

Band at 9; Organ at 11
and 4:45
Chimes at Noon

WANAMAKER'S

Store Opens at 9

WANAMAKER'S

Store Closes at 5

WANAMAKER'S

Weather
Fair

And Now to Get Outfitted for the Frosty Days Already Here

Chiseled on the Stone of Oliver Goldsmith's Monument
in Latin are the words:

"He touched nothing that he did not adorn."

May the winds and weather play gently upon the stone honored to bear these golden words, that they may be read and remembered through countless generations.

What more on earth can any human being ask for?

[Signed]

John Wanamaker

October 14, 1921.

The Littlest Fur Scarf Should Be Beyond Criticism

It will be, if purchased here. No fur scarf in our cases is too small or little-priced to be the best of its kind. From $22.50 to $50 and thereabouts we have beautiful little scarfs of brown mink, stone marten, baum marten or the darker Japanese marten. Hudson Bay sable scarfs start at $45. And from that one may choose at various prices up to a handsome Russian sable scarf at $600. The same exquisite care goes into the selection of each.

(Second Floor)

Velvet and Ostrich Are Picturesque Comrades in Millinery

In the Millinery Salons tomorrow will be found particularly good velvet hats of a becoming medium-size shape, trimmed with soft ostrich feathers. Others, equally effective, have lovely soft-colored silk and velvet flowers massed against their velvet crowns. Still others are picturesquely draped with lace.
These new velvet hats are in black, navy, taupe, nut brown, French blue or the fuchsia purple shades. They are specially priced at $15.
For young girls are shown some charming new duvetyne
hats, variously trimmed, and priced $10 and less.

(Second Floor)

A New Black Chiffon Velvet of the Handsomest Kind

The maker of this velvet calls it "wedding ring velvet," for it is so soft and fine, every thread of it being silk, that it can be passed through an ordinary-sized wedding ring.

We are proud to say this is an American-made velvet and that even France hasn't produced anything finer.

It is a wonderful quality for handsome day or evening gowns or for wraps or mantles. It is 40 inches wide and $10 a yard.

(First Floor)

Paris Holds Strongly to Jet Fringe for Trimming

We sent to Paris itself for the finest black jet fringes to be had,
the exact duplicates of those used in the French model gowns, and they are here now and ready for women to make their selection.
We dare venture to say that there is no such collection of jet fringes anywhere else.

From a tiny baby fringe three-quarters of an inch wide at $1
a yard up to a gorgeous chenille and jet fringe 29 inches wide at $100 a yard. Besides the all-black jet, there are also jet fringes combined with sapphire blue, yellow,
red and some with steel
beads, jet and crystal.

(Main Floor)

Books for Young People

"From Tenderfoot to Golden Eaglet," by Amy E. Blanchard, $1.50.

"Ruthie," by Phyllis Duganne, $1.75.

"The Luck of Denewood," by
E. B. Knipe and A. A. Knipe, $1, $1.90.

"Animal Life in Field and Garden," by Jean Henri Fabre, $2.50.

"Conquests of Invention," by Mary R. Parkman, $2.

"Boy Hunters in Demerara,"
by George Inness Hartley, $1.75.

"When Gretel Was Fifteen,"
by Nina Rhoades, $1.75.

"Heroines of History and Legend," by Elva S. Smith, $2.

"Sailing Under Sealed Orders," by Commander Thomas
D. Barker, U. S. N., $1.75.

"Bolivar Brown," by Bido
Dudley, $1.60.

"The Book of Cowboys," by Francis Holt-Wheeler, $2.

"The Boy Scouts' Year Book," $2.50.

(Main Floor)

"Oh, for an Overcoat!"

Many a man these chilly mornings has given voice to this lament when he tried to get to his office without wearing a topcoat.

It doesn't pay to take liberties with this weather. If your old light-weight overcoat is a little the worse for wear, remember that you can get a new one at Wanamaker's for about $20 less than it would have cost last Fall.

These new coats are fine, too. Fine in fashion, in workmanship, in material.

Brand-new 1921 overcoats at $30 to $80.

(Third Floor)

Man, Think of D. & J. Anderson Madras Shirts at $3.65!

First place, who ever heard of ready-to-wear shirts made of this wonderful Scotch madras? We never did before.

Our Custom Shirt Shop has it, and if you get shirts of it
there you will pay $7.50.

This limited lot at $3.65 constitutes one of the most remarkable shirt sales in our recollection. There is a splendid range of patterns and a choice of either soft or starched cuffs. All the shirts have soft bosoms, of course.

There is no better shirting anywhere in the world than David & John Anderson madras. The man who does not take this opportunity to treat himself to a half dozen or dozen very fine shirts at this price will miss a lot.

(Main Floor)

Fresh Lot of Those Great 65c Neckties for Men

We are selling them for 65c, but they are not really 65c ties, and every man who sees them knows it. He recognizes at a glance that under ordinary circumstances they would be from at least a half more to two or three times this price, and when he picks them up and feels the quality of the silk he is certain of it.

