SOCCER BOOMING AT CENTRAL HIGH

Ten Members of Last Season's Team in the Line-Up This Year

TEN GAMES SCHEDULED

When the call for soccer came at Central High, about forty-five reported to Coach Kistermacher. There are ten "veterans" remaining from last year's team. With these in line Coach Kistermacher thinks he will develop a winning combination.

Murphy, the all around star, will start his fourth year as a member of the team. This is Murphy's third year as captain of the team. He proved to be one of the best center forwards in the League last year, and was placed on the all-scholastic team, but an injury to his ankle prevented him from playing against the private schools last year at Franklin Field. He is an excellent dribbler and has scored most of his team's points.

Hess will play center forward, Petri, outside right post; Wilt, inside right; DeLancey, inside left, and Murphy, outside left.

In the backfield, only one position must be filled, center halfback. Hanson, an all-scholastic youth will play right halfback; Saylor, the baseball star, will play the other halfback position. The right fullback and left fullback positions will be filled by both Finkle and Gillespie.

There are two good candidates out for center halfback. White and Briggs are staging a great fight for this position.

At the goal there is a reliable man in Shalita. He starred in every game he played last year and was placed on the team which played the academic team at Franklin Field. He was declared to be one of the best goal keepers in the scholastic league.

The schedule for the season:

October 8—Central at Girard College.
October 15—Central at Westtown.
October 18—Upper Darby at Central.
October 20—Southern at Central.
October 25—School of Pedagogy at Central.
October 27—Central at Frankford.
November 2—West Philadelphia at Central.
November 10—Central at Northeast High.
November 17—Germantown at Central.
November 29—Central High at Upper Darby.

GREAT NECK WINS OPEN POLO TITLE

J. C. Cowdin, Back on Rockaway, Sustains Fractured Leg Near Finish

HIS PONY DROPS DEAD

With three minutes left to play in the final polo match for the open championship of America at Bala, yesterday afternoon, J. C. Cowdin, back on the Rockaways, L. I., team, was thrown from his pony and sustained a fractured leg. The pony Wonder, of International fame, ruptured a blood vessel, and after throwing his head around several times dropped over dead.

The accident brought to a close the final match, with Great Neck leading by 8 goals to Rockaway's 6. Regardless of Cowdin's injury the Rockaway team could not have hoped to overcome their rivals in the short time left, as Great Neck was forcing the play.

Cowdin was engaged in a scrimmage near the boards at the Great Neck end of the field. He tried to ward off another player and made a sharp turn. The pony veered to one side and took a tumble. Cowdin fell off the side of his mount and at the same time the pony kicked the rider, breaking the latter's leg. The pony took another tumble forward and fell dead. Spectators rushed on the field from the stands, and the police had a hard time clearing the field. Cowdin was taken to a near-by hospital.

The individual playing of Rodman Wanamaker, 2d, gave Great Neck the open championship title. He accounted for four of the eight goals, three of them coming in the first three periods. J. W. Webb, the Internationalist, was another star performer, with two goals for the winners, while R. E. Strawbridge's defensive playing was the best seen on the Bala field all season.

M. Belmont, No. 1, on the Rockaway team, gave a marvelous exhibition of riding and mallet work, and turned in three of his team's six goals. Cowdin, the injured star, getting two, and T. Hitchcock, Jr., another International, the other one for the losers.

Navy Grid Outlook Encouraging

Annapolis, Md., Sept. 28.—A review of football conditions at the Naval Academy encourages the feeling here that the prospects for the season are excellent. Losses through unexpected deficiencies in studies, which nearly wrecked the team last season, have not affected the squad at all this year. There are eight of last year's regulars, many de- substitutes and second squad men, and the new class has yielded more than the usual crop of promising material.

REGULARS DEMOTED

Three Players in Harvard Squad Reduced to Substitutes

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 28.—Head Coach Bob Fisher has dropped eleven men from the Harvard varsity squad and demoted three regulars to the ranks of substitutes. All this took place behind the barred gates of the stadium, the practice for the first time being completely secret.

The men dropped were C. B. Cooper, C. K. Cummings, A. R. Giroux, J. H. Hartley, H. B. Humphrey, D. Key, C. C. Lee, E. K. McCagg, E. M. Rubin, M. W. Self and B. Wharton. Jewett Johnson was substituted for Charley Buell as varsity quarterback.

Other shifts brought Al Ladd from the second team to replace Charley Hubbard at left tackle and "Tubby" Grew to replace Wesley Brocker at guard.

YALE VARSITY SCORES

Registers Two Touchdowns on Scrub Eleven in Strenuous Session

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—Although the Yale regulars finally succeeded in driving two touchdowns over the scrub goal line and preventing the reserves from tallying, the opposition exhibited to the varsity attack yesterday was the severest of the season.

The regulars were unable to register until thirty minutes of strenuous scrimmaging ended, in which they were compelled to change their line-up frequently, while the scrubs fought in their third line trenches with their original eleven men.

Russell Murphy was not in uniform because of an examination. Jo Oed, of the freshman squad last year, piloted the varsity. He was the only varsity man who played throughout the scrimmage. The star was Newell Neidlinger, who went in at left halfback late in the afternoon and made a 45-yard run for touchdown through a broken field and later two other runs for 25 yards each, though they were not followed by touchdowns, the scrubs bracing and holding the eleven for downs.
