EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1921

The Heart Pirate

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR Copyright. 1921. by Public Ledger Company

Theodora Caldwell has become enlee, that she is leaving to be mar-ried and because he forls she has no rights aside from his wishes he kid-naps her and carries her off on his macht bound for a Nouth American business from After two days at and the propeller shaft breaks, and they are forced to make for shore, but not before Blakeslee, seeing Theo for the first time as a roman instead of an office machine, falls in love with her and asks her to marry him. He is amazed at her reterry He is amazed at her refusal. for he has always had what he wanted out of life. But Thro is determined to be faithful to dimmy. In spite of the fact that Blakeslee has second her of her first. When she reaches New York she finds dimony absolutely unworthy of her fuith, and she breaks the enginement, and when Kiehard Blakesler discovers that she has fied, he is facious.

10

CHAPTER MLIV

A Gay Intruder RICHARD BLAKESLEE went hirst to the railroad station, where he was unable to find any trace of Theo.

Right Right BEARSTRES weith may trace of Their which with a which with the state of the which with a which with the state of the which with a which with the state of the the state of hing that he wanted. On two occasions only had he stopped to think of Theo. (Tomorrow-Gracia Learns the Truth.)

and of whether or not she could low anged to Jimmy Bland and to her aurprise is not happy about it. She tells her employer. Richard Blakes-lec, that she is leaving to be mar-

If you want to sell your grafonola put an advertisement in the ad columns of the paper. We cannot use our columns the paper. We for such things. As he was leaving the train the next evening, hurrying with his bag through the Pennsylvania station. a gay voice hatled him.

hailed him. Inpatient at being stopped, he Dear Cynthia—in reply to letters wheeled around, his face dark and un-wheeled around, his face dark and un-encoronaising, and the woman who had concoronaising, and the woman who had concoronaising, and the woman who had concoronaising, and the woman who had concoronaising and the wo chiled to him made a little grimace of dismay. "Heav us, you look cross. I'm sorry I stepped yen?" She was dainty and doll-like, with Dresden chima features and flaffy, fair tau. Scoiled and used to having her-own way, she had for two years tried in every way possible to charm Richard Blakeslee, but in vain. He was abso-lutely unavare of the fact that she cared. He rested her as he did all the women of his sequaintance, with a certain impersonal deference that was sting she had been arrested by the sta-tion she had been arrested by the sta-tion she had been arrested by the ex-pression on his thee. "Hell, Geard," he returned with a see my brother in-law treating my sister that way. I fry to answer ads in the papers, but never get a reply. Can you tell me where the did not know what he intended to de, but the very fact that she was chiding tim spurred him on the more. He was still the great Richard Blakeslee, with his mind fixed on some bins that he wanted. On two permissions

TEMPTATION. Suppose you attend to your work in your offlice and ston looking out of the window for passing taxis. You are wrong to think of this man as a lover and should computer yourself at one-fry not looking out of the window fo a week and you'll soon get over it.

the where to go to try to get an er position?

Please Tell Me

By CYNTHIA

To "H. W."

Why Discuss It?

don't you think this is a very simple thing to argue about? And also the

Still Thinks of Him

What to Do

JACQUES R.

Would Meet Nice Girls

over a deed that resulted in the death it is in their lives that appeals to her, of a young girl. of a young girl. She had been a good girl, but had tept bad company. And to all remonstrations ngainst these dangerous companions she had and, no doubt, as many a girl on the same road has said before her. "Oh, I same road has said before her." The ing down with dogs and awaking with this down with dogs and awaking with the down with Dear Cynthia-Could some of the ame road has said before her. "Oh, I arter of her associates. But particu-tant take care of myself." But it larly, yon know the old saying about furned out that she could not. It is the said of the associates is and awaking with You can't walk through a den of wild fleas. Eventually, and willing or not, mimals and come out unseathed. You she will have to pay the price. an't, for any length of time, breather alarming to a mother, nothing more in a polluted, disease-ridden atmosphere alarming to a mother, nothing more do at all The kind you meet at church want you to spend most of the time there at functions or other affairs.

