

SOME GIRL—SOME DOG. Miss Dorothy Sibley won first prize in a California beauty contest. She also won the dog, which was raffled off during the carnival. Underwood & Underwood

DISTRIBUTING SEED TO THE NEEDY. Members of the American Relief Administration at Kazan, Russia, where they are delivering seeds to the land tillers. Americans superintending unloading from cars. I. P. S.

TESTING FOR BLINDNESS. Dr. William Lee, at Thirtieth and Shunk streets, where several hundred horses are being examined before purchase by city. Ledger Photo Service

SHE'LL BE HERE SOON. Miss K. Liddersdale, England's brilliant center forward, is a member of hockey team which will play Philadelphia and Bryn Mawr girls. Photo Atlas

PHILADELPHIA HOCKEY PLAYERS. Miss G. Hearne (left) and Miss Betty Wiener, members of the team picked to battle with the British team which is to arrive here next week. L. P. S.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD GIRLS AT PLAY. At the right is Miss Anita Mason, captain of the Auditor of Revenue basketball team. Miss Marion Haws has just made a try for the basket. Ledger Photo Service

TWO COACHES. Rafferty, of the Washington and Lee eleven, had his men on Franklin Field yesterday. Weisman, of Penn., is with him. Ledger Photo Service

JOHN F. BRAUN talks on American art in an Editorial Page interview. PENN'S MASCOT. Francis Hutchins, important factor in football organization. I. P. S.

WHAT THEY DID FOR RADCLIFFE. The house painter is Miss Janet Webster, of Canada; the hiking expert, Miss Dickie Trask, of Panama, and the reader of the stars, Miss Manik Kosambi, of India.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

JOHN GOWER, 110 South Fifth street, Darby, spraying and enameling doll heads, in the factory of the Quaker Doll Company, 155 North Sixth street. Ledger Photo Service

A WINNING JUMP. Ned Gourdin, the Harvard star, was caught flying through the air in a broad jump, at Travis Island. C. N. P. JESSE S. COTTRELL, of Tennessee, has been appointed Minister to Bolivia by President Harding. Central News Photo IN VIRGINIA. Mrs. E. Clarence Jones, of New York and Palm Beach, is spending these fall days at Hot Springs. C. N. P.

OLYMPIC PASSENGERS. Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, of New York and Washington (left), and Miss Katherine Mackay. They have been in Europe for several months. C. N. P.

BACK FROM SWEDEN. Mrs. William Colvin, wife of Major Colvin, American military attaché at Stockholm, has returned with their two children. Central News Photo

SCHOOLBOYS AT IT. Scholastic football had a large program yesterday, when many of the Philadelphia and nearby schoolboys got in action. The photographer snapped a play in the game between Central High and Lower Merion. The local football players were in possession of the ball at the time. Central won. Ledger Photo Service