E. C. Yellowley, Head of General Prohibition Agents, Made Acting Director

HART EXPLAINS ACTION

By the Associated Press

Washington, Oct. 6.-Designation of E. C. Yellowley, chief of the general prohibition agents, as acting prohibition director of New York State, to speceed Harold L. Hart, who has resigned, was announced today by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes.

Judge Hart's resignation was on the Judge Hart's resignation was on the ground that the position had become "distasteful." He said he felt that the salary paid him. $5000, was too low for the responsibility that he was compelled to bear and the inability of his ficial superior to allow a larger sum. official superior to allow a larger sum.

Judge Hart denied a break with either Commissioner Haynes or Commissioner Blair had caused him to remissioner Blair had caused him to reeign. He said, however, that his decision to do so had come very "suddenly." Judge Hart frankly admitted the enforcement problem in New York is most difficult.

"The work has been distasteful to me from the first," he said.

care to continue in it." Judge Hart was called to Washington by Mr. Haynes on the heels of an interchange of rather fiery messages between them over enforcement methods at New York and the recent super-Washington to make a clean-up of the prohibition situation in New York.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 6 .- William C. Me-Connell, Prohibition Commissioner for Pennsylvania, and his assistant, Major Samuel Wolf, in charge of the Pitts-burgh district, are holding their offices flegally according to a Pittsburg news-paper. Both are members of the Pennpaper. Both are members of the Penn-gylana Legislature and neither of them has resigned. Major Wolf is a member of the House of Representatives from Union County and Mr. McConell is a State Senator

Section 6 of Article II of the State Constitution has this provision: "No Senator or Representative shall during the time for which he shall have been elected be appointed to any civil office under this Commonwealth, and an member of Congress or other person na member of Congress of attorney-at-holding office (except of attorney-at-law or in the militia) under the United States or this Commonwealth shall be a member of either House during his continuance in office."

In view of that provision, it has been charged that all permits for the re-moval of liquor issued in Pennsylvania illegal. Those who have studied insist neither Mr. McConnell nor Major Wolf has any legal authority to act in such cases. It is probable all permits issued by those officials will be brought into question in the United
