour through New York State, when they will visit rela-tives. Miss Gartman entertained twelve guests at her home last weck.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Adler, of the Belle Claire Apariment, are spending September at the Breakers, Atlantic

NORRISTOWN

Miss Rachel Place, of 622 Stanbridge gtreet, entertained at bridge at her home in honor of Miss Frieda Rambo, who will be married in October to Mr. Nelson Coleman. There were twelve guests and Miss Rambo was presented with a surprise linen shower.

Schellhase-Tyson Wedding

Schellhase-Tyson Wedding An autumn wedding of interest took place in Christ Reformed Church, Norristown, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Dorothy Tyson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Tyson, of 652 Stanbridge street, was married to the Rev. Adam Edward Schellhase, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Schellhase, of Chambersburg, Pa. The Rev. John M. Peck, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. Ralph S. Gilbert, of this city, attended the bride as maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Clay Schellhase, brother of the bride as maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Clay Schellhase, brother of the bride as given at the home of the bride spartman, of Phoenixville, and Mr. Frank Walker, of Chambersburg. The bride was given in marriage by her father. A reception for the immediate families was given at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony. Upon their return from an automobile wedding trip to Washington and Virginia. Rev. Schellhase and his bride will live at Fort Loudon, Pa., and will be at home after November I. The bride is a grad-uate of the Norristown High School and of Temple University. The bridegroom graduated from Merceraburg Academy, Urainus College and the Central Theo-logical Seminary, Dayton. He is pastor of the St. Peter's Reformed Church. Fort Loudon, Pa.

Loudon, Pa.

1517 Walnut Street

Autumn Chapeaux

We now present inimitable originations as well as importations of exclusive advance modes. Our Display abounds in exquisite creations suitable for every occasion.

 apple of her eye.
 There is no doubt that Evelyn will have a beautiful time, for she is popular and unspoiled and lovely.
 DID you see the Andrew Wheelers' small son out at the tennis last week? I had not seen him since he was about three, and he certainly is as good looking as he was then. Well, my dears, he was wearing a full Eton get-up-long gray trousers, black Eton jacket, white collar and curst sight; his small mocha gloves were the fin tember 21, at Signal Mountain, Tenn. Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Ida Mitchell Wright, of New York and Vineland, N. J., and Mr. Gurtis K. Mullin, of this city, which took place yesterday at noon in New York at the Church of the Transfiguration. Miss Ethel Mitchell was maid of honor and Mr. Moritz Emery, of this city, was best man. A breakfaat followed the ceremony at the Vanderblit. The bride and bridegroom left on a wedding trip to Canada and Bermuda. Mr. and Mrs E. V. Fineran, of 122 West Louden street. Germantown, who are still occupying their bungalow at Seaside Heights, N. J. had as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Moyer. his small mocha gloves were the finishing touch, I can tell you, and every one was turning around to see him as he passed along with his father.

CPEAKING of tennis, I was fairly convulsed out there on Monday when the finals were being played. Every one was tensely watching, when a small girl of about five. I should judge, who evidently thought she'd been brought to a circus, suddenly spoke up: "I wish those men'd get through play-ing ball and let the stunts begin."

NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and Mrs. Charles Custis Harri-r. of Chuckswood, Villanova, will son, Jr., of Chuckswood, Villanova, will entertain at dinner on Sunday evening in honor of Miss Dorothy Browning Rogers, daughter of Mrs. William H. Donner, of 345 South Eighteenth street. who will be formally presented to so-dety at a tea by Mr. and Mrs. Donner on Wednesday, November 23.

One of the most interesting of this Beason's debutantes will be Miss Alice Benedict, daughter of Mr, and Mrs Rob-ert Benedict, who will be formally pre-sented to society at a tea on Wednesday afternoon, October 12, at the Corners. Sugartown road, Devon. Miss Benedict 'al also be the guest of honor at a dance to be given by her parents at the Ritz-An Interesting dobustes of this au-

An interesting debutante of this au-tumn will be Miss Elizabeth Austin, of the Latham Apartments, who will be formally presented to society at a tea to be given by her brother, Dr. J. Harold Austin, at the Acorn Club on Tuesday afternoon, October 25.

Countess von Holstein has been spend-Countess von Holstein nas been spend-ing a few days in New York, where she went to meet her brother-in-law and elster, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Prentice, and their daughters, Miss Caroline C. Prentice and Miss Kate de Forest Pren-tice, who arrived on board the Olympic yesterday and are staying at the St. Regis. Regis.