In a polluted, disease ridgen atmosphere and and hopeless to any of us who und stay healthy. You can't enjoy the pithale and hopeless to any of us who wild flavor of a foucietool and escape know the ways of the world, than to he poison. You can't, by all the rules hear a girl say blithely. 'I can take if the game, dance without paying the care of mase f.' while she deliberately iper. Nor is any girl elever enough to be and taking care of herself in her choice a ble to play around with questionable of the company she keeps.

Fame reason.

Would

HAVE YOU HAD A BIRTHDAY LATELY?

and how you come under the sign you feel a natural equality with all men, and for this reason among others phire. Your chief characteristics are you naturally excel in everything you

You have a calm, cool, confident of society, no matter in what walk of life, though you reach your great-est height as musicians, chemists, pub-

The Charmed Fat Lady By DADDY Balky Sam comes to take Jack and Janet to visit a circus sideshow. Jointed Mule and Wooden Elephant, members of Jack's toy circus, join them and become big by eating grass

ADVENTURES

DREAMLAND

rom a fairy ring. CHAPTER II Balky Sam's Plan

TACK and Janet rode gaily toward the circus grounds on the back of Balky Sam, the trick mule. Behind trotted Jointed Mule and Wooden Elephant, the toys that had been ade big by eating grass from the fairy ring.

Soon they came within sight of the circus tents. Seen from a hilliop the great canvas tops looked like a goblin "Funny-looking hat!" they seem to city. The sounds of music floated up from saying to themselves listlessly before asant thing.

this goblin city-fast, jolly music that made Jack and Janet tingle with ex-citement. They were more eager than ever to hurry along to see the mysteries of the side show. The music thrilled Balky Sam, Joint-

You concentrate upon food. What shall you cat? Not soup—you're too hungry. Chicken, the only thing that aupeals, is too expensive for the begined Mule and Wooden Elephant, too. They rushed down the hill and pushed ing of the week. You comromise on hamburg steak and sit back to stare about you until such time as you can fall upon the food like a starved animal. And all you see is one motion, in-ssant, monotonous; the up and down of industrious jaws, chewing, chewing, chewing, some straight, others varying, wise skid, some fast, some slow, some

You feel as if you were in the midst he of a drove of cows. MAN comes in, waves buoyantly to Many in the crowd pressed forward A MAN comes in, waves buoyantly to take in the sights that are to be seen buy fickets and Balk. Sam comes in a nearby table, hangs we cannot help realizing what a silly up his hat and gives his order. He seems like a cheerý individual.

laid aslde entirely. It is a feminine sign, the women born in it being especially brilliant and ag-gressive. No. sanet didn't nave a cent. Sue had spent her last nickel buying a toy balloon. And, of course, Balky Sam, Jointed Mule and Wooden Elephant. being animals, didn't have any money. Jack and Janet felt their hearts sink. How would they get into the show?

that plan. They didn't think it was

WAY

"Why, I will be an educated mule Mix and then carefully cut and fold Janet can be our trainers. Tell the in the stiffly beaten whites of three manager what we can do and he will let us all into the side show. There we can al custard cups and stand the cups in see the freaks and wonders of the world twenty minutes in a slow oven. Looren That seemed a good plan to Jack and the souffle from the edges of the cups Janet, and with high hearts they rode with a knife and turn on a thin slice up to the door of the side-show tent to if nicely buttered toast. Serve with ask the manager to let them in.

Read Your Character

Did You Ever Notice the Cowlike Look That Settles Upon a Roomful of Eaters)

The Munching of a Hundred Jaws Makes People Stare in a Dull, Aimless Way That Is More Like a Cow.

