EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1921

10

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

Modest Violets

Woman's Life and Love

By WINIFRED HARFER COOLEY

TIMID, sbrinking females are no more. We hear songs in vaudeville about "When Grandma Was a Girl." which picture enstoms of mod-esty and shrink-about "When Gra which picture customs of modesty and shrink-ing coyness that are so far re-moved from coyness that moved from modern girlish actions that it buman nature itas though No longer do maidens cast wn their eyes and cringe, as if

in terror the WINIFRED roving male the HARPER COOLET

Hence, on the HARPER COOLET contrary, they wear skirts above their knees when seated, socks and bare legs one-piece bathing suits, and decollete ball gowns that leave few charms to the imagination.
Is it true that women are not so modest as has always been declared the fad of shortening their skirts until
the fad of shortening their person!
the fad of shortening their skirts until
the fad of shortening their person!
the fad of shortening their skirts until
the fad of shortening their person!
the fad of shortening their person

people who study ethnology, the science for the kings! of races, explain that simple naked savages, like little innocent children have minds free from vulgar or instful attitude and actions of persons which "A humble person makes me tired." we traly may define as refinement, dearess, maintain an unconscious, modest sir that is quite as demure as was that of our grandmother in her erinolines. The manners and morals of boys, un-fortunately, never have given rise to much apprehension, although every one visited upon the children, even unto the fourth generation ; but the manners and morals of woran who wants to be a martyr al-to bully her. No, sir; give me a girl that has some spunk. No clinging, that has some spunk. No clinging, that has some spunk. No clinging, that has some spunk, No clinging, morals of women always are harrowing bache'or who I had thought was quite tors and preachers. So, we now hear that the world is going to the dogs be-cause girls no longer are modest violets, born to blush unseen and waste their fragrance on the dogs to be done to blush unseen and waste their that the world is going to the dogs be-cause girls no longer are modest violets. The done to blush unseen and waste their the done to blush unseen and waste their that the world is done to blush unseen and waste their the done to blush unseen and waste the blush the done to blush unseen and the waste the blush the done to blush unseen and the waste the done to blush the done to blush the blush t fragrance on the desert air.

them, and we suspect that, if truth gest those feline curves, silken-draped, were told, many a maid went gunning that lured men to commit murder and swing for ir. The panther-woman is out of date. But because we are beautiful. The date half of the weekle salary one night a week later our dane went again to the dance half—not plan, heaving to the dance half—not plan, heaving to the dance half—not plan, heaving the theorem of the longer are beautiful. The parther weekle salary one night a week later our dane went again to the dance half—not plan, heaving the theorem of the salary of the salary one night a week later our dance half—not plan, heaving the theorem of the salary one night a week later our dance half. The parther weekle salary one night a week later our dance half the theorem of the salary one night a week later our dance half. The parther weekle salary one night a week later our dance half the theorem of the salary one night a week later our dance half. The part provide the salary one night a week later our dance half. The part part of the dance half of the salary one night a week later our dance half. The part part is the salary of the

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR by Public Ledger Company

sister-in-law has no right whatever to but human actions are very similar. take away your character, but at the Even away back in Rome's great days a couple of thousand years ago, when Christianity was trying to get ahead of Paganism, the noble Senator-took time from their eloquent speecher on income taxes and back-to-the-farm movements to rail against women for getting divorces and not having more children? And then folks think that birth control is a new science. "What is the matter with modern girls?" we asked a young man. "They know too much." he promptly re-sponded. "They have no illusions con-cerning life or love—or men." Even away back in Rome's great same time you say you have not spoken the Adam and Eve myth. That is, everything was going so comfortably-self. I like her independence -even her

The sociologists tell us that clothes were the outgrowth of a sense of shame (apart from their necessity in cold countries), which oddly coincides with the Adam and Eve worth. That is constructed and an and Eve worth of the divine right of kings, just when the Adam and Eve worth. That is constructed and an and Eve worth of a sense of shame countries), which oddly coincides with the Adam and Eve worth. The till and a source of the divine right of kings, just when the Adam and Eve worth of a sense of shame and the divine right of the dit the divine right of the

