We hear your stenographer got married. And she was such a good girl, too! But there are others—skilled, intelligent, experienced girls—not out of a job through inefficiency, but solely because of business conditions. You understand that. Before another day passes we can place in the hands of A MILLION READERS of the Public Ledger and Evening Public Ledger your little tale of woe, and it will doubtless prove a godsend to some worthy girl with, perhaps, a dependent mother. You know the kind of homes into which these newspapers go. They find a welcome in YOUR home, don't they? Phone your message to our Classified Advertising Department and let us set it before OUR MILLION readers (average of four readers to a paper). Maybe the postman on your route won't wonder what's happened. We will mail the bill later. Bell—Walnut 3000 Keystone—Main 1601
