Miss Stirling Is Favorite to Repeat as Champion of America Over Course of Hollywood Club

ALEXA FOUR DOWN TO MISS HOLLINS

Challenger Leads Miss Stirling at End of 18 Holes for Golf Title

HAS MEDAL ROUND OF 92

By SANDY McNIBLICK

Deal, N. J., Oct. 8 .- Miss Marion Hollins, powerful representative of the game of golf as played in America. played in masterful fashion this morning to grind out a lead of 4 up on Miss Alexa Stirling in the final round for the women's golf championship of the United States.

Miss Hollins had a medal round of 92, and Miss Stirling took 97 wallops, one of the worst games she has played in this tourney, where her golf has been none too perfect.

Alexa Stirling has dominated Ameri-thirty-foot trap guarding the green.

Miss Hollins followed a fine drive can women's golf like a Pike's Peak for these five long golf years past, abso-for these five long golf years past, abso-of the sand chasm and rolled on the lute queen of the links realm here. But lute queen of the links realm here. But lyte queen of the links realm here. But the queen's crown was on one ruddy ear, as it were, when she shoved her ear, as it were, when she shoved her putter back in her bag to go to lunch. Just as she had all of the breaks yes-terday to beat Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck, Philadelphia, so Miss Stirling's luck de-Just as she had he of the first of the fifteenth, but the green was fast and she rolled just to the erest of the back ready. She had but one break, at the fourteenth, where she just hopped over the creek. You might call it a good break where she just stayed on the back rim of the fifteenth, but her abot to this short hole was perfect and enly a slippery green kept her four enly a slippery green kept her form two remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to Baltimore. He offered to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to Baltimore. He offered to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to Baltimore. He offered to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to Baltimore. He offered to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to Baltimore. He offered to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to Baltimore. He offered to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to Baltimore. He offered to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to Baltimore. He offered to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here transferred to guarantee an attendance of 50,000 provided the remaining games scheduled to be played here tr abot to this short hole was perfect and abot to this short hole was perfect and enly a slippery green kept her f om enly a slippery green kept her f om on twelve, but got another bad break was getting the breaks, just about as many as she was holes up.

The gallery today exceed the largest They were alike in four and Miss Stirling outdrove Miss Hollins on twelve, but got another bad break when her ball hit the edge of a trap on an iron second and fell in. Miss Hollins rolled over the edge, three. They were alike in four and Miss Stirling outdrove Miss Hollins on twelve, but got another bad break when her ball hit the edge of a trap on an iron second and fell in. Miss Hollins rolled over the edge, three the slightly longer putt for many as she was holes up.

The gallery today second the largest of the week, due partly to the fact that it was all concentrated around this one lone match for the championship, and partly because they were from the New York and senshore district round about the Lallewood course and Marion the Lallewood course and Marion the largest another translations and the green.

Tork and senshore district round about the Hollywood course and Marion Hellins was their favorite.

It was the first year they had ever played a final round for the women's played a final round for the women's foot putt and a short one. The chamholes in this country and the crowd pion was 5 down, 6-4.

Miss Hollins caught the two of the leading American women shot exponents. The day was the worst of the week for conditions, except qualifying day, when it rained most of qualifying day, when it rained most of the day, when it rained most of the day. But the final day dawned gray and cold, freezing winds wrapping icy tentacles around the forms of the two fair players, causing their fingers to stip on the clubs, their clubs head to wobble overhead, and the shots the day when her second just country in the second hole of the day when she sank in one putt, 4-6. Miss Hollins 4 up.

Miss Stirling outdrove Miss Hollins on the sixteenth and tried to carry the trapping with a spoon, but the wind was too strong. She got over the green with an iron, but had a neat run-up to go astray over this terrifically trapped course.