Let, Them Both Drop

Dear Cynthia-I am coming to you or the second time, thanking you for thoughts—they live all their days with-out clothes as unconsciously as do the birds.
Undoubtedly, it is true that modesty is a matter of geography and of the entury—yet there is something in the my hat to her.
Who wants a modest violet swaying modern youth. "I want a girl that plays tennis and swims and takes prizes, and yes, if she becomes a cracker-ing the attended of the something in the my hat to her."
Your advice the first time. I have been going with a young man for three years and was at the same seashore resort last summer. Who wants a modest violet swaying modern youth. "I want a girl that plays tennis and swims and takes prizes, and yes, if she becomes a cracker-ing hat to her."
Your advice the first time.
I have been going with a young man for three years and was at the same seashore resort last summer. Who we have been writing to each other ever since.
Nov. Cynthia, today he wrote me a attitude and actions of persons which we truly may define as refinement, de-cency, purity and modesty. Some girls repel you by a suggestive manner, while others, wearing the same type of un-dress, maintain an unconscious, modest sir that is quite as demure as was that

A Little Fable

Dear Cynthia-I am a devout reader of your column. I have kept silent, but fragrance on the desert air. Really, it is a shame that anything as charming as the fragrance of a flower should be wasted, and we cannot help encouraging modern young women not to waste themselves by a too over-whelming shyness. One may have a decent and refined demeanor, without shrinking away from human gaze. One may be a fine, upright woman, and yet usurp the old-time male prerogatives reve so far as selecting one's own spouse and capturing him? Our grandmothers didn't talk sa openly, but they had a little way with them, and we suspect that, if truit were told, many a unid went gunning smoothed? 2. What is the process used to make beads? Breathlessly Jane went from one to another Johnnie, all nice, smiling and sleeky-haired. And so it was week in and week out Jane kept up her fast pace. In the parlance of the dance hall Why is it that babies' eves are nearly always blue at first? What is the Mammoth Cave?

1. Pine

that

Describe a beautiful beaded bag to be carried with a gray dress. What color is "sorrento" > in a bedroom. 2. In shampooing the hair, boil the

Yesterday's Answers

Pine cones can be painted to match and used as window-shade removed from the stove add a lit-the lemon juice. This gives a delightful scent to the hair.

Aukles that are not slender should te given a slim appearance by drop-stitch stockings or stockings that are striped up and down.

The Maid of Orleans was Joan of Long tassels of black silk make a new and distinctive note on a white chiffon fan. "Serge rezo" is a trimming made of a raised check in which one turend is bright red wool and the

A mother's problem — what food gives back the energy

a child uses up daily?

other heavy silver.

water, and just as it h

IN A QUAINT HALL

Central News Photo

It is often hard to avoid a stiff appearance when furnishing this part of the house, but the friendly arrangement pictured above manages this "without half trying." A simple, extremely well-balanced effect is given by the graceful telephone stand, with stool placed in front of it, and a picture hanging right above. And of course the slim lady with her ermine stole and white hat does a good deal toward making the spot an attractive one that it gives lends a real charm to the Adventures With a Purse dresser I always think that this is the nicest

I always think that this is the neest time of the year to write about things for the house, because I suspect that there is more protection and warmth in and planning what new things you want to add to dress the house up for the winter. Now the set of the inside of the most insistent is a powerful light by which doctors winter. Now the house up for the wind, but they also adopt the most insistent is the matter with them." exto add to dress the house up for the wind, but they also adapt themselves winter. Now, then, if you are interested in a boudoir lamp for the guest One shop is having a sale of jersey silk ankle-length knickers in virtually all the decker solers are 22 05 and the darker colors. Prices are $2.95 and you will want to hear about the ones $3.95. They are made perfectly plain, I saw for $4.75. Each is a lovely china with just two headings where the elas-lady with billowing skirts of old rose the taffeta, through which the light shines firm. most bewitchingly. Of all the many pretty lamps one can find for the bedroom I know of none more distinctly feminine than these quaint ladies. Their light, it is true, may be hidden under a bushel, but the soft, diffused glow

Knotty Hands

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. If a can of enamel is thick and lumpy, how can it be softened and artificial pearls out of glass

Practical Common Sense Is Needed For the Girl With Two Personalities

She Needs a Definite Aim in Life to Keep Her From Brooding About and Exaggerating the Shifts in Her Character

(Jack and Janet and Bobby Bouncer go with Doctor Fun to find what ails Baby Cutie, who keeps the whole neighborhood awake with her crying. No one can see them because they are painted with invisible

> CHAPTER V What Ailed the Baby

Doctor Fun

By DADDY

ADVENTURES

DREAMLAND

paint.)

