

HER SCORE WAS 95. Miss Edith Leitch, sister of British golf champion, got an erratic 53 on way home in Berthelyn Cup tournament. L. P. S.

WELL UP ON THE LIST. Miss Mildred Caverly (left), the Philadelphian, finished in 88, while Miss Glenna Collett, of Providence, turned in a card of 92. Ledger Photo Service

CECIL LEITCH, British, French and Canadian woman's golf champion, had low score at the Huntingdon Valley classic. L. P. S.

WRECKERS AT WORK. Everybody in sight took a hand in getting street car lines clear at Fifty-second street and Lancaster avenue, when the truck owned by William Weeks, 2319 Amber street, skidded and turned over. S. P. S.

BACK HOME. Senator Knox was a passenger on the steamship Celtic returning from Europe. Ledger Photo Service

GETTING MANY VOTES. Virginia people are voting this week to pick a Queen for the historical pageant, which will be held in 1922. Miss Marion Spragins, South Boston, Va. (left), and Miss Eleanor Houston, of Richmond, are candidates. The voting will end on Saturday. Ledger Photo Service

BOOTING THE BALL. Day of the Penn football squad, was snapped on Franklin Field during practice yesterday afternoon. He put much power in the kick. L. P. S.

TEACHING EFFECTIVE BLOCKING. One of the many practice scenes on Franklin Field as Penn gets ready for the battle against the Swarthmore eleven on Saturday. Ledger Photo Service

EDWARD J. BASSALI, talks on boosting Philadelphia in an Editor at Page interview. Phillips Photo

VISIT GAS WORKS. Councilmen Von Taren and Cox accompanied the councilmanic delegation to Point Breeze yesterday. They're studying gas. Ledger Photo Service

ALL IN AID OF HOSPITAL. Miss Jen Latona, well-known British netress, did "kick-off" act when British teams played football to help a London hospital. S. P. S.

SAW THE YANKEES WIN. "Dick" Croker, once known as the big chief of the Tammany political wigwag in New York, with his wife, at the New York Polo Grounds. Underwood & Underwood

LOOKS LIKE A CLOSE MATCH. But it's just a practice game staged by the girls of the Frank University gymnasium as they prepare for their first hockey game. They are doing their practice work at the Kingsessing Recreation Club. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

PAUL GOLDSTEIN, 3135 North Marston street, cutting material for sweaters. An electric cutter is used in doing the work. Material for twenty dozen is cut daily at the mill of the Quaker City Sweater Company, Fifteenth and Wallace streets. Ledger Photo Service

ST. HOLYOKE FOUNDER'S DAY. President M. Carey Thomas, of Bryn Mawr College (center), leading the academic procession during the celebration at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass. Underwood & Underwood

ELIZABETH AND OSCAR, children of Countess Da Conturbia. She came from Italy to fight the will of her mother, Mrs. Alice G. Griswold. A. F. S.

MRS. R. F. LEWIS, of Lansdowne, with "Sun Beam" at the dog show at Danbury, Conn. Photograph