Made of a good manufacturer's short ends of higher-priced neckwear silks and in a variety of beautiful striped and figured designs.

(Main Floor)

Men's $5 Soft Hats That Set a Standard

Quality in a man's hat does not always show on the surface, but it surely shows in the wear.

There may be other soft hats at this price that have as good material and workmanship in them, but we haven't seen them.

And you can see at a glance what style these have.
A new shape for men who need hats of more generous proportions makes the assortment complete.

(Main Floor)

A Little Sale of Men's Half Hose

Everything a man wants, from mercerized cotton to silk, and all at good savings. A few "seconds," but mostly first-grade goods.

25c a pair for black and colored mercerized cotton.

25c a pair for black and colored seamless silk, "seconds."

50c a pair for full-fashioned colored silk, "seconds."

50c a pair for black wool-and-cotton mixed.

50c a pair for striped silk and black-and-white mixed silk plated, with stripes.

75c a pair for black silk plated.

$1.25 a pair for black-and-white and brown-and-white mixed silk plated, with checks.

$2.15 a pair for heather-colored silk and wool mixed, with checks.

(Main Floor)

Two Good New Shoes All Men Will Like

Good looking enough to appeal to young men and plain enough for conservative men.

Made on an English last in straight-lace style, with plain tips, heavy single soles and flat heels. Shapely, but not narrow in the toe, and both high shoes, of course.

In black calfskin, $8.50; tan calfskin, $9.

(Main Floor)

Young Women's Dresses of Beaded Canton Crepe, Velvet and Tricotine, Special at $25

About fifty fine Canton crepe gowns in 14 to 20 year sizes are specially priced at $25 for tomorrow. They are "sample" gowns and worth very much more. They are one-of-a-kind models, all handsomely beaded or hand embroidered, and represent extraordinary value.

Dresses of imported velvet in brown or navy blue, and of fine quality blue tricotine, made to our order in youthful models with every detail correct, are also $25. These all represent unusual value.

The Prettiest Fur-Collared Coat for Girls at $28.50

It is a greenish-blue (something like the new artichoke blue) worsted of soft, thick quality, nicely made, well lined and topped by a great collar of raccoon fur or Australian opossum. We have never seen a better coat for girls of 6 to 14 years for $28.50.

Other coats for girls of the same ages start at $11.50 for a good brown woolen coat, thick and warm and well made, and lined throughout. Beaverette-collared coats are $14.50. Good chinchilla coats in brown or navy are $18.50. From that the prices go gradually up to the most luxurious fur-collared garments of fine silk bolivia and velour and duvetyne at $78, $98 and $110.

(Second Floor)

Frolaset Corsets —Front Lace

The two latest models to arrive are—one of figured batiste which is designed for the average figure and is topless with an elastic
all around it, and one of pink broche heavily boned and daintily trimmed with ribbon and fringed braids. The first is $4 and the second $11.

(Third Floor)

Bright Colored Lingerie From Paris

Naturally the French would sooner or later have a reaction from their favored and always exquisite black and white! But vivid though the colors—rose and salmon besides the familiar flesh
—are, the garments remain exquisite and refined with their hand-done drawwork and their narrow edges of real Valenciennes.

They come in sets but the garments will also be sold separately.
Chemises, $5.50.
Drawers, $6.
Nightgowns, $9.50.

(Third Floor)

Concerning Breakfast Coats

Corduroy coats which are cozy itself, with their large collars and pockets, their linings and their gay colors—rose, cherry,
navy, light blue and lavender.
Price, $6.75.

And satin breakfast coats—
one style at $7.85 may be had in Copenhagen and light blues besides pink; and another at $8.75
may be had in both changeable and solid colors. These also have two pockets.

(Third Floor)

Fluffy Silk Chemises

Crepe de chine envelope chemises in a pretty shade of pink and with a great deal of lace
and net and other ornamentation.
$2.25, $3.50, $3.85, $5, $7.50 and $9.50.

Flesh-color satin trimmed
with lace, $3.85 and $5.

(Third Floor)

Women's Plaid Skirts Specials, $8.75

In the prettiest all-wool worsted, very fine and soft and the style is a good sports model, plain in the front with two all pockets
and a slightly gathered back.

They are in the two best color combinations of the season—tan-
and-blue and tan-and-brown.

(First Floor)

100 Fur-Trimmed Suits for Women Special at $27.50

To buy these suits for $27.50 is exactly like putting $11 in your pocket, for their valuation is that much more.

The material is a smooth wool velour, in navy, French blue or black. The jaunty coat swings free from the shoulders, giving a loose ripple-back effect. It is effectively braided in black, has bell-shaped sleeves, and is topped by a snug-buttoning collar of beaverette fur.
The lining is figured satin. The skirt is a good cut, with two pockets.

Women who wish a rather dressy looking suit at small cost will find these entirely satisfactory.

A Dress With a Cape, Special at $18.75

A one-piece tailored dress of good, simple lines,
very well made, with a completely enveloping hip-length cape to match. The material is a wool suiting in heather mixtures, oxford gray or green-and-blue.
$18.75 is, of course, a lower-than-usual price.