Details of the Match

Miss Hollins outdrove Miss Stirling Miss Stirling hooked to a trap at the from the first tee and thereby reached short seventeenth, but had a good out to the first tee and thereby reached to the first seventeenth. from the first tee and thereby reached the green with her iron while Miss Stirling was short. The champion rimmed the cup with a ten-foot putt and was 1 down when Miss Hollins Hollins Stirling drove the trap at the eighteenth and was short out in the lins got the trap and was short out at the second, while Miss Stirling pulled the green, but overran to the same place where she landed against Mrs. Hall, her tee shot to the rough and needed four to get on, as did Miss Hollins, who trapped her third at the green's edge. The putts were measured and both missed for half G's. Miss Hollins was down the middle to the third and carried the traps neatly in 2. Miss Stirling missed putts, ending 4 down for morning. the traps neatly in 2. Miss Stirling putted again and was trapped in 2; she was still away when she had played 4. Miss Hollins having a fine chip five feet from the pin, which putt In ... sed, and Miss Stirling sank for a half in 5. Both sliced to traps on the short fourth and Miss Hollins popped to the down slope of the bunker Miss Stirling popped neatly as Miss Hollins over-chipped, and en-joyed a putting rally until she got tired, and conceded the hole, 4-6. All square.

Miss Hollins 3 Up Miss Hollins again outdrove Miss Stirling on the dog-leg fifth, the latter being trapped and short out. Miss Hol-lins, with the green wide open, had a great chance, but footed a slice short. it did not matter when Miss Stir-added to a poor hole by missing a ing the four in hands, for which she is ling added to a poor hole by missing a short putt. Miss Hollins one up again. Both flirted with a bunker for slices thounds and is famed in other hounds are hounds and is famed in other hounds. and then getting a deadly massic four feet from the cup. Miss Stirling had en elegant spoon, and was on in 3, and sank their four-footers for a half.

the first well-played hole they had had.
Miss Hollins was bunkered from the against Miss Stirling. Seventh tee while Miss Stirling got 450 pards with two perfect wood shots, but Jards with two perfect wood shots, but on the short fourth she played two bad to pitch over a trap and ran to bad shots and got a half with an acrossthe far edge. Her putt back was short the-green-and-up putt. On the seven and both missed ten-footers for 5's.

Miss Hollins sliced a triffe to the rough the eighth, but hit a wonderful iron blick found just the right green open site would have lost but for Lady and both missed ten-footers for 5's. at the eighth, but hit a wonderful iron which found just the right green opening and was well on. Miss Stirling.

After a good drive, played three of her worst shots in this tournament, a flubbed iron, flubbed mashie, which went in the trap and her out was a shots in the trap and her out was a shots in the trap and her out was a shots in the trap and her out was a shot he had to have then up. went in the trop and her out was a she had to back them up. She conceded and was 2 down going to the minth.

Miss Stirling drove a trap on the minth and was short out, but had a fine spoon to the green's edge. Her chip was none too close and she missed the putt. Miss Hollins' long iron secand trickled to a trap, her out was close and she got an easy 5. Miss Holdas 3 up at turn. Their cards :

Minn Stirileg--out 5 6 5 4 6 4 6 7 6-49

Mas titles— 4 8 5 6 5 4 6 4 5—45 Adds Another Hole

Miss Stirling booked to trap on the tenth, but had a fine out and had a long brassic. Miss Hollins followed a good drive with a shot to a trap and tas ever with Miss Stirling on the third. They were alike on the green in 4. Miss Stirling had to sink a five-fact with the start of the foot putt for a half after over-running.

A half in 6s.
Miss Stirling stuck a tee shot in the

Harvard Unbeaten in Intersectional Games

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. S .- Indiana, facing Harvard in the Stadium today, will have to contend both with the Crimson team and with a Crimson record of being unbeaten in every intersectional same played in the last forty years. The Hoosiers will be the eleventh team from another section to test trength and skill on the gridiron with Harvard.

Beginning with Michigan on Noember 2, 1881, Harvard has turned hem all back, high spots in the interacetional series being the defeats administered to Michigan in 1914, to Oregon by the team of 1919 and to Centre College last year.

Challenger KOOB TO PITCH AGAINST ORIOLES

MISS MARION HOLLINS

Who meets Miss Alexa Stirling in the final round of the women's golf to play out at right angles and her putts, but won, 5-6, and was 4 up.

