Nancy Wynne Receives Letters Telling of Lack of Manners Among the Young People—Current Events Talks to Be Given in the Foyer of the Academy

EVIDENTLY a number of mothers read of the woman from out of town who had told of some of our girls' bad manners...

IT'S this matter of answering invitations and, after having answered them, remembering them...

There was one dinner given last week at which the hostess waited for half an hour after every one else had arrived...

ANOTHER letter told me that invitations had been issued by the writer a short time ago for dinner...

Can you imagine the state of mind of a hostess left till the last minute to know whether those invited were coming or not...

One hostess I heard of did a splendid thing last year in inviting among others, a young man her daughter knew very well...

The time to answer an invitation is the day you receive it, and the time to make a note of the engagement on your calendar is the time you answer the invitation...

DID you ever hear anything as popular as the Foyer of the Academy for entertainments this year?

THE marriage of Miss Anne Spencer, daughter of Mrs. Graham Spencer of Philadelphia, to Mr. Louis Edward Shaw, formerly of Boston and now of New York...

THE marriage of Miss Sara Scanlon, of 1915 Green street, and Mr. Frank S. Friel, of 1749 Wallace street...

THE marriage of Miss Rose Stomp, of 243 South Seventeenth street, to Mr. Joseph O'Hara...

THE marriage of Miss Elizabeth Chambers, of 1733 Johnson street, to Mr. Clarence Pratt, of King of Prussia...

THE marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hooper, of 263 South Seventeenth street, to Mr. Maurice Snyder...