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb J. Milne, Jr., of 6611 Wissahickon avenue, Germantown, who spent five months traveling in China the second se Japan. Honolulu and the Philip pine Islands, returned home last week Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dunn, of Chel-tenham road, Chestnut Hill, have re-turned from a several weeks' stay at Up-per Saranac, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Percy Bright and their sons, Mr. Bertron J. Bright and

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sluizer, of the Boyal Apartments, Broad street and Bear, of this city, on Wednesday, Sep-tember 21, at Signal Mountain, Tenn Royal Apartments, Broad street and Girard avenue, are spending some time in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. David and their family, of 2027 North Twenty-second street, have returned from Atlantic City. Mrs. Henry Jenkins, of Fifteenth and Diamond streets, will entertain the mem-bers of her sewing circle at her home tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Becker, of 1844 North Sixteenth street, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent the summer. Miss Ruth Winelander, of 1928 North Franklin street, has returned from a trip to the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Abrams. of 2234 Park avenue, have returned from At-lantic City, where they spent the sum-Mr. and Mrs. Heinreich Rosenbaum. of 4844 Pulaski avenue, Germantown, who left early in the summer for Ger-many, have been visiting relatives in Berlin and traveling in other places in Europe. They expect to return home some time this month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Feuchtwanger, of 2027 North Fifteenth street, are spend-ing a month at New Castle, Pa.

GERMANTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. John Bromley and their family, of Wissahlckon avenue and Hortter street, returned on Monday from Chelsea, where they occupied a cottage for the summer. Mrs. Bromley and her little daughter, Miss Janet Bromley, will leave the latter part of

A.M. Bidding& Uo. RITZ CARLTON HOTEL

PHILADELPHIA

Announce

INFORMAL SHOWINGS

Of French and Gidding Autumn Fashions

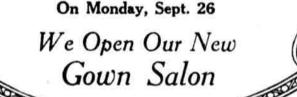

EMBRACING

GOWNS SUITS COATS DAY and EVENING WRAPS BLOUSES and FURS

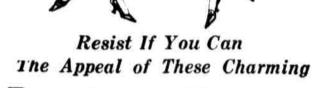

ALSO

First Display of Paris and

Gidding Millinery

Daytime Dresses

If you are not captivated by the loveliness of the new models - models that are in the highest degree individual and distinctive-you will certainly be a willing victim to the lure of the newly low prices.

Choose from a splendidly varied showing of "tailor-mades" of Poiret Twill and Twill Cord, and more elaborate effects of Canton, Roshanara and Satin Crepes.

The Values Are Exceptional at $25, $29.50, $35

-and the unusually low special price upholds the BASTIAN-DAVIS reputation of underselling all other dress stores in the city of Philadelphia.

for Dresses worth up to as high as 65.00 and even more.

NITES 55 254 .504 .754 $1.00

DAILY MATINEES .25$.50$

TODAY

SHUBERT

ADELPHI NE Eves. at

ADELPHI

WALTER

Last $1.00 Mat. Today

SEATS NOW SELLING

OPENING MON. NEXT

LYRIC

MISS THE FIRST PERFORMANCE ILADELPHIA. SOLVE THE SECRET BAT BEFORE YOUR NEXT

MAT. SAT.

NER MOROSCO PRESENT

SENSATIONAL MELODY DRAMA H

Academy of Music

THOMAS JEFFERSON in

RIP VAN WINKLE

A DRAMATIC FICTURIZATION OF THE GREAT STACE CLASSIC MUSICAL FROMAN BY MEMBERS OF PHILADELFUIA ORCHESTRA "THE AWAKENING OF HEP" WITH COMPANY OF GNOMES

Children

Half Price

TINUING THIS WEEK AND NEXT

Valnut at Nint

NEXT

EVENINGS, SUS

SPECIAL

Saturday

CANLAN

NIGHTS

SEAT_SALE STARTS

Canton Crepe, Taffeta Georgette Crepe Georgettes, Charmeuse Poiret Twill, Tricotine

Models for Street and Afternoon Wear that assert their newness by way of silhouettes, striking sleeve and neck effects, and details of ornamentation shown in navy, black and brown. Sizes 16 to 44.

This is unquestionably one of the best advance season offerings high-class Dresses we have ever made.

The materials are among the preferred of the season, including bolivias, silvertone, polo cloth, velour and other high-grade coatings. The color range is very broadnankin, elk, sand, brown, navy and black. Swagger belted, semi-belted and wrap-like models.

Some of these Coats are worth up to $75.00

All Sales Final. No Exchanges or Refunds

Purchasing Agents' Orders Accepted

For COATS

Worth up to $125.00

Collars of fine, heavy Nutria, Australian Opossum or Sealine. Many have cloth collars of same materials. Sizes 16 to 44

$49.75

For COATS

Worth up to $80.00