Nancy Wynne Talks of Various Plans for Debutante Doings-She Hears of Some of the Doings of Interesting People

T WAS so delightful to see Mrs. Benjamin B. Reath, and Miss Isabel Frazer, daughter of Mrs. Persitor Frazer, all debutantes of the coming yesterday. And every one was greeting her joyously. Mr. and Mrs. Donner have been living in Buffalo for two rears, but they are now back in Philadelphia, and have opened their house. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wayne, Jr., of 8200 St. Martins lane, Chestnut Hill. will give a dance on Saturday evenus. November 5, in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth B. Wayne, who will be formally presented to society at a tea which her parents will give on Thursday, October 27. at 345 South Eighteenth street, once more. They will do much entertaining during the month for Dorothy Rodgers, Mrs. Donner's daughter by her first Mrs. Donner and marriage, she will be introduced at a ten on November 23.

Dorothy has been away for almost five years, but she has many very good friends here and if she is as charming and as popular as her beautiful mother, she'll certainly have a wonderful win-ter. Dorothy resembles her mother, having the same dark brown eyes and hair. She is quite tall and graceful and goes in for sports quite a good deal, You should see her swim, she's really marvelous! She went to school at Foxroft in Virginia for several years and was graduated in the spring of 1920. Last winter she spent in Paris at Miss Ferris' school and she gave a good deal of her time to studying music, for she is very proficient at the plane.

Since is very proncient at the plane.

Yesterday Mrs. Donner had her box filled with debutantes. She was entertaining for Anna Newbold, having given a luncheon before taking the girls to the show. Today she will give a luncheon for Alberta Reath and entertain for her

Ma-rina came back just last week from Wyoming and I undertand is giving a small dance this evening at which the remaining Philadelphians in Saunders-town, will surely be "among those ' And there were a good many there this summer.

The Copes spent most of the time there and in fact I hear Nancy has a buich of girls up now visiting her. Rosamond Stewardson, and Jane Yeatman, who by the way has just come home from Europe, and Hope Wilson. The Wisters will stay up till the end of next month. And aren't they wise? Have you ever been in New England during October? If you haven't and ever have a chance to go, do, for it's gorgeous with the changing colors of the trees, and the wonderful high tides on Saunderstown you know is just across the bay from Jamestown and about a half hour's troiley ride from Narra-gansett Pier. Mrs. George Biddle has a house up there, but for the first summer in years the Biddles have not stayed there. They went abroad and rented their house to Mrs. Joseph Fox and it was there that Emily Fox and Ned Cheston were married two or three weeks ago. Incidentally, I hear that Mr. and Mrs. Cheston have taken a se on Springfield avenue in Chestnut Hill for the winter and will soon be moving in. The Jim Chestons have also moved to Chestnut Hill,

THEAR there is to be a fete at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Boericke in Wynnewood on Saturday, October 8. It is to be given under the management of the Hahnemann Hospital Board, of which Mrs. Leonard Ashcraft is president. There is to be a Gynkham, a gypsy encampment, a musicale and bridge and any amount of amusements for the kiddies. Then, too, there will be luncheon and ten. It sounds like a most interesting fete and I hope it will prove a successful one.