Miss Stirling played a fine shot to Miss Hollins caught the rough on her drive over the Hill and played safe. Her

Miss Stirling got her first b cak of the bank the first time and then missed a

Their inward journey:

Some Favor Miss Hollins

Miss Hollins is favored by not a few to win today's tussic. She went to the final round in 1913 at Wilmington, where she lost to the then Miss Gladys Ravenscroft. She has been metropoli-tan champion and twice accompanied the Americans on British invasions in the last two years.

The first time she lasted the longest.

only falling in the fourth round, and this year she really had Miss Cecil

Leitch all but beaten, only to lose in the

at times she is virtually unbeatable.

She is apt to be erratic at-times, how-against Miss Stirling.

There were three distinct ones. But

Big and powerful, Miss Hollins is an third trickled over the banked-up gre

Louisville Star to Battle Against Baltimore in Third Game of Series

DUNN TO USE GROVES

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 8 .- After a day rest the Louisville and Baltimore clubs will resume play in the junior world series here this afternoon. game was scheduled for yesterday, and none could have been played, for a steady downpour of rain, accompanied by falling temperature, made it both too wet and too cold to play. weather forecast for today is fair with slowly rising temperature. With the series standing 1 all, both managers plan to make a strong bid for the third game of the interleague series. Manager McCarthy, of Louis ville, will depend on Ernie Koob, lead ing pitcher of the Colonels, to break the tie with the International Leaguers.

Jack Dunn, manager of the Orioles, iutends to send Groves, who was forced Jack Dunn, manager of the Orioles, iutends to send Groves, who was forced to evacuate under a fusillade of hits in the opening game, back today, but intimated that Thomas probably would be his reserve pitching selection. ten feet from the cup, but missed the putt. Miss Hollins was down in three

After two days' playing before small crowds, manager Dunn of the Balti-

The batting order noon's game follows: BALTIMORE COUISVILLE Rallenger, sa Schepner, 3b Meyer, c Koob, p

RACQUET ATHLETES OFF TO MEET CHEVY CHASE

Fifty Members Leave for Washington for Inter-Club Sports Carnival Philadelphia, representing the Racquet Club, left for Washington this Suddenly, from the Giant bench, this morning to spend two days in com-settion in an inter-club carnival of piercing the silence like a sword: sports, competing against the Chevy Chase and Racquet Clubs of Washington. The contests will be in golf, lawn tennis and baseball.

This afternoon the baseball team will clash with Chevy Chase at that club at 3:30, while the golf and tennis and tidal wave hit the Yanks in the back matches will be played against the of the neck and washed them out to with an iron, but had a neat run-up roller almost dead and won the hole when Miss Hollins failed to get up the same club all afternoon. On Sunday sea. the golf matches will be played against the Racquet Club, of Washington, in the illustrious Tad, "You tell 'em, let-Miss Stirling booked to a trap at the the morning and against their tennis teams in the afternoon.

CHICAGO PLAYS PURDUE

Maroons Will Meet Princeton in Next Grid Battle

Chicago, Oct. 8 .- Chicago faced Purfor the Boilermakers and the last contest for the Marcons before they go East to play Princeton.

> Burman Beats Midget Smith New York, Oct. 8.—Joe Burman, the Chi-cago bantam, cutpointed Midget Smith, o this city, in the main ten-round bout a Madison Square Garden last night. Jabe White of Albany, received the decision a

Could Die Easy After Hitting Homer, Says Babe

New York, Oct. 8 .- The operation on Babe Ruth's left elbow hasn't taken away any of the enthusiasm of the home-run king, who is more anxious to connect for a circult drive now than ever be

"My greatest desire now," said Ruth, "is to hit a home run in this series. I could die easy then, "This abscess may hold me up for a while, but I'll still have plenty of chances to get a good crack at that ball, provided they pitch to me.

MAY NOT PLAY TOMORROW

Babe Ruth submitted to an operation for an abscess on his left elbow and may be unable to play in the fourth clash between the Glants and

FORMER PHILS WEAR SERIES SMILES

Here we see a bevy of Mr. Baker's "cast-offs," now with the Glants, who are not shedding tears over the bignoise money they would have missed had they remained in the cellar with the Phillies. They are (left to right) Johnny Rawlings, "Irish" Meusel, Dave Bancroft, "Red" Causey and Casey Stengel wilderness he heard the Call of the Wild, and before Huggins could sum-then forced two Giants over.

camp's smoke of success.

after runner rippled over the plate.

