

MOTHER WORRIED OVER MISSING SON

North Carolinian Fears Her Boy Was in the Chester Bridge Accident

WRITES TO CHIEF OF POLICE

Chester, Sept. 28.—Chief of Police J. H. Devine yesterday received a letter from John P. Hayes, a photographer of Rutherford, N. J., asking for information of his son, John Hayes.

"I am writing you to ask you to find my son, Harold Hayes. Heard from him August 14 and yesterday saw the letter was returned from Newcombe, Pa. He was with me when we took a milk delivery but he did not give his name."

"I have written letters, but they came back to me and I thought perhaps he was in Chester."

His mother said of the lad: "He is older than the first studio boy and she fears he may have been lost but I have tried to make her think otherwise but she almost has nervous prostration over it. He is about the first six babies tall, has dark hair, gray eyes, sandy complexion and weighed about 136 pounds. Help me find him for his mother and I and she will be glad to kiss you for doing this for me and her."

Kingsbridge, N. Y.—A young girl, Gladys Lee, Mrs. James N. LeLauron, wife of a Chester socialite, is missing, and she was going to Princeton to study. Her husband was heard nothing from her since. She appealed to the Chester police who then informed the authorities of neighboring cities. Mrs. LeLauron, a former model of Bewers-Brown, Della, is described as twenty-two years old, five feet four inches in height, 130 pounds, fair hair, blue eyes, and a ruddy complexion. She rarely speaks, but likes reading and writing.

Boy Injured in Playground

Allied to the department of agriculture, he was in the book of the nation as one of the most prominent of the young men in the field of agriculture.

He will be succeeded by Col. Price, of Trenton, N. J., who has been appointed as chief of the Second Battalion of the New Jersey National Guard.

Major C. Frank Burr, of this city, commanding the Second Battalion of the same organization, were accepted by Governor Edward M. Murphy, recently re-elected, as resignations of the two officers.

The resignations of the two officers, together with about fifty others, have been in the Governor's hands for the last eight months.

Both Colonel Price and Major Burr tendered their resignations to the Governor following the election of Howard K. Smith, last December, as commander of the New Jersey National Guard.

Although several attempts were made to induce the Chief Executive to consider the resignations, he refused to do so and compelled the two officers, together with all the others, to attend the Sea Girt encampment.

HARVARD GIVES OUT STUDENTS' GRADES

Scholarship Rewarded in Novel Way by Publication of Honor Roll

DR. HIBBEN SEES NEW ERA

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 28.—Harvard College rewarded scholarship in a new way last night. It made public the names of the thirty-six students who in their first year's work gained "highest distinction."

The publicity plan the college announced is one of the outstanding innovations of the new year at Harvard, and is all the more significant because it takes place upon the recommendation of the Scholarship Committee, which recently stated that college grades had made public an incentive to a higher standard of scholarship.

The students are classified into four groups, of which "highest distinction" is first. Then follow some "high distinction," "distinction," composed of students of "B" grade, "high pass" and "pass."

DRUGGISTS RAP "BUYING CLUBS"

Jobbers Tell Wholesalers Trade Is Threatened by Growth of Organized Purchasers

Atlantic City, Sept. 28.—Jobbers who appeared before the convention of the National Association of Wholesale Druggists yesterday declared the jobbing drug trade is threatened with destruction through the growth of buying clubs, which purport to benefit small retail druggists but which benefit only chain stores or big retailers.

Those who assert the co-operative plan is proving to be a failure for the small druggist insist that these clubs handle only highly profitable lines, leaving the jobber to furnish the specialties. A report made showed that a Philadelphia buying club did a business of $3,000,000 last year.

As a result of this it was suggested that manufacturers of drugs and drug supplies put up their goods in smaller units and that the retailer be educated to buy in larger quantities.

Elgin Six

Announcement

WITH thirteen years' experience in this city selling high-class automobiles, we have selected the Elgin Six as the ideal moderate priced motor car, of medium size and weight, and will act as distributors in this territory. This selection was made after a thorough investigation of a large number of makes of cars.

With its new enclosed valve-in-head six-cylinder motor, Westinghouse starting and lighting system, Willard battery, Borg & Beck clutch, Columbia axles and other units of equal dependability, the new Elgin Six—118-inch wheelbase—is a car that merits your consideration. It is backed by an unbroken chain of victories in performance, endurance and economy contests.

For more than five years the Elgin Six has won first place in every stock car race, perfect scores in every endurance run and highest economy honors in every contest entered.

The new models have special French sidelights, leather door pads, adjustable steering column, mahogany dashboard and many other comforts and conveniences heretofore considered exclusive in the much more expensive makes. The improvements embodied in the K-1 series easily add $300 to $400 to the car's actual value, yet the prices have been reduced $300 to $400. We predict a popularity for the Elgin Six in Philadelphia as great as it now enjoys in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and other metropolitan centers where it numbers thousands of satisfied owners.

The Elgin Six is not new to Philadelphia, there being 125 satisfied owners in this city. We cordially invite all of these owners and the general motoring public to call and inspect the

Bricks for ye New City

The Colonists with a few bricks at a time built the new city, just as today the wise man builds a provision for his family's future with a Life Insurance Policy paid for in installments. But is your task completed when you provide this money for your dependents? Are your wife and children fitted to handle the proceeds if you yourself would handle them? Let us explain to you how careful men also provide capable hands to make the most of them, and to guard against their loss.
