Business Depression May Be On, but Hard Times Are Not Noticeable at Weekly Football Games of Collegiate and Independent Teams

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL
Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

THESE are hard times in the business world, but looking at it from the sporting standpoint, conditions are better now than ever before. The World Series drew the largest attendance in history, and also the largest gate; but that was a striking attraction that comes but once a year. However, sports are being watched in great numbers and are enjoying financial success in many instances are unable to take care of the rush. This is particularly true in football in this city.

The University of Pennsylvania has played to the biggest early season crowds ever to turn out at Franklin Field, and the Quakers have one of the weakest schedules in history as far as late September and early October games are concerned. The largest crowd that has been seen at Franklin Field in many instances are unable to take care of the rush. This is particularly true in football in this city.

STATE OPPOSES LEIGH

For the first time this season, two college football games will be put on today for the Philadelphia fans. The big one, of course, will be the engagement between Penn and Swarthmore at Franklin Field. Out at the Strawberry & Cornish Field, Drexel Institute will open its season against Juniata.

Swarthmore is figured to give Penn a terrific battle. The odds, of course, favor the Red and Blue, but the Garnet has a cracklerjack team this season and is likely to surprise Heisman. Juniata is being given a double chance to lose and therefore to form a gather another.

University coming to Harvard with a strong football team. We have a little later on George Tech coming to meet Penn State with another powerful machine.

Then, for golf, there are Alca Stirling and Bobby Jones, two of the most remarkable gifts to the ancient game.

Not to forget one Tyrus Harnold Cobb, among others, for a baseball player.

Nor Bobby Walthour, Jr., champion amateur cyclist of the world.

For all-around value, the sports record has nothing like the population of New York, Pennsylvania or Illinois.

R. H. PRATT—At the end of the first week in October George Duane had averaged a faint over even in his stay in America, so Mr. E. P. Thomas loses by something like a brace short puts.

THERE is a tip out that the Tiger will be much obliged to get safely over a wire to the coast of Princeton with no part of any over-incident attitude about this game, that may easily be the hardest game schedule. The advantage still rests with Princeton; the margin is entirely too thin for Nassau to counter with the idea of holding an unbeaten record at the end of the year.

GERMANY SCHULZ, Page Hefflinger and Truxton. Here would be considered the three greatest of all time at center and guards. But looking at the two greatest tackles has the expert number of various clubs, Henry of Washington and Jefferson, Hildebrand of Princeton; Hogan, of Yale; Cornell, Michigan; Catts, of Harvard, are all among the many mentioned, but the superior talent is not outstanding. Great tackles have been fairly abundant, but Hefflinger has been extremely scarce.

Young offers the names of Tim Schuster, Rogers Hornsby and Ross Young as being the best in the world. Individual State, River, and possessing true merit will be given prominent consideration.

SCHOOL FAVORITES WIN ON GRIDIRON

West Philly, Penn Charter and St. Luke's Are Victorious in League Contests

KAUFMAN AND WALKER STAR

By PAUL PREP

West Philadelphia High, Penn Charter and St. Luke's School, favorites, came through with victories in their grid battles yesterday. West Philly, by virtue of its win over Germantown High, tied Franklin High for the lead in the Intercollegiate League race.

Penn Charter and St. Luke's by winning out in a four-way tie for first place in the Intercollegiate League.

West Philly came from behind, showed wonderful fighting spirit and won out in a hard-fought game from the Clivedon 12 to 6.

Germantown got the jump on the Speedboys when Johnny Kaufman, all-round star of the Green and White institution, threw a beautiful pass from the 33-yard line in the opening period.

The Westerners came right back in the next period, however. After a series of line plays, followed a forward pass, Captain Jeffcott to Commeyon, put West Philly in the lead. Jeffcott failed to boot the goal.

The Clivedon tied it up in the fourth period when Kaufman again threw a goal from field; this time from the 15-yard chalk mark.

West Philly came back strong once more in the final period with a game on a series of forward passes and the plunging. The touchdown again came from a forward pass, the same way. Jeffcott and Commeyon, being injured in the play.

Haverford Starts Well

Haverford School threw a scare into the Penn Charter camp in the first period. After receiving the kickoff on their own 20-yard line, the Main Liners started a steady march down the field, which resulted in their only score of the game.

In the parade Bender, the big back, carried the ball often and was also the one to carry the oval on its final lap.

However, Dick Merritt's progress stiffened in the latter part of the period and started a new attack on their opponents. They started with an aerial attack which took the Main Liners by surprise and gave the Quakers a touchdown. Captain Stazell scored the first touchdown when he received a beautiful pass from Walker and ran 15 yards to the goal line.

They kept up their brilliant work in the second period and again failed. In the final period Haverford made a great effort to tie the score, taking the lead in the Quakers' 5-yard line, only to have the referee blow his whistle, ending the game.

Martinez Stars

Martinez, the big fullback of the St. Luke's, played the leading role in his team's 19-7 win over Germantown Academy. Martinez figured in almost every play that was made in the game. He scored three touchdowns and also kicked one of the goals after touchdowns.

The nendley boys were powerless to gain against the new St. Luke's line. They were barely fullback of the line. In the last quarter, however, Henkle, receiving a forward pass from Egan, raced 25 yards for their only score.

Time was up at this point, but Daposs was allowed to kick the goal.

Fumbles cost Catholic High their only chance against Racine High, the suburbanites when Coach Greco's protégés and held Racine for downs within their own 5-yard mark on the next plays.

Vince fumbled the ball. The two errors were turned into scores. Sheehan, the Racine fullback, carrying the ball over twice. He was the leading ground-gainer of the day, and scored three extra points by kicking the goals after touchdowns.

Haddonfield Surprises

Germanman Friends' 40-0 victory over the Haddonfield High came as a big surprise to the Jerseysites. In former years Haddonfield has played great eleyons on the gridiron. The two touchdowns were turned into scores. Sheehan, the Racine fullback, carrying the ball over twice. He was the leading ground-gainer of the day, and scored three extra points by kicking the goals after touchdowns.