Frankie Up Again-Walks

SUNDAY SPECIALS

Lobster Dinner, $1.50

Fish Platter, $1.00

Chicken Platter, $1.50

Ruth's timely single drove in two more runs the series seemed as good as over. This last blow sent Toney

Brouled Salmos or Fried Scalings | L. Bakell Potato | Fried Tomators

ter of things.

to another defeat.

Twelve Giants Batted, Scored Eight Runs, Broke Three Records and Won

CHANGES SERIES ASPECT

By GRANTLAND RICE New York, Oct. 8 .- The last half of the seventh inning had come, with the score knotted at 4 to .. A boding hush had fallen upon the multitude and the autumn air was a friendly hand in time of trouble rife with the tenseness of impending pushing them gently but firmly around frama. The Giant cloud, no larger the towpaths as one might lead a blind than a man's hand a few minutes before, had suddenly developed the deadly Fifty of the leading club athletes of spiral shape that heralds an approach-

"Get the women and children to

Cataclysm Engulfs Yanks

tuce, I haven't got the heart."

There was a rendering and a slashing of horsehide, a drumfire of musketry, a volcanic thunder of the hig guns, the sound of rushing, hurrying feet and, above all, the wild, four-chrnered battle howl of the Giant rooter, who at last, with his shackles knocked off, had Purdue the chance to arise upon his hind legs clubs represented the city of New York. In this one great inning twelve Carmen
Harris
World Series records, drove two YanWatson
Exerman
Williams
Wee pitchers off the reservation, won their first ball game, got back their morale and promptly became important factors where before they had been the first only supers overshadowed by a cluster

As the rorman star wands that part of the crowd that had cheered Ruth's second strikeout opened up a salvo of acclaim. Always over the far horizon the populace peers for a new king in the realm of sport. And due today at Stagg Field in the first only supers overshadowed by a cluster king in the realm of sport. And Western Conference game of the season of stars.

Frisch Opens Record Rally

East to play Princeton.

A heavy rain yesterday and last night left the field a quagmire in which fast play was difficult.

In this weird, fantastic chapter, opened by the immortal Frank Frisch with his batting average of 700, the aroused Giants got back in twenty minutes enough revenge to cover their first two disastrous, runless days. They unnihilated both Jack Quinn and Rip Collins with a ferocity of attack that was not to be denied. And ence they was not to be denied. And ence they get away with. were under way the clear, untram-eled, strident voice of the Giant rooter was something well worth hearing, for he too had been waiting overtime for this great chance. No wonder he put a hop to his bark! For among records broken he saw Frisch score twice in this single spasm, Young make a double and a triple in the same frame, and light man cross the plate frame, and

When the pitching goes to Gehenna he remainder of the team generally heads in the same direction, but on this occasion the steadfast Yanks refused to be stampeded, closing out 124 accepted chances for the series without a misplay to date.

Kuth's Crown in Peril

In addition to coming back with a rabid vengeance the Giants tossed another bombshell into hostile ranks by offering up a batting star who now out of five starts. Young followed for offering up a batting star who now threatens the glory and the grandeur that were Ruth's. Upon the clammy brow of Frankle Frisch the multitude tied the chaplet of olive boughs as tid the chaplet of olive boughs and now, in a burst of fervid generosity, he decided to contribute a triple. His blow to left center went the inclement weather. The games are clean to the fence, eracking three the inclement weather. The games are off indefinitely and probably will be held on October 22.

