

BRYN ATHYN HARD HIT BY INJURIES

Deering, Odnher and Burnham Hurt on Eve of Game With Central

THEY MEET ON FRIDAY

By PAUL PREP

Bryn Athyn Academy's football team is "all shot," as the saying is, virtually on the eve of the big game with Dr. Matthew C. O'Brien's Central High Friday.

Last Saturday a supposedly practice game was played with P. I. D. at Bryn Athyn. Before the game had gone for minutes, the "home" aggregation found that its opponents from Mount Airy were much stronger than advance notices had led it to believe.

To make a long story short, the Mates held the academy team to a scoreless tie in the first half, and at the start of the third period rushed over a touchdown. The home eleven came to a rude awakening when the visitors had crossed the line, and with their backs to the wall, the Bryn Athyn boys started a plucky fight.

Deering Hurt

Deering, star quarterback, is one of the injured. In the third period he was running down the side line with the ball tucked in his arms when a Mount Airy back tackled him, and suffered a fractured rib. The tackler also was hurt. Deering will not be seen in action against Dr. O'Brien's team.

The game finally was won by the home aggregation, 21-7. But the victors was a costly one. Three regular players were put out of the game. Two of these may not be seen in uniform for the remainder of the year, while the other boy is out of the game for a couple of weeks, at least.

EASTERN QUINTETS SHY OF PLAYERS

Camden and Philadelphia Only Clubs Supplied With Players for Getaway

SEASON STARTS OCTOBER 17

In less than two weeks the Eastern Basketball League 1921-1922 season campaign will be on. In the ensuing two weeks several important deals will be transacted, which may switch the complexion of three or four clubs. From the present outlook Camden will get a big jump on the entire outfit, as the Skeeters start with a veteran combination. They open the season with a practice game at Kayoula's Hall, Twenty-third and Carpenter streets, one week from Friday night.

The only other team in the circuit supplied with men is Philadelphia, until the season starts. All the players mentioned will not be carried, but included among the newcomers are several that look exceptionally good, and Manager Myers is in a quandary as to whom he will select for bench duty. American League fans of a few seasons back will recall Tommy Parker, who was a running mate of Dave Kerr. Tom has been studying at the University of Iowa for four years. During that time he played tackle on the football team, covered second on the baseball nine and either forward or guard on the basketball quintet.

He is back in his home town studying for the military and is out for a regular place. He is big and husky, and being well adapted to the style of play is among the most promising of the recruits. Then there is Lermisky, a big center from Wildwood; Tommy Temple of St. Joe's; "Whitey" Sturgis, of Rookwood; and "Chick" Galloway, the Athletics' infielder.

UNITED STATES SHIPPING BOARD
Washington, D. C.

The United States Shipping Board, Washington, D. C., invites bids upon dredging of North and South Slips, Pier 98 South (Army Base), Philadelphia, Pa.

Sealed bids will be received by Captain J. M. Hoffman, Room 3993 Navy Building, Washington, D. C., and publicly opened at 12 o'clock, noon, October 20, 1921. Envelopes should be plainly marked "Dredging Bids, Pier No. 98, South, Philadelphia, Pa."

Bids should be submitted on three bases: Lump sum basis to 30 feet depth, lump sum basis to 33 feet depth and cubic yard basis. Bids to indicate cost for North and South Slips separately.

Photostatic copies of a map showing the City of Philadelphia survey of the area to be dredged will be supplied on application to Captain Hoffman, or bidders may make their own soundings.

The area to be dredged lies between the United States Government bulkhead and pierhead lines, as shown on above map.

The United States Shipping Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids and may demand bond if it so desires.