Than a Human

WHAT a silly thing eating is after pleasant word as the waitress brings But in another minute, with the first mouthful of food, he changes his whole At home it doesn't seem so foolish there are pauses for conversation, there is quictness in the dining room. expression. Taking a vicious bite of bread, he And, besides, it is a rather necessary.

begins chewing, gravely, turning his head to gaze about the room, with never a variation of time marring the But at noontime, in a crowded, unregularity of his chewing.

homelike lunch room, did you ever re-alize how silly it is? If he had a metronome before him or You go in and find a table or a seat a table with some one else. the table he could not do better.

Tou go in and find a table or a seat it a table with some one else. Other lunchers look up at you curl-pusly over the rim of a glass of milk shovels more food in and resumes his colorless expression and his stolid, aimless staring. The meni over, he pays his check becomes a human being once more, and their forks. friend and goes out with him. discuss-ing hard times in an ordinary tone.

THERE is something about eating 1 alone in a place full of other eaters that makes you lose some of your humanness.

manness. Surrounded by a gay atmosphere, music, palms, hurrying waiters, ere-ning gowns, that's different. But in broad daylight, to the accompaniment of muffled crashes and roars from the kitchen whenever the door is opened, cating becomes just a busi

It is necessary, and the food is good; we need it and enjoy it. We seldom wonder how we look a we sit there eating, chewing and swal-ing and we don't much care. But if in our own sad-eyed gas-ing about the room, we stop and really Such a solemn expression accompanles this business, such a cowlike grav-thing eating is anyhow. Everybody hustling in. getting set with a smile always hanging around ready to be put on at a second's no-tice. In fact, he dons the smile with a

WHAT'S WHAT Adventures With By HELEN DECIE

Often in the course of conversation a person who is not a rapid talker hesi-tates a little while over a choice of the words most fit to express his thought. In such a case the listeners should not

a Purse

way, and then we can all run right into the tent." Some of you may know of it, but I am sure that there are any number of Ad-But Jack and Janet wouldn't hear to venture readers who have not yet dis-that plan. They didn't think it was covered it. In the first place, the minat plan. They didn't think it was nest. "Well, then, there is only one thing used to be an old stable years ago. Now it is painted white, with cunning little green trees in boxes to make a pleasant contrast. Do not misunderstand me "'How will we become freaks and wonders of the world?" asked Jack in fireplace. The walls are filled with lovely pictures and tiny statues and sconces. Flowers are on each of the and do counting with my foot and spell-ing with alphabet blocks," replied Balky Same. "Jointed Mule can become a glass cater, for glass will not hurt his toy stomach. Wooden Elephant can become a living pln-custon. You and Janet can be our trainers. Tell the haps, as much real atmosphere here as in any-other tea room I know of You will be pleased with its quaint charm. In such a case the listeners should walt evince any impatience, but should walt evince any impatience, but should walt evince any impatience, but should walt a while to give him time to finish what he has to say. Sometimes, it is true, the speaker may have forgotten the word or the name he wishes to utter, and then it is "up to him" to look for assistance in the re-froshing of his memory. If he waits too long, it is clear that he has had a tapse of brocade satin and it is not only the style but the color that will charm you. It is not exactly a green, and then again, it is not exactly a green, and then again, it is not exactly a green, and then again, it is not exactly a blue, but a combination of the two that gives you a color not to be found among the neg-ligees in the regular shops on the beaten paths. Down the front is a plain band of soft georgette crepe in the same color

One medium sized onion, grated. Three tablespoons of finely mineed parsley. One-half oup of grated ohcese, Yolks of three eggs, ther tomato or cream sauce. Pea Pudding to do," said Balky Sam. "We will be-come freaks and wonders of the world ourselves, and get into the show that

One-half teaspoon of pepper.