DOCTOR FUN walked into the nurs-ery where Cutie, the baby, was squalling and kicking as she lay in her trouble. rib. Cutie's mother was trying to stop her crying by rocking her and offering her nice warm milk. But Cutiz didn't want to be rocked. and she knocked away her bottle of milk. Her mother didn't know what to do with her. At one moment the mother was very much worried over her and the next moment the mother grew cross. Such erying and kleking were and the next moment the mother grew cross. Such crying and kicking were sitiveness would take possession of her enough to get on any one's nerves, no understanding and send her away deeply which it will be absolutely necessary matter now sorry they might be for wounded by some unintended slight. Baby Cutie. THIS was not a dual personality, it acters.

As for Baby Cutie's father, he picked I was just a too distant, change of the entire character, which only the himself up from the floor where he had tumbled when Bobby Bouncer tripped girl herself realized. And it may be that she gave it more bim, and sat down beside the crib. There he nursed his sore big toe. Neither Cutie's father nor Cutie's mother could see Doctor Fun, nor Jack were hidden by invisible paint. for all the weak.

the harder. Then Doctor Fun gave Cutic a taste of one of his candy sticks. "Yow-yow-yow!" yelled Cutie, and she hit at the candy with her chubby band, just as she had hit at her bottle. "This is a very puzzling case," said "This is a very puzzling case." said Doctor Fun, wrinkling his brow. "I may have to operate. I can tell after I look at the baby's insides." Jack and Janet wondered how he was going to look at the baby's insides Doctor Fun soon showed them. He got the fieldglass out of his setchel and the flashlight, too. He had Jack hold the flashlight against one side of Baby Cutle while he looked at the other side hrough his fieldglass. "What are you doing?" asked Janet. is very attractive. much puzzled.

pitch. Purchase a solution of it at any "Have you ever heard of the X-ray?" nsked Doctor Fun. No. neither, Jack nor Janet had heard of the X-ray. "It drug store and apply it with a soft cloth. Take care not to rub it hard.

X-ray. It is a B-ray. Do you know why?" Neither Jack nor Janet could guess, so, with a chuckle Doctor Fun told them. "It is a B-ray because it stands for baby. You should know that from your alphabet book."
 All the time he was talking Doctor Fun was looking through his fieldglass at different parts of Baby Cutie. Now he gave an excited shout.
 "I see it!" I see it!" Deter T he gave an excited shout. "I see it! I see it!" Doctor Fun put down his fieldginss and seized the rincers from his satchel. "I'll have to pull it out !" "What is it?" cried Janet. "Is it a sore tooth? Knotty hands are like "heavy" hands in some respects. They're built around Janet saw it wasn't a sore tooth that in some respects. They're built around a heavy, bony structure. But here the similarity ceases. By the knotty hand, as you probably have surmised, is meant the hand in which the knuck-les are bony and prominent. They are so because the tough. large, fleshy structure of the "heavy" hand is lack-ing. This type of hand does not indicate physical toughness and energy so much as independence and a mind which works in decided fashion along lines of reason and logic. The knotty-handed person is as a

"I'll have to operate, 'un, and he took out his seissor". (How Doctor Fun operates will he head and curled lips. Would you also tell me what style The knotty-handed person is as a

While the other side pleads timidly, "Oh, he careful, you know you'd feel VOU see I have two entirely dis-Y tinct personalities." The speaker was a girl who had never and you probably won't be able to set the speaker was a girl who had never een able to find herself. She had wandered about from hobby away with this. Don't do it !''

She had wandered about from house to hobby, from idleness to work, from deep thinking to laughing at herself. The one thing that stood out in her mind was that great fact, that she really had two distinct personalities.

And that was really her one great Not the personalities, but her deep sympathize with her, but if you do she for her to concentrate all her energies. all her thoughts and both her char-

IF SHE has to think hard enough like that, she will forget most of the time about her personalities and may come, in time, to see that they are only And it may be that she gave it more the next her personalities and may come, in time, to see that they are only just what everybody else has, but accentuated by her own estimation of the weak.

It is rather romantic to have "two

The Woman's Exchange

Need Not Discard Dress o the Editor of Woman's Pape:

to make an apricot-color messaline " dress, mostly to wear at entertain-ments? What shows would be suitable to wear with such a dress? Dear Madam-Is there anything that can take pitch off a dress? I have a TROUBLED WINONA. I am afraid that curling the hair, no matter how you do it, is a lot of trou-ble. If the curlers you are using an-noy you try some kind that are softer and more pliable. Generally if the hair is curly when it is being arranged it will remain well fixed, even if it does lose some of its curl. Fix your hair in soft fashion over your forehead. Draw it back over the ears and let it hang, fastening it together at the nape of the neck with a pretty barrette. TROUBLED WINONA. very pretty old rose organdie dress and got pitch on it somehow. I would not like to part with the dress yet, as it I. R. J. Carbon tetrachloride-will remove the last until noon. S. P. R. Your hair must be that kind that does not hold the curl well, no matter how you put it in. You are using the way that is least harmful to it and I would advise you to keep or with this. A little gum arabic solution will help to keep it curly.