(First Floor)

Smartly Tailored Fine Flannel Dresses at $18.75

Extremely well-tailored dresses of fine lightweight flannel in beautiful shades of gray, taupe and beige, with grosgrain ribbon bindings to match.
They have the new armhole and shoulder effects,
three-quarter sleeves, and an effective collar.

(First Floor)

French Beaded Blouses Again at $15

And this is just about half what these pretty blouses would cost under different circumstances.

They are in crepe de chine or Georgette crepe, elaborately beaded in steel beads and made in slip-over style to be worn outside the skirt. The sleeves are short.

There are practically all the good shades to go with the tailored suit or with a separate skirt if one wishes.

(Third Floor)

Necklaces Gay and Graceful

Red bead necklaces of ever so many kinds and at very little prices—50c, 75c, $1, $1.25 and $1.50.

Novelty bead necklaces—imitation jade, amber, sapphire, lapis lazuli and rose quartz, usually with metal ornaments, $1 to $14.

(Main Floor)

Fine Novelty Velvet First Time, $1.50 a Yard

They were about four times this price last season! They are a beautiful quality of velvet with self-colored stripes, plaid or a wavy checked design and they are very desirable for dresses, children's coats or women's wraps.

(First Floor)

Some Extra Good Values in Women's and Children's Shoes

Women's sturdy black calfskin oxfords with substantial soles, straight tip and military heels, of exceptionally good quality for $8. The same shoe in tan calf for $8.75.

Norwegian grained tan calfskin brogue oxfords with long wing tip and broader military heel, $9.75.

Children's Tan Shoes

Splendid durable tan calfskin high-laced shoes, providing every variety of weight, from flexible turned soles to stonest welted soles, and from spring heels to the low broad lea growing girl wears.

Sizes 8½ to 11, $4.50 to $6.75.

Sizes 11½ to 2, $5.50 to $7.75.

Sizes 2½ to 7, $8.50 to $10.50.

(First Floor)

EMBROIDERED edges for collars and cuffs are of the daintiest St. Gall work—some on ecru batiste, and the others on white or- gandie. The first are 4½ to 14 inches wide and 35c to $4.50 a yard; and the sec- ond are six and eight inches wide and 50c to $2.50 a yard.

(First Floor)

Paris Sends New Baby Frocks

Fine little white dresses of nainsook or batiste, made entirely by hand, and beautifully hand-embroidered. Surprisingly fine and dainty for $4.50 to $7.50.

Both long and short, from the first baby dress up to two years.

(Third Floor)

Beautiful Fabric Hand- bags Between $3 and $5

Duvetyne and chiffon velvets in beaver, brown, taupe, gray, navy and black are the materials used and the bags are in many shapes and sizes. Frames of shell finish and fancy celluloid, metal, covered and some extension style.

One style has a patent leather flap over the top and silk cord handles.

An uncommonly good-looking and desirable lot of handbags at such moderate prices.

(Main Floor)

Pogo Sports in the Toy Store

Pogo is the new sport so much in vogue in London and Paris.
It is played with bouncing sticks,
or, as some one has called them,
"jumping stilts," and it is delightfully funny.

Tomorrow there will be Pogo
contests of various amusing kinds in the Toy Store, to be followed by a Pogo soccer match
at 2:30.

Come in and bring the children along and enjoy the fun.

(Seventh Floor)

Some All-Wool Blankets of Wonderful Service Quality

We brought over a little lot of these blankets from England, where they were woven in the good, old homespun effect, from pure wool.

They are old-fashioned looking,
but for wear and long service
they can hardly be beaten.

They are white blankets, bordered or striped all around in dark blue, almost black.
Also they are of extra heavy weight, made 2¼ yards square and specially priced at $18 a pair.

(Sixth Floor)

Nut Candies for the Week-End

Nothing better to eat with apples and toasted marshmallows
around an open fire these crisp
October nights.

Walnut pillows, 60c a pound.

Crisp assorted nut candies—
pecan, almond, walnut and Brazil
nuts, $1 a pound.

(Down Stairs Store)

Tables for Games

They are light in weight and mahogany finished, with metal corners, and their tops are covered with green felt or leatherette, the first being $1.25 and the second $4.50. Those at the first price have a single brace on each leg
and those at $4.50 have a double brace.

Oil-cloth covers for game tables
are $1.50 each.

(Fourth Floor)

These Are the Suits and Overcoats for the Boys

And tomorrow is the day to choose them.

Better fabrics, better fashions, better tailoring, and much lower prices than for years past—that is the story of the entire stock.

Norfolk suits, single and double breasted, in every shade, pattern and weave that any boy can wish for—$16.50 to $38.

Suits with two pair of trousers are shown in excellent choice at $16.50 to $28.

Overcoats in single and double breasted models, some with raglan sleeves, some with plain sleeves, some belted, some half-belted; all built for warmth, style and comfort—$25 to $45, in sizes for boys of 11 to 18 years.

In sizes for boys of 3 to 10 years at $20 to $38.

(Second Floor)