

HARDING STRESSES DUTY OF VOTING

Tells Virginia Republican It is Important as Registering People's Voice

RECOMMENDS FULL POLL

By the Associated Press
Washington, Sept. 28.—There is no more important duty for the citizen than this of voting on the one day in the year when his vote means something, President Harding wrote today in replying to a letter from Charles S. Sigler, of the Alexandria, Va., Republican Club, in which the President was asked to express an opinion on "the duties of a citizen."

"Citizens as an example of the loyalty of voters in casting their ballots at the last election for Governor of Virginia, when only 50,000 votes were cast, while in 1920 the total with women voting was but 231,000 out of a total population of about 900,000," the President wrote.

"Quite regardless of effect on the fortunes of particular political parties, I am impressed there is need particularly to impress voters to perform their duty at the ballot box on election day, if the result of a full vote in Virginia is to be the party of which you or I wish to be a member, we would at least know that we had heard the voice of the people, and would be more ready to acquiesce in their decision. There is no more important duty for the citizen than this of voting on the day in the year when his vote means something.

"If you can succeed in securing in Virginia this fall the largest vote the State ever cast, I will personally feel that you have accomplished a notable civic advantage, quite regardless of the political result.

"I think it will not be improper for me to add that I shall have, like yourself, no fear of the political result, if an expression can be secured."

FIRE DAMAGES STOCKYARDS

Hundreds of Horses and Mules Are Turned Loose to Escape Flames

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 28.—(By A. P.)—Fire that broke out here early today in the stockyards on Marietta street caused damage to four concerns and caused that section to be crowded with hundreds of horses and mules turned loose to escape the flames.

It was impossible to estimate the damage, which was said to be shared by Hall & Nash, Weill Brothers, Taylor & Heran and the Turner stockyards. No loss of human life was reported.

Two Killed in Italian Riots

Rome, Sept. 28.—Candies yesterday between Fascist and Socialists in Ortova, near Bari, resulted in two persons being killed. The feeling caused by the assassination of Giuseppe di Vagno, the Socialist deputy who died from wounds received at a Socialist meeting in Bari, continues high, and a general strike has been declared in virtually all of South Italy.

SPANISH BRIDE OF CORNELL PROFESSOR KEPT FROM U. S.

Husband and Wife Go to Ellis Island and Appeal to Washington

New York, Sept. 28.—(By A. P.)—Primitivo R. Sanjurjo, instructor in Spanish at Cornell University, was involuntarily detained at Ellis Island today with his young Spanish bride, who has been denied admittance to the United States under the new immigration quota law.

Prof. Sanjurjo, who returned with his bride from a vacation in Spain, was informed that he could enter the country under a clause of the law which exempts professors, among others, from its provisions, but that Mrs. Sanjurjo could not enter, as Spain's quota for the entire year was filled. He refused to leave her.

An appeal for Mrs. Sanjurjo's admittance has been sent to the Immigration Department at Washington.

CLEAN FILM FIGHT BEGINS

Commission to Regulate Exhibitions Proposed in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, Sept. 28.—(By A. P.)—Fight for cleaner motion pictures, marked by threats that some film companies might leave Southern California if hampered, reached a climax when the City Council voted yesterday to instruct the City Attorney to prepare an ordinance creating a motion-picture commission of seven members to regulate the exhibition of films in Los Angeles.

Opponents of censorship protested that such action "would sound the death knell of the motion picture industry here." Proponents of censorship asserted it was necessary that the "menace to American childhood" in uncensored pictures be removed.

POLICEMAN SHOT TO DEATH

Patrolman Killed by Suspects He Had Once Arrested, Belief

New York, Sept. 28.—(By A. P.)—A policeman and an alleged burglar were shot to death early today.

Patrolman Joseph A. Reuschle was killed on Riverside drive, presumably by one of a band of five automobile bandit suspects whom he arrested three weeks ago. One of the band, the police said, made a threatening remark to Reuschle following their arrest. They later were released on bond.

Motorists who found the patrolman's body said they had seen an automobile speeding from the scene a moment before. The dead policeman was found clutching his revolver, four chambers of which had been emptied.

Harold Finley, eighteen, was shot by a detective during a chase which followed his alleged discovery with two boys in the act of robbing a grocery store. The boys were captured.

Women's Very High-Grade Suits to Be Had This Autumn

$55.00 to $67.50

The fine tricotines that tailor with such distinction; and the soft-surfaced duvet de laine and mousyne against which a handsome collar of wolf or moleskin shows up so luxuriously, or that furnish a fine background for a bit of silk embroidery. Made with the longer coats, some that can be worn with or without the belt; others are in semi-belted styles with a saucy flare from the waist-line. The model sketched, very handsome, at $65.00.

Elegant Broadcloths Among Fine Suits at $50.00

Broadcloths are back again, and for certain types of women they are ideal. Others prefer duvet de laine. Both come with the new longer coats and some with the smartly flaring sleeves, and other decidedly new tendencies. Black, navy, taupe and shades of brown.

Fine Tricotine and Wool Velour Suits at $40.00

Belted, straight-line models, unbelted models on semi-fitting lines, some narrow and rather close-fitting with a decidedly smart flare from the waist-line—unusual types at $40.00. Black, navy, taupe and shades of brown.

In Women's Dresses Lowered Prices Are Most Evident

Wonderful creations are obtainable this season at the prices of the ordinary models last year, and the real inexpensive kinds are coming in again—inexpensive, but so good-looking and right up to the minute in style.

The Smartest Tricotine Dresses Imaginable Here

Those long-line, slenderly tailored coat models that look so smart on the street these days with one of the small neck furs. Some open over colored vests or panels. Also there are straight-line models—simplicity itself with the exception of the draped girdle, or the ornate, jingly belt of metal or beads. Some with the new cire braid trimming, some beaded and embroidered. And the sleeves—you'll adore the sleeves.

Crepe de Chine and Satin Dresses, $16.75 to $47.50

Plaited and straight-line models, with the irregularities in lengths and the new wide and flowing sleeves, that change the whole aspect of fashions. Black, navy and brown, some with the fashionable disc trimming or beads in sparse or scattered effects—very new and attractive.

Choice Collection of Afternoon Dresses

Crepe Georgette, Canton crepe, satin-faced crepe, Roshanara crepe—beautiful backgrounds and embroidery, and exquisite textures to accentuate the swathing, draping lines. Prices $65.00 to $80.00. The model sketched ($65.00), in tones of gold and brown, shows some of the eccentricities that make the new styles so charming.

Welcome! Black Silk Grenadines From Lyons

In the Dress Goods Store

Spanish tendencies influence the mode, which, of course, means lace; and straightaway from Lyons come these lovely, lacy Grenadines that a grand señora herself would find most captivating.

In the main, they are mere wisps of silken tissue, sheer as chiffon, with floral designs in broche effects, or heavily striped in satin.

The width is 42 inches, and the prices $2.50 to $5.00—almost back to pre-war level despite the fact that this delightful fabric has been practically out of the market during the war.