Wedding

Gifts

Helping "Winona's" Troubles

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Medam-Will you kindly tell me

Unequaled variety of the kinds preferred by discriminating people

> Wright Tyndale & van Roden 1212 Chestnut Stree

Read Your Character By Digby Phillips

general proposition a pretty good all-around useful citizen. He's not opposed to sentiment, but his reason and his logic dominate his emotions pretty largely. He acts on mental conclu-sions rather than upon impulse. He's likely to be rigid in his code, whatever that code is, accurate and dependable in his own actions and exacting of others in this same respect.

Yet withal, though undemonstrative, he is inclined to be tactful, discreet and diplomatic, even in his exactions from others. He is conscientious in his undertakings, and though practicality is one of the keynotes of his character, he is more often than not a pretty keen student of people and things.

Tomorrow-Critical Fingernails.

HILDREN use up a tremendous amount of energy every day. Every mother of a healthy, sturdy youngster will testify to this. Children need richly nourishing food to supply

this energy, and also to supply

The selection of this food is your most important duty. You cannot give too much care to this matter. Grape-Nuts, the rich, wholesome cereal, made from whole wheat flour and malted barley, with milk or cream, supplies very necessary requirements for the growing

If you want to help your children to be rosy, sturdy, full of vitality and vigor, give them

plenty of delicious Grape-Nuts,

Go to your grocer today and get a package of health-building

Grape-Nuts. Give the youngsters this invigorating food with milk or crosm, and see how they will thrive on it and grow strong, robust and sturdy.

crisp, sweet and satisfying

food for growth.

Theodora Caldwell has become en-gaged to Jimmy Bland, and to her teurprise is not happy about it. She tells her employer. Richard Blakeslee, that she is leaving to be married, and, because he feels that she has no rights aside from his wishes, he kid-naps her and carries her off on his pacht bound for South America on a business trip. A broken propeller changes the plan of the trip. and Richard Blakeslee, seeing Theo for the first time as a woman instead of an office machine, falls in love with her. Again he does not think it her. Again he does not think it necessary to consult her wishes, and is astounded at being refused. He tells Theo that he will not give her up.

CHAPTER XXIX

A Bargain

AS THEY stood there facing each other, the deck suddenly shook be-neath their feet, there was a choking sound of engines, the yacht shot forward and the water all around was churned into a white foam. Theo drew a long breath. "We're moving." she gasped. Blakeslee nodded, apparently unconcerned "Are we making for shore?" Theo asked eagerly "Eventually, of course," he said crisply. "We're not going ahead; you're not going to try to follow out your plans. Surely, Mr. Blakeslee, you don't mean that . "I might say it depends largely upon "What do you mean?" "What do you mean?" He squared his shoulders, and his "I told you a few moments determined to break her. Afterward -and he drew a long breath. Afterward there would be time for tenderness:

you just bet !

when she was once his he would make it up to her. There was nothing if the wor'd that he would not give her, no smallest whim of hers that should not be satisfied, and in return he would ask for the touch of her white arms around his neek, the warmth of her lips on his; that was all! In his heart he laughed at himself for his foolishness, for believing that her love fould many so much to him her love could mean so much to him. Why, he was as ardently eager as a boy in love for the first time in his life. and whether she loved him or not, he intamiled to have her intended to have her.

"Is it a bargain?" he repeated. 111'11 . Will you give me your promise Her mutinous chin went up.

"I have already given you my an-swer," she said haughtly. "I wouldn't marry you if you were the last man on earth, if I loved you better than my own soul, and do you know why?

heart, soul and hody to any man.

