Morris, will give at their country home in Ardmore. Ellen has been at the show several days, and is looking awfully well and pretty. Her mother was Eleanor Morris, a sister of Mrs. Trenchard Newbold, whose daughter, Rhoda Brooks, came out year before last. Rhoda and Ellen were both in Europe all last winter, so every one has been welcoming Rhoda home as if it were a second debut. And indeed she came out so young; she was only seven. came out so young; she was only seven-teen, you remember; she could almost eeme out again.

The Ku Klux Exposure

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger Bir—A correspondent in one of your con-tomporaries avers that so far the revela-tions regarding the Ku Kiux Kian show nothing objectionable. What is this man's conception of American democracy? The Klan is grounded on the principle of "white supremacy." Thus at the very bottom it figuritingly denies the right of each individual to be measured by his character and white the contraction of the character and the character a work. Specifically we know too well what "white supremacy" means in the argot of the region where the Klan had its origin.
It means the prostration of the constitutionally guaranteed basic rights of the citi-

up presents his gun from the front, and he discovers you are unarmed, he probably will not shoot, whereas if you are armed. The Klan denies membership to Catholics. A voluntary society rightfully may do this as a Protestant organization, but it does it under false pretenses when it does it in the name of Americans, for Americanism does not know the religious creed of the citizen.

The Klan denies membership to Jews. A view. in view of his danger, he will try to shoot first. So I maintain one is safer without a gun, even from a self-defense point of view.

D. L. HOWILL. The Klan denies membership to Jews. A voluntary society rightfully may do this as a Gentila organization, but it does it under false pretenses when it does it in the name of Americanism, for Americanism does not discriminate against either the race or the cellsion of the Jew.

The Klan in one platform denies membership to the foreign born and to the native ship to the foreign born and to the native false. The age old contention of the superiority of man over woman is still main-particularly.
