Battlefield Collegians Have Strong Team-Heisman Shifts His Line With Thurman Hurt

FRESH ELEVEN OPENS

Boasting of a student populate alightly in excess of three hundred, Gettysburg College will try to make gridiron history on Franklin Field this afternoon against the University of Pennsylvania football eleven

The battlefield boys tumbled out of the covers this morning feeling that they have an equal chance against the Red and Blue. And they are not alone in their thoughts.

According to several Penn followers who saw the Adams County collegians play against State College last Saturday. It is agreed that the Red and Blue is in for a busy afternoon. Hobey Light, the quiet, retient coach of the backs field at Penn, stated this morning that the visitors were not to be taken light and that they have a mighty fine

Lack of capable substitutes during the second half caused the downfall of the battlefield col-legians. This afternoon they will be in better shape and promise to make Coach John Heisman's eleven work their heads off for victory.

Visitors' Backfield Strong

Penn is the favorite for the game. but not without a struggle in Smith af quarterback, Mondan and Davis at Woods has an excellent backfield and a hefty one capable of making the Penn forwards worry.