The prepared macaroni.

pan of warm water and bake for and have a jolly time besides.

understand yourself thoroughly. You lie speakers, writers, editors and re-rarely lose your presence of mind or porters. Mrs. Wilson Tells Right and Wrong

Ways of Cooking Dishes Made of Eggs

Just the Least Little Mistake Will Cause a Meringue to Fall

Flat-Prune Souffle Is a Good New Dessert

are to be assured of success. Eggs have a very definite characteristic-numely. to spend most of the time there at tions or other affairs, have met a few at parties and they have met a few at parties and they never bothered to find out. I am liked among my own set. I am they thicken or coagulate at a temper-ature considerably below the bolling and never hothered to End out. I am to a noncer transmitter, the better well liked among my own set. I am tough and leathery and hard to digest, twenty-five years old, nice looking, dress well and have a fair education. I play the plano, dance, sing and am a good entertainer generally; also I have a good trade, and I am studying mechanical engineering three nights a solution of eggs beaten until they will hold their of eggs beaten until they will hold their Readers, don't think I am too self-shape and then they should be cut and folded into the mixture. Once the bearing.

Through a Woman's Eyes

The Company She Keeps The whole country has been aroused people for the excitement or whatever

The Woman's Exchange

Not Sure of Her Coloring the Editor of Womm's Paul hank you very much for giving me the sible hair which is neither blonde nor real free 2 inches in height, brown hobbed troduce you to some of the girls they tray eyes, light skin with quite a few hair and brown eyes. M. M know and persevere in the friendships you make? Call on the girls and show

Im I a blonde?

Some Developing Exercises

the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam-What are cises I could do at home to develop chest? Also how could I gain the quickly? Is almond meal better aight quickly? Is annear of scap? use for the face in place of scap? MISS HETTY to use for the face in place of soup? MINS BETTY. Before you go to hed at night take we or six deep breaths inhaling irrough the nose, holding the breath intil you can feel it filing your langs, hen exhale slowly through the mouth lways do this slowly. Then extend-ng your arms straight out in from of out draw them back still helding them traight out, as far as you can without set, but as often as you can without set, but as often as you can without set but as often as you can without set out, as far as you can without set but as often as you can show you will find your chest developing icely. The deep breathing will help you to gain weight, and if you eat a utile more of starchy, fattening food of trink as much milk as you can every any you will som gain. Unless som a harmful to your skin, the almond meal is no better for it. It is softening, but a good facial soap has the same effect.

Costumes for Two Friends the Editor of Woman's Page Dear Madam--Can you please sug

Things You'll Love to Make

For the little tot to carry his books in, take this CHILD'S SCHOOL BAG, Any velope-shaped bag will do as the foun tion. From some story book or mag-ine cut a picture that the kiddle will the cut a picture that the kiddle will ke. Glue or stitch it to the bag. Then cellae it with clear shellae. If treated this manner it will remain in good andition for months. If it should begin look shabby, remove the picture with a water, and replace with another pic-re. This makes a CHILD'E SCHOOL. a little different from LORA.

meet g rle gest to me a few Halloween costumes and how they should be made? I'm Dear Madam-I have a few questions invited to several parties and would would like to have you answer and like to have something "odd" if pos-I am eighteen years of age. Ime and space required in your inter- weight 122, height 5 feet 4 inches; deluit to be sociable. sting column to do so. I have light brown bobbed hair and greenish eyes. mair which is neither blonde nor red. Also for a girl of twenty, weight 108.

You might wear a Buster Brown suit, them little attentions like

You might wear a Buster Brown suit.
You might wear a Buster Brown suit.
What colors do you think should be becoming to me? What color would be suitable?
What color for an evening dress and of the white coat and what raterial for a wirle of eight of eight wear a lively by want to go together. Flowers or an occasional book of anoty could be be the semi-blende, but from your destinations.
It is hard to tell just where to draw the site from your destinates and fair complexion it sounds in if you are a pure blonde.
A warm shade of tan brown, gray reen, gray, red and dark blue would look well on you. A green tage to the bride idea in a window curtain costume of the from your destinated to the bride idea in a window curtain to the bride idea in a window curtain the bride idea in a window curtain to the from only of a bright red sing to the bride idea in a window curtain to the dress in the bride idea in a window curtain to the bride idea in a window curtain to the bride idea in the window curtain to the bride idea in a window curtain to the bride idea in the sole for the weat a frage of the would be bride idea in the sole for the bride idea in the sole in the bride ide bucking down at the sides like car-

