Combine candidates. Those members in the League who are affiliated with Senator Penrose and who are accused of having considered the Senator first and the League second in the September primary campaign are vigorously opposed to the idea of ignoring the decision of the primary election. They say the League should accept the decision of the voters and prepare for That element is led

Still another element of the League of the opinion that it should make to elect the candidates it indersed for magistrates in the primary fight, but that it should not put a ticket for county officers in the field.

Independent members of the League, led by Mrs. Frank Miles Day and Samuel B. Scott, are bitterly opposed to the doctrine set forth by Mr. Coles and other practical politicians among the membership that the League should be content with the battle it staged in the primary election. They believe the League will not have completed its Combine candidates has been made.

It is pointed out by the anti-Coles element in the League that fusion with the Democrats in the November election would roll up approximately 150,000 rotes against the Combine candidates in addition to the votes of between 50, 000 and 60,000 independents who did not vote in the primary, principally it is said, because they resented the Penrose influences in the Voters

Administration leaders pointed out that official figures might be about and distorted in such a way that the next Mayor, if prejudiced in favor of the Vare contract system, might be able to argue for a return to the old contract system.

Director Caven declared, however that not only would more and better work be done under city-wide cleaning than under contract cleaning, but that would cost less just as it has cost ess in the two districts cleaned by municipal forces this year. Genuine offi-cial figures, he said, would prove this.

Linde Gigantic Clearance Sale of Furniture, Rugs, Linoleums at One-third to One-half less

Manufacturers' Clearance, Linde Store Clearance Linde Warehouse Clearance

Fourteen manufacturers, among the leading makers of Furniture, Rugs and Linoleums in the country, have placed their surplus mill stocks at our disposal for this sale. To re-enforce these splendid offerings, we have put into the event all of the discontinued styles and odd suit- and single pieces, as well as thousands of Rugs in all sizes, and hundreds of yards of Carpet and Linoleum, from our own store and warehouse stocks.

This makes the largest Furniture and Floor-Covering opportunity at popular prices that has been presented to the Philadelphia public in recent years. The savings are positively a third to a half on today's lowest market prices and the values exceed any to be found east of the Mississippi, because the quality is the best that spot cash can buy. Nothing else ever finds a place on our floors.

This will go down in Philadelphia merchandising as one of the greatest money-saving sales this city ever saw. See for yourself. Compare our quality and prices with what you find elsewhere. The assort ments are stupendous. The reductions are astounding. The buying will be heavy. Make your selections early.
