

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK

By Lee Page

My cousin Artie came around yesterday and we both started to feel hungry at the same time, me calling up stairs to ma. My ma, can you and Artie have those 2 apples on the side-board?

"I suppose so, sed ma. Meaning yes, and I sed to Artie. She says we can. Hurray, grate news, sed Artie. And me and him went back in the dining room and looked at the apples, one being a extra big one and one being a extra small one not looking any relation, me thinking Well, its only polite to ask Artie to take one first and if he takes the biggest one he aint very refined."

And I sed to him, Go ahead, Artie, take one. Sounding as if I didnt give a darn with one he took, and he kept on looking at them a while, saying, No, you take one first, you live here, and you aint to use the first choice. Which one do you want? he sed, and I sed, Any one, either one. Thinking, G, the big pig, he thinks Ill take the little one out of politeness and then he can take the big one and look as if it was a accident. And I thawt, Like fun, like heck, saying, No, go ahead, youre company, go ahead and take one I dont care which one you take. Id just as leef have one as the other. Which one do you want? I sed.

Holy smoke, wat do I care with one I get, go ahead and take the big one, that will show how much I care, sed Artie.
Well I tell you lets wat do, I sed, just to show you Id just as leef take one as the other lets eat them in half and each take half of each. Wat do you say? I sed.
That suits me all rite, anything suits me, G, I dont care with one I get, Im immaterial, sed Artie.
Being wat we did. Proving wen people get too polite it starts to look suspicious.

Start Shooting Ridley Park Dogs
The Ridley Park police made good their threat to shoot the dogs in their district that are not kept indoors. The first victim of the police order was a tramp dog that had been wandering around the railroad station. Four others met the same fate. The police say they have a number of dogs in the pound that will be shot if they are not claimed by their owners within a short time.

Moving Picture of Sleepy Man Trying to Get Out of Bed in the Morning

By J. P. McEVROY

HEARS alarm clock.
Pulls pillow up around his ears and tries to keep eyes closed.
Alarm clock stops.
Wonderful relief. Instantly drops off to sleep.
Beautiful dreams begin to unroll.
Alarm clock goes off again. It is one of those diabolic, persistent types.
Man rolls over on his face.
Rolls over on his back.
Finally sits up and glares at clock.
Throws pillow at it.
Clock stops ringing as if magically.

MAN lies down again and curls up for another nap.
Tries to pick up dreams where he left off.

Falls into light slumber.

DRATTED alarm goes off again.
Jumps up and throws another pillow at it.
Clock continues to ring more violently, if possible.
Decides he might as well get up.
Sits on edge of bed and yawns tremendously.
Blinks his eyes and looks around for bathrobe.
Gets up and stops alarm, swearing softly, but feebly, the while.
Raises window shade and looks out.
Feels rotten.
Another day!

Conscience annoys him a little.
Knows he should get up.
Besides he is entitled to a little more sleep.
He'll feel better in the office—won't be so dopey.
Conscience agrees with him.
He stretches luxuriously.

Gertrude McCallum, eighteen years old, 2620 South Cecil street, was attacked by an unidentified man last night while walking in Sixtieth street near Kingsessing avenue. The assailant fled, leaving her uninjured after she had bitten his hand.

Miss McCallum was on her way home and got off a street car at Sixtieth street about 9:30 o'clock. She was walking south on Sixtieth street near the Mount Moriah Cemetery when a man suddently jumped from behind a hedge and grabbed her throat. She screamed and struggled with her assailant, succeeded in biting his hand severely. Then he released her and ran. McCallum described the man to the police as being about forty years smoothly shaven and roughly dressed.

Leave Your Family a HOME Not a Mortgage

Every man wants a home of his own. But many men hesitate to buy, fearing that in case of death their heirs might lose the home through inability to carry a mortgage.

You can start buying your home with the joy and peace of mind that should accompany such an undertaking. The United Security Home-Buying Plan removes all need of hesitancy and worry. It enables you to get a home at a monthly cost equivalent to rent. Should you die, your heirs will have a home free of all debt.

If you desire a home or have a mortgage to reduce, we shall be glad to discuss the details of the plan with you. For thirty-five years this plan has operated successfully, and during this period thousands have been enabled to buy homes of their own.

There is no time like the present. If you cannot arrange to come in, write for our descriptive leaflet, "The United Security Home-Buying Plan."

General Motors Trucks

A Better Truck $500 Lower in Price

No manufacturer ever offered more truck for the money than GMC Model K-16 at $1495, a reduction of $500.

The new price is of vital interest to the user, and the truck itself fits into the greatest possible variety of hauling uses.

For city delivery, wholesale and retail, including such lines as furniture, produce, machinery, drugs, groceries, department store merchandise and fuel, it is unusually well adapted.

On the farm it finds a very wide range of usefulness, since the one-ton truck is the ideal capacity for farm work. And there is no more dependable chassis for bus service and fire and police patrol.

GMC Model K-16 is equipped with electric lights, starter and cord tires and it has the GMC engine with its many exclusively GMC features.

In every way Model K-16 is a real truck, built of real truck parts—no passenger car parts used.

See GMC dealers for more information about this truck and the GMC 2, 3½ and 5 ton models on which prices have also been reduced.
