

CONFESSED SLAYER PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Guilford Young Tries to Evade
Eyes of Spectators in Court—Is Aged

TRIAL SET FOR NOVEMBER 9

Guilford Young, confessed slayer of Harry Garwood, 17, who was delivered, pleaded not guilty when he was arraigned before Judge Court Justice Katsenbach in Court No. 11 this morning. His trial is set for November 9.

Few of the spectators who were present when Young was arraigned at the court house could see him, as the courtroom was packed with people. Young looked pale and nervous as he stood before the judge.

Young's attorney, J. Edgar Hoover, who is also the attorney for the state, asked the judge to allow Young to be arraigned in the morning. The judge refused the request. Young's mother, Mrs. M. J. Young, who lives at 1518 Chestnut St., was present in court.

Young's mother said she was very proud of her son and that she would support him in his defense. She said she had never seen her son so nervous before.

The trial is expected to last several days. It is one of the most sensational trials in the city's history.

An Autumn Opportunity in Rare Furniture Values

Values that reflect the price changes and lower costs the Furniture World is now passing through.

The reduction of expense in Furniture making and the price paring of manufacturers to get business have had a wholesome effect upon the Furniture trade—a downward turn in the tide of prices that we have taken full advantage of, converting this money-saving opportunity to our own benefit and that of our customers.

Result—all our recent and immense purchases and all the Furniture that is being turned out of our own busy factory at the lessened costs of production—which means first cost to you—await customers at savings such as have not been known in years. Prices that many manufacturers say cannot last, in view of the improving conditions in trade, and which observing customers are now taking advantage of.

Delayed shipments, too, that should have been here for the August Sale, as well as Matched Suites, parts of Suites and Shippers in discontinued designs, together with hundreds of Pieces accumulated from the heavy selling of the past few months, are marked at additional savings that rise head and shoulders over any Furniture offerings in the country.

A modern living room fitted with the kind of Furniture that diffuses a delightful atmosphere of comfort and relaxation. Good taste, not great expense, is to be discerningly exemplified here, that one feels like entering the room and sinking into the restful luxury of Davenport or Chippendale Furniture that gives but an idea of the immense collection of handsome Suites and Pieces on our floor.
