

PROTECTING EAR DRUMS. Noises made by 16-inch guns caused no fear to this sextette of Maryland beauty during gun trials at Aberdeen. Left to right, Misses Ruth Vogts, Eva Whitehead, Marion Nelson, Margaret Haines, Dorothy Johnston and Beulah Fisher. Ledger Photo Service

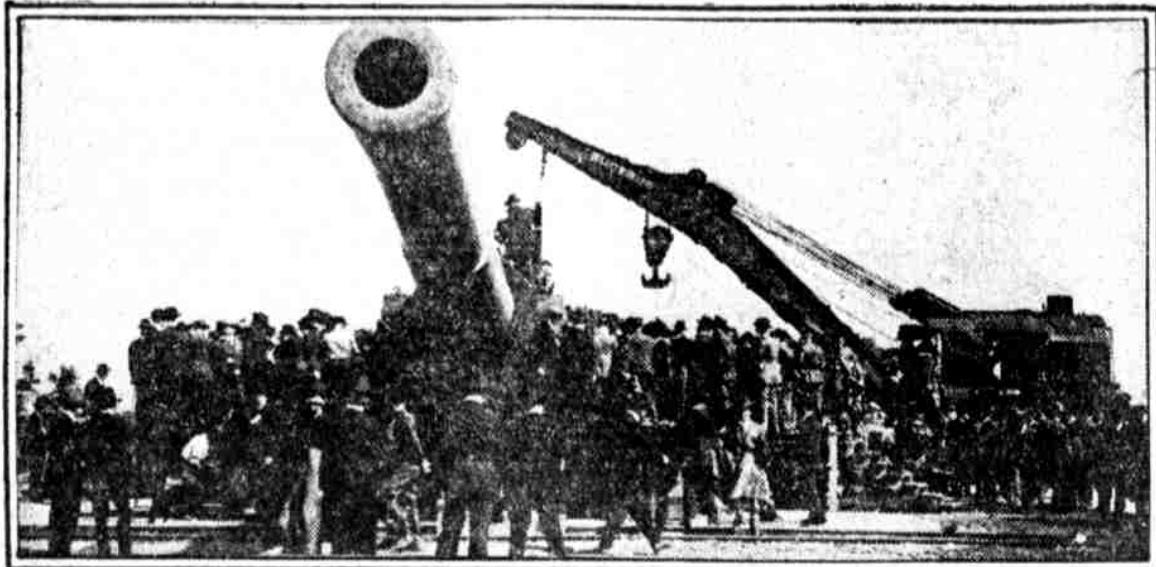

SIXTEEN-INCH SHELL. You get an idea of its length by comparing it with the height of the officer. This shell was used yesterday. L. P. S.

CLOSE-UP STUDY. William Hoppe, the 18.2 balkline billiard champion, making a close examination of the ivories. He plays in Philadelphia soon. White

VISITING AT HOT SPRINGS. Miss Ailsa Mellon (left), daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, with Miss Jane Gourd, of New York. Winki is the name of the prize-winning dog, owned by Miss Mellon. Central News Photo

AFTER THE TEST. Spectators were allowed to climb all over the Barbette carriage and gun following the trials at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland. The derrick was used for handling the 16-inch shells. Ledger Photo Service

BUSY SECTION. A steam shovel scooping away the mountain of dirt at Twenty-fourth street and the Parkway. The dirt is being used for the Parkway foundation near the art gallery. Ledger Photo Service

TWO INSPECTORS. George U. Stewart (left) and Harry E. Shay look after the city's interest on the Parkway work. L. P. S.

HIS TEAM WON. Captain Hutchinson, of the Germantown Friends football team, gets ready for the kick-off at the opening of the game with Ridley Park High School. The score was 13-0. L. P. S.

