

CAME HOME A WINNER. Miss Catherine Bee, going fast in a hurdle race at the Industrial track meet. She represented the Hohlfeld Manufacturing Company. L. P. S.

HELPING DAD. Fred McAvoy, forty-eight years old, finished far back of the winner, in the half-mile race at Industrial track meet. His son, Joseph, eight years old, is assisting in the rubdown. L. P. S.

SHACKLETON'S MASCOT. As the crew of the "Quest" made ready to leave London on the expedition to the South Pole, the black kitten was photographed. The mascot was Sir Shackleton's personal choice. Central News Photo

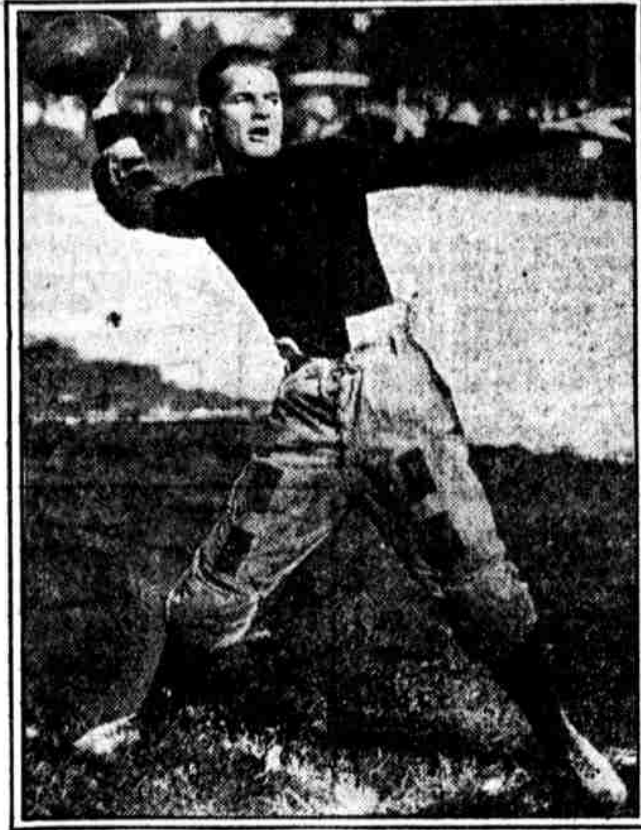

WITH HIS FAMOUS SMILE. And mind you, the equally famous pipe was in hand as Sir Harry Lauder, with his wife, arrived on the S. S. Aquitania in New York. W. W. P.

HARDING'S DOUBLE ELOPES. Henry Feather, seventy-seven years old, of Kansas, who bears a resemblance to the President, eloped to Chicago with Mrs. Emma Clark. U. & U.

ON THE CLOSING DAY. The twenty-fifth annual Bryn Mawr Horse Show closed with a wonderful day on Saturday. The camera caught Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clothier as they chatted. At the right is Miss Dorothy Mather on "Pathfinder." She had stopped to talk with A. J. A. Devereux, the polo player. Ledger Photo Service

FORWARD PASS. The coach at the Lansdowne High School was putting Walton through a strenuous workout in passing the ball. Ledger Photo Service

ELEUTHERIOS VENIZELOS, ex-Premier of Greece, married Mlle. Schilliz, a millionaire. Central News Photo

MISS ELEANOR R. DAVIES, who is to be one of the season's debutantes, at Washington. Central News Photo

CRYING, SLEEPING, EATING. That's what you see enacted by triplets at the baby carnival held in the Harlem section of New York. They are members of the Hickey family and were prize winners. U. & U.

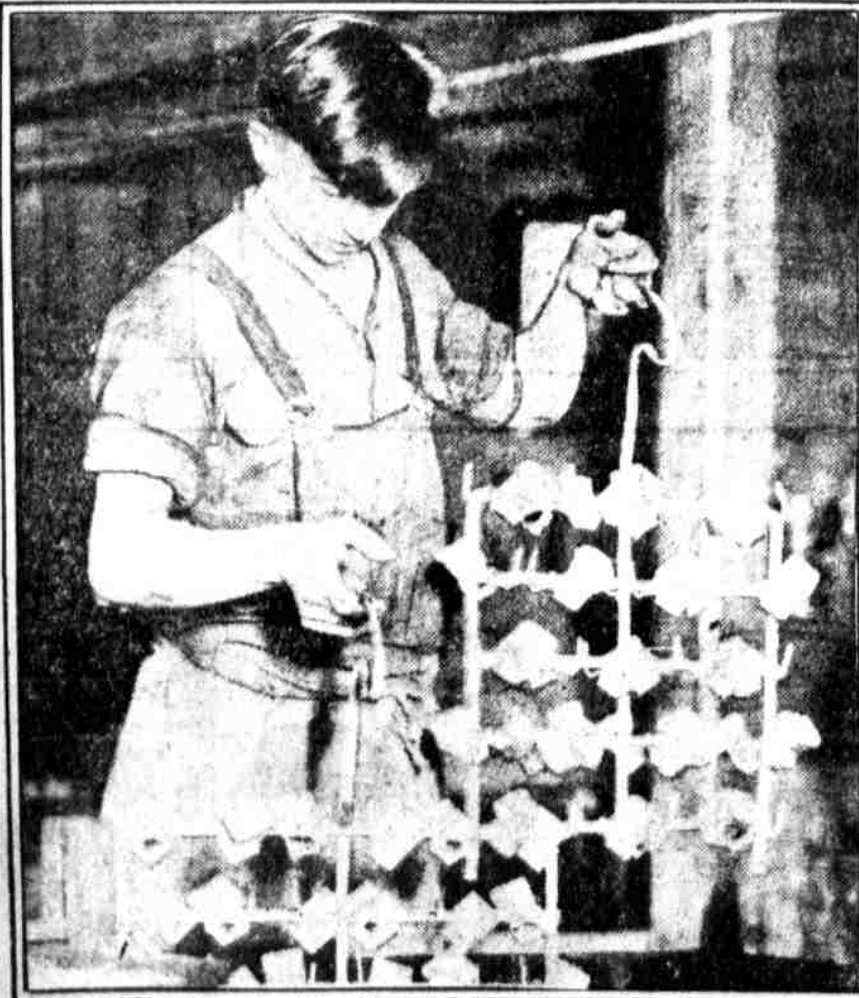

NEEDS NO HELPING FRIEND. Wesley Johnson, of Medford, Massachusetts, has sixty-three pounds of dog to protect him from highwaymen or other trivial annoyances. International