"If you loved me better than your soul, you'd welcome slavery with me;

Because any woman who married you would be little better than a slave. I'm afraid you've forgotten that you're liv-ing in the twentieth century, Mr. B'akeslee. Women are awake now, many of them are independent economically. Do you think that any modern woman would accept the bondage you offer? Why, I'd rather be free and belong to myself than give myself up

Her eyes met his defiantly, but she started back at the smile that spread suddenly over his face.

jaw set. "I told you a few moments are conforming to them outwardly, but ago that I would do anything to get that is all. You say you are a mod-

TOMMY (allas) THE FABLER. WHAT'S WHAT By HELEN DECIE

Jane was some baby soil, you'd want it more than your vaunted freedom. You say that women are changed, but you're confusing the issue. Conditions have changed, and women are conforming to them outwardly, but that is all. You say you are a mol-context of a plate and a spoon is used to scoop out the pulp and cat it, as in the illus-tration. The cantaloupe should be chilled, the weds removed, and a little are woman. sconomically independent. ago that I would do anything to get you would be time for tenderness:

that is a'l. You say you are a modern to be childed to be consist. The standing there staring at him, felt only the restraint he had placed upon binnself.
It was his will against hers and he was determined to break her. Afterward there would be time for tenderness:
Tomorrow-Facing It:

Made from pure Pasteurized cream

Louella

At all our Stores

Grape-Nuts-the Body Builder "There's a Reason" child.

Stewed Raisins

Serve for breakfast every morning

The Bread of Iron

-great food for all who work. Full of tender, luscious raisins, rich in iron and energy

A DELICIOUS bread is made children retain the natural bloom A with plump, tender, juicy of youth without it. raisins. It will be a pleasant So delicious raisin bread, great food for workers, is called "The change in your home from the regular plain bread.

The attraction lies in more than merely flavor. iron daily, yet that need is vital.

Get it through raisins. For add raisins to your bread and "the staff of life" becomes a Have them in every other loaf of bread you serve, practically perfect food.

Delicious raisin bread and rai-sin pie are sold by bake shops and grocers everywhere. Buy of them to save baking at home. Real raisin bread is made with lots of raisins. Insist on it. Firstclass bakers do not stint,

Bread of Iron,"

SUN-MAID RAISINS

grapes-American raisins, processed and packed immaculately in a great modern California plant.

Clusters (on the stem). Also a fine ever-ready dessert. Raisins are cheaper by 30 per cent than formerly-see that you

You need but a small bit of CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATED RAISIN CO., Dept. P-418-22, Fresno, Calif.

Use Sun-Maid Raisins, made less (grown without seeds): from California's finest table Clusters (on the stem). Also a Seeded (seeds removed); Seed- get plenty in your foods.

Raisin Pie

Mon are quickly refreshed at night by a dessert like this.

1 cups Sun-Maid Seeded Raisins 1 cups water teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons lemon jules 1 teaspoon sugar 1 tablespoon corn starch

I tablespoon corn starch Wash the raisins, put in succepan with 1 cup cold water and bring slowly to a boil. Add sugar, sait and corn starch, which has been mixed with 1 cup cold water. Boil 3 minutes; add lemon juics. Pour in pie tin which has been lined with crust, while hot cover; brush top with cold milk and baks in moderate oven until brows.

All measurements for these recipes are level.

> Free We'll send 100 Luscious Raisin Recipes in a free book to anyone who mails coupon.

Butter

54° "

ATOREA CO.

Encommunication and and doer, winner and leader is the fighter. Impervious to discouragement and deaf to derision, as the serap grows hotter and the shells fly thicker, when victory elds and defeat hovers, the fighter fights more fiercely, fights more fairly. fights to a finish, fights to win. Obstinate obstacles have a habit of erumping up when the fighter squares off, refuses to yield a jot, they at the obstraction foil 11'r, fighting every inch of

"Hollerin"

used to sneak 'round the alleys whisperin' 'blackberries.' like as if he waz a school kid with a sore throat. Dan't thought it was very gen'imanly to say it that way, and meble it was ; but he didn't sell no blackberries till he got to hollerin' 'BLACK BERRRRRR-EEEEES'' like the rest of us. Yes, ma'am, you've got to holler your way through the world if you want to make anything,

He was a natural, back-to-first-principles, sure-to-get-there man.

That street vender had the right idea, the idea of fighting for what you want.

the way. Witness what happened to Willard. Fighters are force in human harness. They know no defeat, they give and take, pound and ground until opposition tires. With face to the front, they pull strong and long, with might and main, with hammer and tongs, all the time with their eye on their goal till they sig on it.

Two Minutes of Optimism By HERMAN J. STICH MADE it by hollerin'." said the street fruit vender to a lady who a-ked him how we had made his money. "Made it by hollerin", all b) hollerin". You've got to holler," he said, "if you want to do business. Now, there was a feller sellin" blackberries; his father was a sort of gen'iman, and 'Dan'i, he sort o' felt 'have his occupation. He