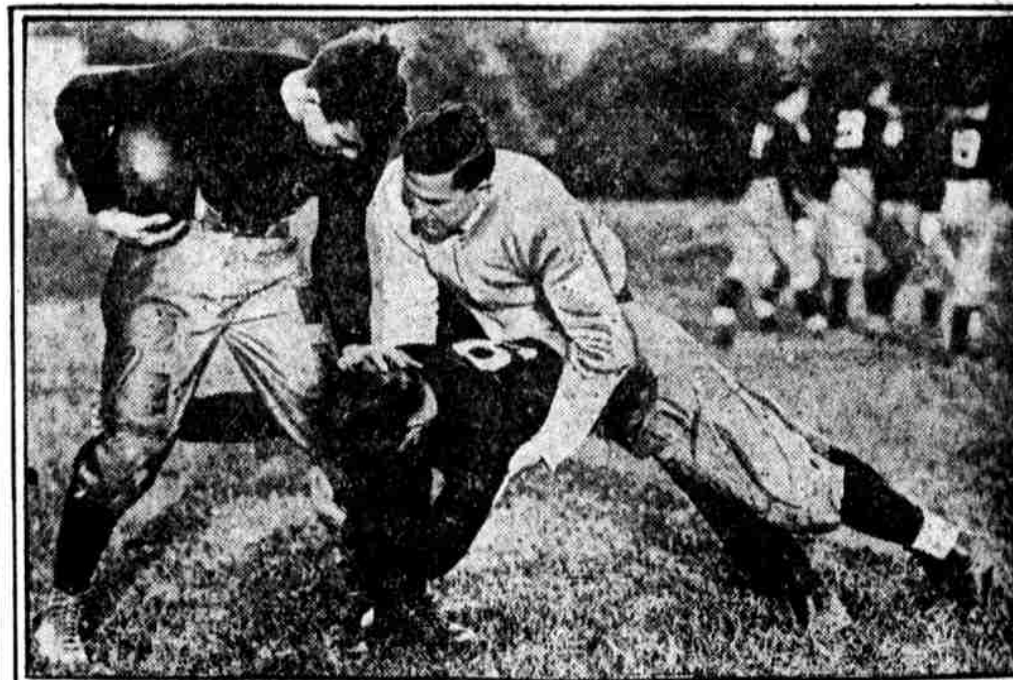

A RARE BIRD. Have you seen one? It is known as the Paradise crane. Central News Photo

HELPING HER COLLEGE. Miss Dorothy Track took children on historical hikes to collect money for Radcliffe. Int.

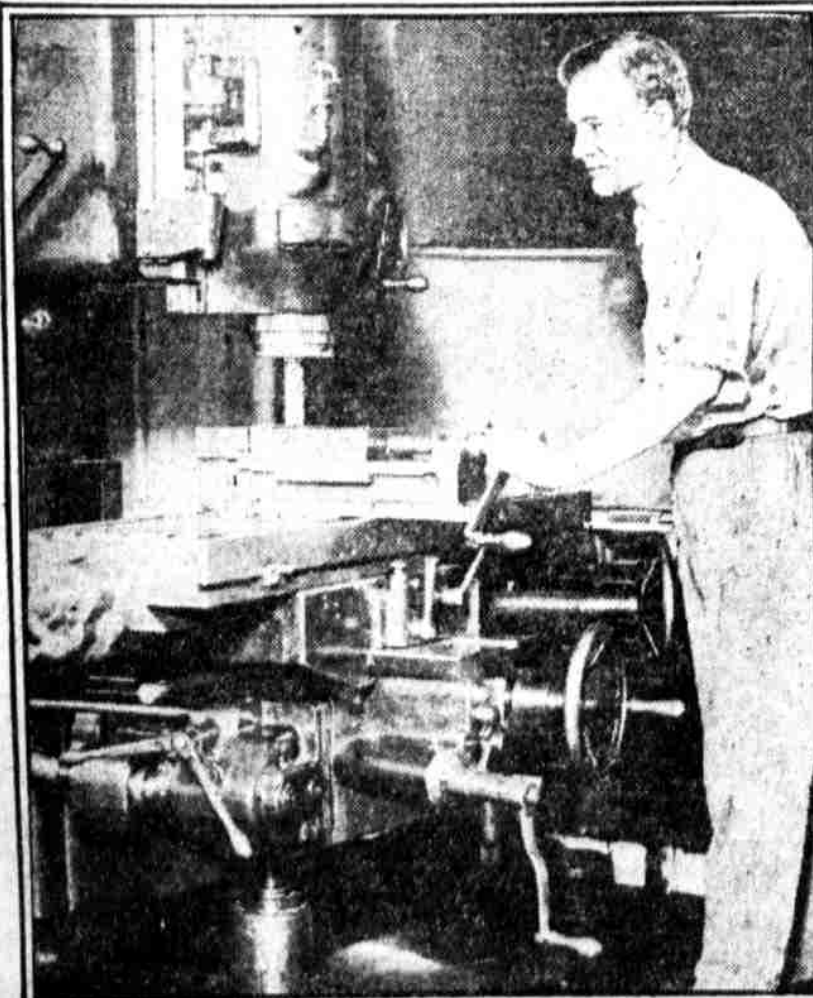

CAPTAIN CURTIS H. DICKINS, chaplain of Philadelphia Navy Yard, soon to leave for post with Pacific fleet. L. P. S.

HARD PRACTICE. Coach Dr. M. S. Bennett, of the Haverford College football team, instructing Matzke in the proper way to tackle, as he tackles Captain Sangree on Haverford field. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

SIDNEY E. TAUNT, 1861 Etting street, operating a milling machine in the machine shop of the Fischer Machine Company, 310 North Eleventh street. Ledger Photo Service

ON 25,000-MILE TRIP. Mrs. Judson D. Barratt, her husband and two children are traveling by motorcycle. They were in Philadelphia yesterday. L. P. S.

MET AT ABERDEEN. J. M. Wainwright, Assistant Secretary of War at tests. L. P. S.

ADMIRAL HENRY B. WILSON, commandant of the U. S. Naval Academy. H. & S.

"BILL" HOLLENBACK, Penn field coach snapped on Franklin Field. L. P. S.

AMERICAN BEAUTIES ABROAD. Two daughters of Chandler Cobb, the American Commercial attache in London, who are quite popular there. Int.