A girls' game was to have been played between the Stetson and Dobson teams. The other natch was scheduled between the pick of the Stetson and Sears-the pick of the Stetson and Sea three first games. This lefty mark way of teas and serrow, with Rogers was never held before over as many passing days in a World Series, and unless Frisch skids from far heights. The Giants got three more hits and a other cove. with Bob Shawkey facing Fred Toney the massive Tennessean, there were early indications that both were soon headed for serious complications, Faintly echoing, they both must have heard the faint splash of the cooling shower waiting for them at the jour-ney's end that was not to be so far away. For two lunings both got by through the keenness of the double away. For two initings both got by through the keenness of the double defense. As the third reel was unraveled, 35,060 fans, reoting with a vim that had been absent in the two preceding games, sensed the expected and Shawkey singled to right, With this start. Yankee posters were again in the saddle, with the Giant olony dumb with growing anguish. For as Miller singled, driving Schang across with the first run. They saw another Yankee triumph on its way. with McGraw and his men hopelessly outdistanced. When Peck walked and #### from the field, with Barnes subpoenaed M'GRAW DIRECTS as a dying hope. A moment later Peck scored the fourth Yankee run on an infield out. Giants Emerge From "Last Ditch" TEAM FROM BENCH Two games behind, and four runs behind in the third affair! Here was the last Glant chance for redemption, the last straw riding the whirlpool of fate. For twenty innings they had known no spoor that led to the home plate, and here they were on their way "Civies" and Hides Himself 'It was here that Shawkey, with guiding hand, began to show them the in Giants' Dugout lost trail to glory-for the paths of glory, in this game lead but to the plate. Shawkey, with the suddenness of exploding powder, lost all control. Scmewhere from out of the timbered HUGGINS ON SIDELINES

mon his reserves Bob had filled the bases on two hits and a pass and had twenty innings they had been as helpless as infants, and here at last was seem Incredible, but it's true in this year's championship battle.

the townaths as one might lead a b'ind man through the tangled traffic at not appear on the sidelines to encourage out of a deep, dark hole. Fifth avenue and Forty-second street. At this point Shawkey was derricked in favor of Quinn, but the Giants had now picked up the lost trail leading back to camp. They were no longer bewfidered stragglers in the jungle They were out in the onen where they could see once more the thin blue. Many fans sit within a few feet of im in the stands but seldom see him. Many fans sit within a few feet of him in the stands but seldom see him. Literally thousands of fans who came the first gme and thow Nehf worked in the first gme and thou Nehf worked in the fi They were out in the open where they could see once more the thin blue, left Quinn at a tough spot on the road, where Rawling's single tied the count seemed to have swung over to the standing in the third base coaching box Giants, then the underdogs. For the as was his babit for years.

next three innings the main battle was But following his more recent cusbetween the two fanatical factions as tom the veteran chief remains on the Quinn and Barnes strode forward, side bench dressed in "civies," and, inside, both brilliantly supported, cidentally, well dressed, too, usually with Barnes baving a shade the betin a nattily tailored blue serge suit. He leaves his active coaching In their half of the seventh the assistant, Hughey Jennings, and Coach Yanks passed out as quickly as a hat Dolan.

HIGH COST OF TICKETS

Bambino at bat.

The Fordham boy's response to this rousing welcome was a stinging blow to safe soil. Young followed with a double, and above the tu mult you could hear the call could hear the call, "They're off! $15 was the standard price, and this They're off!"
Somebody said something heremore of a mouthful than Demosthenes store proprietor impressing a patron with his pebble workout could hope to with his remarkable sacrifice in dispos Kelly's pass filled the bases and when Meusel smote a double to right the avalanche was under way, the simoom was at work, the carthounke had the avalanche was under way, the si-moom was at work, the earthquake had this great chance. No wonder he put a hop to his bark! For among records broken he saw Frisch score twice in this single spasm. Young make a double and a triple in the same frame, and eight men cross the plate for a three-ply record harvest in so far as any post-season stands involved.

The Giants, by soaking Shawkey. Quinn, Collins and Rogers for twenty hits, beat the Yankees 13 to 5, using their bats almost exclusively for this murpose. It was all a matter of Giant strength at the bat and Yankee weaktheir bats almost exclusively for the midewed batting average. It was all a matter of Giant strength at the bat and Yankee weakness in the box, for, in spite of the collapse of their pitching caravan the Yankee defense afield held up its stonewall balance of the first two days, unwall balance of the first two days. wall balance of the first unbroken and wavering, undaunted, unbroken and heard the moose call sounding him to quiry at first deited the response that still on top of a gallant job.