ringa. The Question Corner

Today's Inquiries What arricle of which she was England declare was the present a sovereign could accept in a subject? 2. Describe a beaded bag that has a new and attractive design. In what deseptive way is a elever barometer fachloned, which will look well in the room and can be relied upon? 4. Where is the Yosemite Valley? For many of the new frocks what in the inform ordered to replace the bound girdle?

6. How is a hat that has a quaint charm fashioned?

Vesterday's Answers

In order to earn her living, a cer-tain woman in England has been engaged for forty years in the doestic occupation of shelling peas r London markets.

When one has sheets of different sizes an easy method of telling "which is which," when they are folded is to have large ones marked with a red ink "x," medium ones with a blue "x," while the nurrow ones do not have to be marked nt all.

A charmingly unusual tray has a glues top, beneath which is a col ored photograph of a quaint gar-

old-fashioned expression The under the rose" signifies "confidentially

Simple lines are found on a great number of the new evening dresses, but each one is literally covered with an elaborate beaded trimming, the same shade as the gown itself.

A countrish chiffon sleeve that is a deceiving length starts out by being a regular short sleeve, but it has a long flowing piece added onto it, which is slashed down and made to form a graceful loop, caught at the wrist by a band of the chiffon.

hing about my talents when I white of egg is beaten up the air is incorporated into the cells of the white There is one thing that may be of

of egg and thus expands and puffs it up : If the cells be stirred or beaten the vital importance, and no doubt it a tendency to stammer some whe nir cells will be disengaged from the cells of the white of egg and the egg will then become flat and in a thin, liq-I meet strangers, but after the loc is broken I am all right. Is this why I can't seem to get hold of a good pal? I have a few faults I snoke, take a and play cards fo

This e-plains why so often the cake or souffle is a failure. neringue GOOD FELLOW Careful selection of the egg-beater is moortant. The dover style, with its triple action, will quickly beat the whites of eggs for sponge cake, souffle, and so on, but it is very necessary to owers or an occasional book or box hange the method used for incorporating the air into the white of egg that be used for angel cake. This usually difficult cake soon loses s apparently temperamental habits if Is Being Used a Lot the eggs are placed on a large ment latter and then whipped until snowy white with a wire spoon.

Puffy Omelet

Separate four eggs into two separate nowls. Add to the yolks of eggs

Tire tablespoons of water. One-half teaspoon of salt, One - quarter teaspoon of white nenner.

Heat to blend thoroughly and then this the whites of eggs until they ill hold the shape of the egg beater Remove the beater and cut and fold in the orecared yolks. Melt two table-spoons of butter in a skillet and, when moking hot, turn in the ome'et and place in a moderate oven. When firm on op, fold and roll and then turn on a hot platter.

Place in a saucepan One and one-half cups of milk, Seven level tablespoons of flour. Stir to dissolve and then bring to holl, Cook slowly for five minutes and then remove from the fire and add One-half cup of grated cheese,

One teaspoon of salt, One-half teaspoon of paprika. One traspoon of grated onion, Yolks of three eggs.

Best hard to mix thoroughly and then let cool. Then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs. Turn in well-buttered baking dish. Set in a pan of warm water and bake in a slow oven for twenty-five minutes. Finely mineed chicken, rubbed through a sieve, may be used for chicken souffle.

