

Giants Will Have to Take More Chances, Says Hugh Jennings

ALEXA DEFEATS MRS. VANDERBECK

Miss Stirling Eliminates Phila. Star From National Golf Championship, 1 Up

MISS ROSENTHAL LEADS

By SANDY MENIBICK Hollywood Golf Club, Deal, N. J., Oct. 7.—Miss Alexa Stirling, of Atlanta, American golf champion, defeated Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbilt, of Philadelphia, 1 up in the semi-final round of the woman's national tourney here.

Stirling-Vanderbeck

Both had fine drives from the first tee, Mrs. Vanderbeck being seen in the middle with her brassie second, while Miss Stirling sided, though she was up there, too. Mrs. Vanderbeck's run up was poor, scarcely on while Miss Stirling kept on close, but missed a three-foot putt, halted in 58.

Mrs. Vanderbeck was in the rough on her drive to the second and played safe with an iron. Miss Stirling in the next hole, however, Miss Stirling sided a brassie to the rough, but clipped almost dead. She missed the putt, but when Mrs. Vanderbeck missed a few feet, all squares.

Miss Stirling overran the short fourth and did a tough downhill lie on a bunker bank. Her club back trickled all the way over the green sloping away, not but sent the ball from forty feet to the hole.

Mrs. Vanderbeck was on with her drive and down in two putts for a half 36. That putt was a lucky break for Miss Stirling, who played two bad shots on the hole.

Miss Stirling was away at the fifth and her iron was on the edge. Mrs. Vanderbeck's iron had a worse stop and her club almost rolled clean over the green. Miss Stirling missed a four-foot putt, but she saved herself with a drive and brassie, but used brassie thirds.

Toney Picked to Turn Back Yanks

lert to be expected that every Giant pitcher can jam a mask forever over such betting eyes as Ruth and Meusel carry, but in the same vein Meusel and Hoyt have set a terrific pace for both Shawkey to follow.

The packed stands of yesterday and the return of a few fanatical squawks began to throw a glow of color over the occasion. The Big Town will consider it a strictly family affair, with all applause divided, but there are signs of keener partisanship in sight.

"As for today's game, I will pitch either Bob Shawkey or Harry Harper. Both are ready and anxious for a crack at the Giants."

"They're not hitting," said McGraw, "and they aren't playing the kind of ball that wins games. There also have been several close decisions given against the Giants. I thought Burns was safe on his steal in the eighth inning."

"We are not discouraged over our two defeats. It will make us fight all the harder. I am going to pitch Toney today."

The Giants have been following the safe and sane idea in the first two games of the series, but they will be out today to try the sensational.

Giants to Take Chances "We've got to take some chances," declared Assistant Manager Hugh Jennings, "We took them during the regular season and turned many a defeat into victory. Against such pitching as we have faced thus far there is no other alternative. We've got some ideas along the line, and maybe they'll nullify our boys a bit."

Bob Shawkey, whose queer, club-hopping walk and red flannel undersleeves have been seen in other World Series, is most likely to be on the mound today for the Yankees. Bob had a bad spell in the latter part of the season, and was clouted right merrily by opposing batters, but he found himself before the pennant scramble was over.

Shawkey has great speed. When he is in form he is regarded as one of the best in the league, ranking along with Alexander, Faber, Shoemaker, Adams, Mays, Hoyt, Toney and Nehf. Neither of the Giants' catchers, Snyder and Smith, has displayed so far any of the sterling backstop qualities with which they are credited. Both have been weak at bat and short in the fielding end.

In the first game of the series, the Giants were defeated by the Yankees, 5 to 4. In the second game, the Yankees were defeated by the Giants, 4 to 1. In the third game, the Yankees were defeated by the Giants, 1 to 0. In the fourth game, the Yankees were defeated by the Giants, 1 to 0. In the fifth game, the Yankees were defeated by the Giants, 1 to 0.

The men's game will introduce the best players in the Stetson organization, pitted against the representatives of St. Louis, whose club has considerable interest in the game between the girls.

The record for the Stetson girls for the season follows: Dixon (at home), 1; Stetson Girls, 11. Dixon (at home), 1; Stetson Girls, 11. Dixon (at home), 1; Stetson Girls, 11. Dixon (at home), 1; Stetson Girls, 11.

JOHNNY OGDEN IS HERO IN VICTORY

Former Swarthmore Star Beats Ben Tincup in Orioles-Colonels Series

Each Team Wins a Game

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 7.—This was an off-day in the Junior World series schedule and members of the Louisville and Baltimore clubs welcomed the first game Wednesday, 16 to 1, played the International League champions on even terms with Louisville.