Rip Collins followed, there were no tickets for either this afternoon.

Shibe Park Off

Lehigh Ends Work for Rutgers eft.

The Giants got three more lifts and part of a light workent of the Lehigh I'm part of a light workent of the Lehigh I'm unless Frisch skids from far heights or the Rabe takes a running jump out of the home-run rut, he may find the star's dressing room awarded to another run in the eighth to complete versity squad in training for the fest's dressing room awarded to another run in the eighth to complete versity squad in training for the fest's dressing room awarded to another run in the eighth to complete versity squad in training for the fest've asjuragus cast their condition, every man on the being available if called upon

COME HAVE MEENEHAN'S CAFE

Half-Broiled Lobster Lobster Thermidder Crab Meat on grain Parties Sauce Filet of Sole Tartare Sauce

Half-Brothel chicken Econst Lev of Lamb

orn Fritters French F ied Pointors Boiled Pointors New Creamed Spinach

Sliced Tomators French Dressing Tomato Salad

Discards Baseball Togs for not appear on the sidelines to encourage his boys to victory, however, isn't any indication that he is absent from the games. He's there every minute—in mental if not physical action, occupying his secluded sent in the Giant's dugout.

Out of a deep, dark hole.

Toney's showing for the Gfants was disappointing, but big Fred had a tough break and probably will get another chance. Jess Barnes, who relieved him, here professional players, and they must come from Wayne. Lackawanna, Lagrange his secluded sent in the Giant's won.

in New York New York, Oct. 8 .- The victory of

STETSON GAMES OFF

Double-Header for Hospital Fund at 62D & WALNUT STS.

Meenchan's Special, $1.50

Saratoga Potetaes

Sirloin Platter, $1.25

Solid Potots New String Brans Lettuce and Tomato Salad

Lamb Platter, $1.00

Batteries Mays and Schang for Tan-ees; Douglas, Harnes and Smyder for liants. Time of game—1:38. Batteries-Hoyt and Schang for Yan-kees: Nehf and Smith for Giante, Time -1:55. Third Game

Series Played to Date

RESULTS OF YESTERDAY

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

RECORD OF GAMES

First Game

Statistics of World

Giants, 13: Yankees, 5.

World Series All Wet; Game Is Off

inning, one a single, the other a triple, also made history. The time required to play the nine innings, two hours lege, and it is not certain whether he and forty minutes, added a few lines will play. If the team takes the floor to the special section of the second o to the records.

Twenty hits for one team in one game never were recorded before in a World Series. Burns garnered four of them, three singles and a triple. Frisch besides drawing three free passes, hit safely twice: Young walked twice, then made a triple and a single in the same inning. Emil Meusel collected a double and two singles. Snyder four singles and Jess Barnes two. Rawlings got two and Bancroft one. Kelly and Pitcher Toney were the only Giants who failed to connect at least once.

Take provide it will leave out of action Jimmy Brown, one of the best players in the circuit.

Chris Leonard, who is on the Coatenville list, will not play in the league. There was a deal on between Coates Harvey and Bruggy for Leonard, but it has fallen through. The addition of Bruggy and Harvey would give the tallenders a chance, but the outlook for the season is not so good.

The fans have promised Manager Beiney their support. They accorded the team their patronage last season.

Burns' Great Catch

New York, Oct. 8.—The Giants in a World Series without Manager Mc-Graw on the coaching lines. To the old followers of the game that may seem incredible to the coaching lines. To the old followers of the game that may seem incredible to the coaching lines. To the old followers of the game that may along with Aaron Ward's leaping one-banded eath of Rawlings' lines toward. handed catch of Rawlings' liner toward Intercounty to Start October 24 right in the second, which enabled the Yankee keystone sacker to double Emil The fact that Manager McGraw does Meusel off first and pull Bob Shawkey

Irish Takes Lead

Emil 'Irish' Meusel, of the Giants, towns, and Taylor, today is confident he will keep ahead of bald and Dunmore. his brother, Bob, of the Yankees, Although starting late, the National outfielder has stepped ahead brother in the number of hits made thus far. Emil bas his eyes set on winning that Thanksgiving dinner ser-ies, in which the brother having the check bey reaches for a tip.

