

THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL HOCKEY MATCH. English invaders, who arrived in this city on Sunday, went into action against the Philadelphia-1920 girls' hockey team at the Germantown Cricket Club. Miss Mary McMahon, a Philadelphian, is shown taking the ball down the field. Miss Scarlett is following her. The Philadelphian at the right is Mrs. F. Bryson. Ledger Photo Service

IT'S PEGGY O'NEILL. She is sailing from New York to London. Underwood & Underwood

SCHOONER BLUENOSE WINNING. During the trial races of the Canadian contenders for the International Fishermen's Race, to be held off Halifax, tomorrow the Bluenose, with 2 marked on mainsail, will represent Canada against the Gloucester schooner Elsie, America's hope. Underwood & Underwood

BUSY SISTERS. Miss Mildred Shober (left) and Miss Margaret Shober were both actively engaged in selling smokes and candy to the crowd at the Rose Tree races, held at Media. Ledger Photo Service

IT MADE HIS DADDY FAMOUS. Old Glory is being admired by George Cohan, Jr., as he accompanies his father and mother to London, aboard the steamer Berengaria. Underwood & Underwood

MISS CATHERINE WATSON, Swarthmore High School hockey team captain. L. P. S.

DO YOU KNOW THEM? Rogers Hornsby (left), champion batter of the National League. The fair one is Patsy Ruth Miller, movie actress. George Sisler (right), of the St. Louis Browns. International

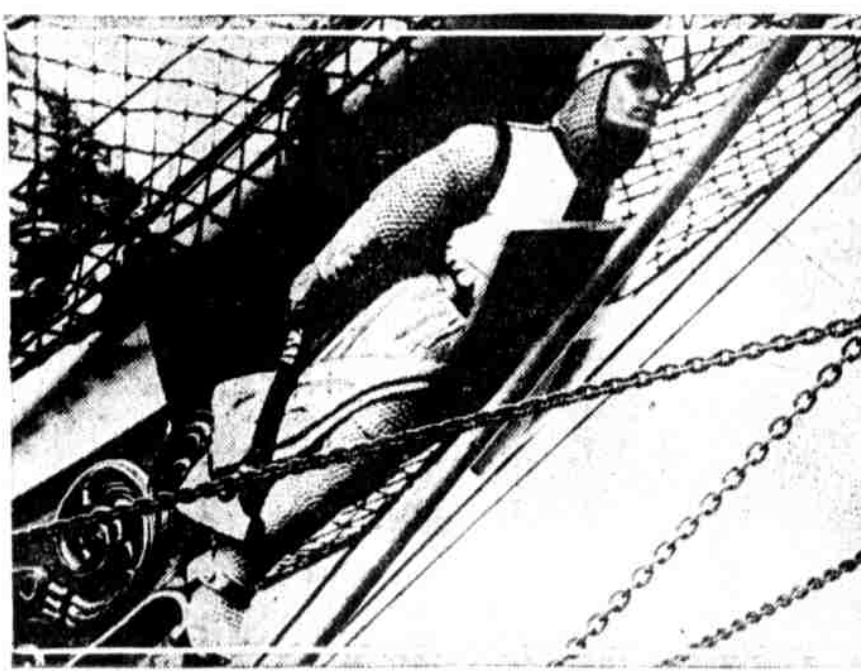

CAPTAIN EMMET KIRKPATRICK, Red Cross Worker, on the left. He has just arrived from Russia, where he was imprisoned by the Bolsheviks. He is showing a friend some Bolshevik cigarettes. Int.

THOMAS J. GRAY, 32 years a pilot, now in charge of Reading ferryboat Haddon Heights. L. P. S.

SCANLON, O'RAGAN AND COFFEY, of the Catholic High School, being coached by John J. Greer, as they get ready to play Eastern High School of Washington tomorrow. L. P. S.

WORLD'S LARGEST SAILING SHIP. The Copenhagen has just been completed at Leith, England, for the Danish Government. The figure on bowsprit represents Bishop Absolin, founder of Copenhagen. Underwood & Underwood

THEY SEEK MORE GRIDIRON HONORS. Dr. " " Mercer, coach of the "Little Quakers," is keeping the Swarthmore eleven on their toes, as they remember their work against Penn last week and prepare to meet the Franklin and Marshall players, at Lancaster, tomorrow. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FINAL ADJUSTMENT. Frank M. Klotz, 6031 Magnolia avenue, working on precision levels, used for setting up intricate machinery. They're being made in the factory of Queen-Gray Company, 70 W. Johnson street. L. P. S.

STAR PUNTER. We show you Frey, of the Washington and Lee football eleven. Ledger Photo Service

NEW YORK TO SAN FRANCISCO. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Clark (left) and a relative, Clarence Klug, passed this way on their hike across the country. Ledger Photo Service

FOND OF HORSERACING. Mrs. Dorothy Sproul Hixon was seen at Rose Tree. L. P. S.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

CARL H. CHAFFEE, cashier of the First National Bank, of 315 Chestnut street, where he has been associated for a great many years. He lives at 508 Harvard street, Swarthmore. L. P. S.