Nancy Wynne Tells the Correct Dates for Miss Graham's Dance and Tea—She Sees a Smart Costume. Predicts Busy Day Tomorrow

YOU know there have been so many different dates mentioned for Gertrude Graham's coming out I don't think it would be a bad plan for me to get them straightened out for you. The tea which Dr. and Mrs. Graham will give to introduce Gertrude will be held on November 21, and a dance will be given for her on October 28. I don't know why it was or is, but I had been told by several of the girls that the Graham tea was scheduled for October 23, and then that it was not so. I met Mrs. Graham the other day and asked her to make it all clear.

Gertrude is a sister of Lorraine Graham, who, you remember, was a favorite here and who was married last year and lives out in Milwaukee. I hope Lorraine will get on for the tea, for she is sweet and attractive and every one loves to see her. It's funny how things do get mixed, but often a party is planned and then, when it is found that it conflicts with other things, it is changed. For instance, the Ledyard Heckscher and planned a dinner for Virginia on Tuesday night, but it was called off because Sophie Yarnall decided on that night for a dinner for her bridesmaids, and Virginia is to be one at the wedding today, you know.

YOU know there's the Porter tea this afternoon out at Chestnut Hill, when Kitty Porter will be presented by her parents, the Charles Porters. Kitty's name is Katherine Danton Porter, and, of course, she is related to the Dantons, as you have learned from her middle name. She has always been one of the most popular girls in Chestnut Hill, and she is having a splendid time as a debutante. Kitty is quite tall and very athletic, is quite a tennis player and is fond of hockey. She has beautiful light golden curly hair, and the curls are real ones, too; no necessity for marcelling with her hair, it has the most exquisite rippling waves already there. The Porters were absent most of the summer, so I am sure Kitty will have a French frock this afternoon.

SOPHIE YARNALL, whose marriage takes place today, has been having a busy time of it all this week. I got a glimpse of her the other day driving her car, and she certainly looked attractive. She was wearing a light blue suit, of a tweed material. Her hat was trimmed with a light blue ostrich feather, which matched the suit.

I HEAR that the Reed Morgans and their daughter Libby are coming home very soon after having spent the summer traveling in Europe. Libby will come out next year, together with a number of other girls who graduated last spring from Springside, but who are a bit younger than those who decided to come out this year. Martin George is one of those who is making her debut this year, and Amelle Selas is another. Anna Newbold, too, and Nancy Stoughton and several others.

TOMORROW we have Hannah Wright's marriage to Unton Sullivan at the cathedral at 12:30 o'clock, and Virginia Hooker will be introduced at a tea given by her parents.

A Bride Today

MISS SOPHIA YARNALL

WEDS MR. R. JACOBS

Marriage Takes Place at Church of Redeemer, Bryn Mawr

The wedding of Miss Anna Sophia Yarnall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Yarnall, of Seventeenth and Locust streets and Crum Creek Farms, Devon, and Mr. Reginald Jacobs, son of Mr. Henry Albert Jacobs, formerly of Buenos Aires, South America, took place today at 12:30 o'clock at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr. The Rev. George Pomroy Allen, rector of St. Mary's Church, Ardmore, officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin made with a court train. Her veil was edged with rose point lace and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids. She was attended by Mrs. Arthur Erkin Newbold, Jr., as matron of honor, who wore a gown of French blue canton crepe and a large ostrich feather shawl, and the bridesmaid, who was dressed the same as Mrs. Newbold. The bridesmaids were dressed alike in an orchid shade of canton crepe gowns and large purple velvet hats. They all carried orchid bouquets.

The bridegroom included Mrs. Alexander Cox, Yarnall, Miss Lorraine Danton, Miss Virginia Heckscher, Miss Sarah Barringer, Miss Gertrude Olmsted, of Harrisburg; Miss Cornelia Keeble, of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Emily Kimbrough, of Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. Jacobs will be formally presented to society at a tea, to be given by her parents on Friday afternoon, November 25. Mrs. Samuel McGeorge Wright, of 1203 Walnut street, and her daughter, Miss Hannah Chapman Wright, returned last evening from a visit to New York. The wedding of Miss Wright and Mr. Epton Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah J. Sullivan, of 1910 Walnut street, will be solemnized tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock in the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul.

The marriage of Mrs. Herschel Litchfield, of New York, and formerly of Camden, and Dr. L. Biddle Duffield, of this city, took place at the Ritz-Carlton on Monday evening. After a wedding reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, 1812 Pine street, early on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement T. Kircher, of 1328 West Allegheny avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Anna Kircher, to Mr. Warren Hirst Davis, son of Mrs. Frederick Palmerman, of 1101 West Lehigh avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Norton, of Bryn Mawr, accompanied by Miss Anna J. Foulke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Foulke, of 243 West Tullock street, Germantown, will leave next week for a several weeks' stay at Virginia Hot Springs.

Miss Helen Valmorin Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Mitchell, of 415 Chestnut street, will be introduced to society at a tea on Wednesday afternoon, November 18, as has been announced, but will be formally presented at a dance to be given by her parents at the Ritz-Carlton on Friday evening, November 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Battles and their daughter, Miss Elizabeth B. Battles, and their sons, Mr. William W. Battles and Mr. Winthrop Battles, who have been spending several months at their country place at Newtown Square, Pa., will return to their town house, 267 South
