$5 Night School $5
To meet the needs of the times, and to help ambitious young people who do not have the means with which to pay high rates for instruction, we are conducting special sessions in shorthand and typewriting on Tuesday and Friday evenings—for $5 a month.

Regular sessions on Monday and Thursday evenings, $6 a month. Bookkeeping, Penmanship, Arithmetic, English, Spelling and Shorthand and Typewriting.

During the 36 years of our service to the young people of this vicinity, hundreds of young men and young women have been placed in prominent positions with many of the large business organizations in and near Philadelphia. We are offering this service to those who have been unable to secure a practical education otherwise.

Individual instruction, personal contact of the management and teachers with students, and limited attendance make the Palmer Business School distinctive.

Write, phone or call for catalog.

MESSAGE FROM SAMUEL REA, PRESIDENT, PENNA. RAILROAD
There has never been a time in history when education was so essential to success as it is today. In our day, a highly specialized and a high level of education is the only way to secure the highest and best of the human mind.

Every boy or girl should get the best education possible, but there are many upon whom the duty of raising the support of their families falls at an early age. To such a complete training would be impossible were it not for the outstanding opportunity during the day.

For these reasons the Philadelphia School for Nurses has been developed in this country, and which makes it possible for the support of their families at an early age. To such a complete training would be impossible were it not for the outstanding opportunity during the day.

It is the purpose of this school to give young people the best of their education, and to give them the opportunity which they need to succeed. I have personal knowledge of the value of this education, and I am sure that you will find it to be the best and most valuable of all.