Johnny OGDEN, former Swarthmore College star, the pitching ace of the Orioles, who equals the International League record by winning thirty-two this season, was invincible. The only run the Colonels scored was the result of a wild throw by Shortstop Boley in the seventh inning.

The total attendance for the two games was 5582, and the total receipts $8349.78. The attendance of 3253 yesterday was even smaller than the opening day.

Jack Chesbro, whose wild pitch on the last day of the 1904 season prevented the Yankees from winning the pennant, saw his old team in a World Series contest yesterday. It was the first time he had seen an American League club in action since he retired from the diamond.

Mays and Hoyt, the two winning Yankees pitchers, are tied for first place in their club's batting averages. Each has one hit to his credit for an average of .333. Ward and McNally, with two cars, are tied for second place with .286.

In contrast to the Yankee pitchers' hitting averages, that of the Giants' catcher, Douglas and Nehf, neither of whom has made a hit. Frisch tops the players of both teams in hitting—five hits out of eight times, up—625 average.

Nick Altrock, famous comedian of the Washington Americans, believes the "Babe" Ruth act is going to be put some comedy into it today. With Al Schacht, also of Washington, Nick will stage his entire repertoire of funny antics on the side lines before today's game.

Fifty-five baseballs were used in the second game. Out of these brand-new balls, thirty were used by the Yankees, as it was their day "at home." The umpires saved five to use in early batting practice today. The balls for today's game will be furnished by the Giants.

It was a better day for ice cream and drinks than the popular day yesterday because the weather was against them. The hot dogs, which had it all their own way during the initial contest, were still in demand yesterday, however.

When George Burns was called out while trying to steal second on the eighth he sat on the bag for a minute or two looking at the umpire. If he said anything to that official the latter kept it to himself. Finally Burns walked toward the field carrying a small portion of the Polo Grounds with him.

GERMANTOWN AND ST. JOSEPH'S PLAY

Biggest of Fifteen Scholastic Football Games on at Cahill Field

C. H. S. AT BRYN ATHYN

By PAUL PREP

Fifteen games constitute the scholastic football card for this afternoon. Of these the most important will be played on Cahill Field, Twenty-ninth and Cambria streets, between Germantown High and St. Joseph's Prep. The game is an interleague affair, the Clivedens being members of the Interscholastic League, while the Crimson and Gray eleven performs in the Catholic School circuit.

St. Joseph's finished on top of the league last season, and Coach Heine Miller is out to have his team start the year off with a victory.

Another Germantown team will be seen in action this afternoon, when Ridley Park High meets Germantown Friends' at Coulter street and Germantown avenue.

West Philly Game Tomorrow The inter-sectional game originally scheduled for today between West Philadelphia High School and West Philadelphia Catholic High School has been officially postponed until tomorrow. The "vendetta" will be played off on Catholic High's lot, Twenty-ninth and Cambria streets.

Central High students will take a trip up Huntingdon Valley way to watch the game scheduled between their institution and the eleven representing Bryn Athyn Academy. This is expected to be one of the best games of the season.

The undefeated Penn Charter squad will be awaited out to Wayne by its coach, Dick Merritt, and will make an attempt to put the skills under Radnor High, also undefeated to date. Penn Charter is confident another win, as is Radnor. The Yellow and Blue is the favorite, owing to its victory over Dr. Matthew C. O'Brien's Central aggregation last Friday, but Radnor is strong this season, and the dope pot may be upset.

Several games will be played on the other side of the Delaware. Palmyra High meets Haddon Heights, Narberth makes the trip to Haddonfield and Salem battles Pennsylvania.

The other games on the schedule are: Lansdowne High, vs. Chester High; Havertown Township High, at Lansdale High, and Tredyffrin-Easttown High, at Media High.

Babe Ruth has some ideas of his own about what is news. The most "supper" man of the series, thought enough pictures of him had been taken yesterday when he was asked to pose for the 101st time during the day.

URSINUS DRIVEN HARD

Coach of Eleven is Striving for Better Attack on Line

Collegeville, Pa., Oct. 7.—After Saturday's defeat at the hands of Villanova the Ursinus team has been put through grilling practices. The coach is working to bring about better attack on the part of the line, and more co-ordinate work in the back-field.

Under such strenuous stimulus and competition some promising material has been persistently surging to the front. Barry Williams, a scrub man, by his steady, tenacious plugging at tackle, and Hunnicker, a new arrival from Norristown High, by his whirlwind and roving attacks from defensive tackle, are the men most feared by the varsity line-men.