KNUCKLE DOWN. The shooter in this marble game at Sixteenth and Catharine streets was watched mighty close by his two opponents. It looks like a friendly game. It ought to be; they are all brothers, Jake, "Izzy" and Pat Kaufman. Ledger Photo Service

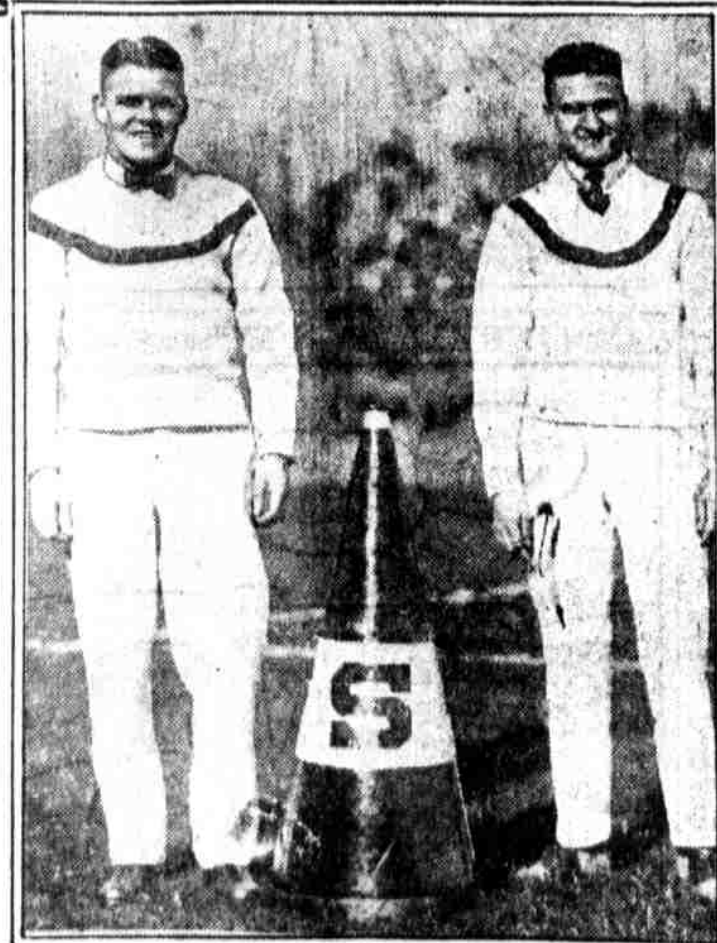

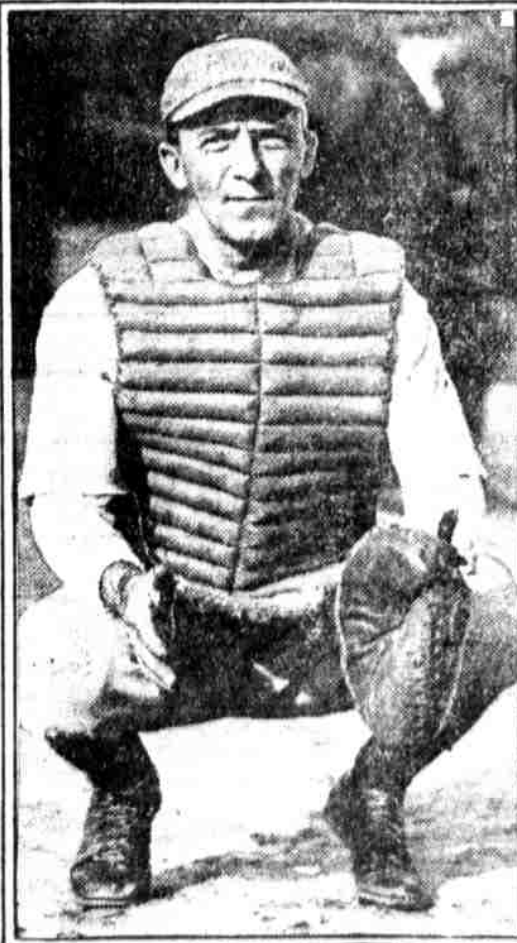

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

NATHAN VERRELLA, 2115 East Sergeant street, electro-plating silver at the Philadelphia Manufacturing Company, Montgomery avenue and Palmer street. He was dipping the silver when photographed. L. P. S.

PLAYERS OF THE PAST. Men who played ball at Palmyra, N. J., thirty years ago battled with the present team of that town. Charles F. Durfler (left) and J. Howard Berry, Sr., father of the former Penn star, are shown. Ledger Photo Service

AT PRINCETON. The Swarthmore College footballers didn't defeat the Tigers on Saturday, but they did play a mighty nice game. The cheer leaders, Barber (left) and Gaumer, were busy folks in behalf of Swarthmore. In the center is Captain Keck, of the winning eleven, and at the right is Captain Geiges, of Swarthmore. Ledger Photo Service