And here were the Giants with Frisch at bat again, Frisch who had old McGraw way. He is always to be Manager Miller Huggins, of the Yanlowest batting average must provide a banquet for the whole Meuser family.

He other the game today with a bat. Giants came to bat, scored eight runs, pummeled out eight hits, broke three laready reached first every time up.

As the Fordham star walked out sidelines—usually back of first base.

As the Fordham star walked out sidelines—usually back of first base.

Frisch at bat again, Frisch who had old Mctiraw way. He is always to be the caters the game today with a bat-seen in Yankee uniform out on the ting average of 300, just 27 points the cater of the caters the game today with a bat-seen in Yankee uniform out on the ting average of 300, just 27 points the cater of the cater o ahead of Bob. Emil made all his yes-terday in the Giants' slugging victory in all Celties. The line-up this year c -a double and two singles His double Scalpers Want $15 for Pasteboards broke the tie score, sending in two runs. Nat Holman and "Dutch" Dehnert, with three men on bases in the seventh This hit, by the way, went right out to Brother Bob in right field. He scored two runs during the game.

This combination is one of the best in the country, and they have been two runs during the game.

two runs during the game.

Bob Meusel also did some hitting on double and a single.

548 ENTRIES IN DOG SHOW

Annual Event of Germantown Kennel Club on Today

Shepherds, with seventy-three actual | winner. dogs, and 111 entries, top the list of 548 dogs which will be benched today at the annual dog show of the German-town Cricket Club Kennel Association on the club grounds at Manheim and Morris streets.

Every noted breed of the high-class.

blue-ribbon winning variety of canine family will be represented. Philadelphia's most prominent ken-nels will be represented in what prom-ises to be the keenest of competition. The proceeds of the show are to be donated to the Germantown Hospital,

Hutchinson Scores Knockout Salem, Mass., Oct 8.—Huntey Huichingor, f Philadelphis knocked out Louis Leonard, oaton featherweight, in the fifth round ore last night

COATESVILLE FIVE NEEDS NEW MEN

Line-Up of Eastern League Combination Not Promising. Pair of New Guards

CHRIS LEONARD IS LOST

The Contesville basketball team, of the Eastern League, will kick in the 1921 season on Monday evening with an exhibition with the North Phillies. The regular campaign will be ushered in the following Monday night, but just who the opponent of the Coats will be is undecided. Manager Behney has noti-fied the following men to appear for the league clash: Joe Berger, Wasmer, Jimmy Brown, "Liz" Powell, Richard Dieghan, Grebe, Sharton and "Chick" Galloway.

It is uncertain how the team will line up, but if Berger shows up for the the twelve men who batted still another. Pep Young's two hits in the inning, one a single, the other a triple, off and Grebe, both big men at guards. as expected it will leave out of action who failed to connect at least once. Benney their patronage last season, despite the fact that they were a tail. George Burns' great run and capture ender. They realize that if once the

The Pennsylvania State League has passed out of existence, but the Intercounty League has decided to spread out a trifle, and several of the teams two halves. The circuit consists of Plymouth, Nanticoke and Pittston, former Pennsylvania State League towns, and Taylor, Providence, Arch-

Big Crowds at Garden Games

That basketball is only in the making was never better exemplified than in the games now being played at Madison Square Garden. Last Sunday afternoon and evening contests were scheduled. In the first clash with Garry Schmeelk's Brooklyn Pros there was an attendance of 5632 and in the evening 9724 turned out to see the Powers brothers' quintet sists of Ernie Reich and Johnny Beck Bob Meusel also did some hitting on ing elsewhere. This means that none of his own account yesterday. He made a these players will be in the Eastern League this season.

The work of Holman was the outstanding feature of the two games which were easy victories for the Celties. Holman is regarded as the fastest piece of basketball machinery on the New York courts, and it was his offensive work that landed the Celts team a

Johnny Mealey's Wife Dies

Stops Itching

Over 600,000 owners

Thornton-Fuller Automobile Company Parkway, East of 18th 3t. Phone, Spruce 1040

> Dodge Brothers MOTOR CARS