The sweet Spanish omelet or souffle is an old-time favorite dessert. Rub sufficient cooked prunes through a sieve to measure one cup of pulp. Place in a stucepan

the high comb. Rub sufficient cold cooked macaroni The destiny of those blue ribbons is through a sieve to measure two cups. ixed in the above model by the demands | Make a cup of cream sauce by placing f a frock of mehid taffeta. They are In a saucepan

Five tablespoons of flout. Stir to dissolve and then bring to a lace forming the panel and the filling Stir to dissolve and then bring to a in the V of the bodice. The half boil and cook for five minutes. Now wreaths of leaves and flowers are a new add

Wash and soak dried peas overnight and in the morning cook until tender. Drain and save the water drained from the peas. Rub the peas through a sieve Hair on th and then measure and place in a mixing [woo

Two cups of prepared pens. One cup of thick cream sauce.

One tenspoon of salt. One-half teaspoon of white pepper. Three tablespoons of melted butter, pudding in larger one containing hot Hairy hands and arms do indicate water. Place in a moderate oven and bake for forty minutes. Serve with strength. Primarily they indicate bake for forty minutes. Serve with strength. Primarily they indicate either tomato or hollandaise sauce. This vitality, a vigorous, well-balanced conpudding can be sliced cold and served with mayonnaise dressing. Left over pera pudding may be molded into into oftener than not such vitality does haprequettes or entiets and dipped in pen to be accompanied by muscular leaten egg and cracker crumbs and strength. It is natural that the one beaten egg and cracker crumbs and then fried until a golden brown in should follow the other, moking bot fat. These unusual dishes are splendid and will add variety to the menu. But the narry nand is not the nand companied by a remarkably strong will, But the hairy hand is not the hand for it indicates more than a usual de-sire for the good things of life, more than the usual ability to appreciate luxuries and sensuous impression; that Mrs. Wilson's Answers Dear Mrs. Wilson-Will you kindly give a good recipe for iced tea? And is it proper to serve cake with it? E. M. Z.

Big Loaf 6°

At all our Stores

TORES CO.

is, the ability to appreciate life in a well balanced and keen manner through all five of the senses. -Tomorrow-Celestial Noses

By Digby Phillips growth with men than with women, more than on a woman. There is a popular impression that hair on the hand and arm indicates strength. And as has been noted in the Two well-beaten eggs. One cup of fine bread crumbs. Mix and then turn into well-buttered conf-shaped pan and set the pan with plete without one. They come in a num-ber of colors, but each color is some-have come down to $22.50. The shop-keeper tells me it is almost impossible to keep them.

For names of shops address Woman's Page Editor or phone Walaut 3000 or Main 1601 that in emptied. The Reward of Justice Thirty years of giving just value in tea has gained for

The Largest Sale in America

Stalls 800 to 812 Reading Terminal Market 12th, Arch to Filbert Street

By CORINNE LOWE

Hair on the hands and arms is, of course, more natural and of heavier growth with men than with women, and in attributing to the individual the Two cups of prepared pens. One cup of thick cream source. Use sauce prepared as for macaroni from peas in place of the milk. Two tablespoons of grated onion. Three tablespoons of finely minced parsley. ordinarily. A while ago these negligees sold for something like $50, but they pears to need a little polite assistance

The Carpet Sweeper

Once a week, or oftener if necessary the box of a carpet sweeper should be opened over dampened newspaper, the dirt emptied out and hair and lint cleaned from the brushes with a button hook, coarse comb or old scissors. The mechanism should be kept properly oiled. A vacuum cleaner should be looked after in the same way, except that in addition the bag should be

Make the tea very strong and let stand for ten minutes after making. Cheese Souffle then drain free from the leaves and set aside to cool. Fill tall, thin glass with rushed ice and then put in the pre-pared ten. Serve powdered sugar and slive of lemon with it. Use a good grade of ten. Yes, you may serve cake or crackers with level tea. Lemon Beat hard to mix thoroughly and then One of Eight Flavors Prune Souffle Big brown loaves of crisp goodness Three-quarters of a cup of strained Victor