Autumn Furniture Savings That Are a Revelation

I Chiefly because the downward revision in the cost of raw materials and manufacture since Autumn, a year ago, has been extraordinary. Nowhere will you find greater evidence of this economical turn in Furniture prices than at the Van Sciver Store.

I Today these values, as new and inviting as the Furniture itself, are spread out before you in spacious galleries filled with thousands of Suites and Pieces. Furniture that is the embodiment of art and skill-from the plainest and most inexpensive styles to the richest and most exquisite Period designs that ever graced a home. A Furniture offering in which the long deferred hope of thousands is being realized in the new market.

I Another thing. With the improving trade conditions, many manufacturers believe Furniture prices have struck bottom, and will again turn upward. In consequence hundreds of customers are taking the precaution to buy now, deeming this the hour of opportunity-and this Store the logical place to make their purchases.

A handsome Queen Anne Walnut Dining Room Suite. Its pleasing proportions, its dignity, the dainty decorations on the Buffet front, the fret work on the China Closet, all add a charm that is emphasized by the careful construction of each piece. A fine Suite and a great value. Ten Pieces, $250.00. Pieces sold separately if desired.
