

BLUECOAT ROBBED OF GUN; SUSPENDED

Testifies Blackjack and $7 Are Taken When He Probes Row in House

DRUNK, SAYS LIEUTENANT

A patrolman's testimony that he had been robbed of his revolver, blackjack and money culminated in an argument with his lieutenant today and the bluecoat's suspension.

Patrolman Peck, of the Twentieth and Federal streets station, appeared against five Negroes arraigned before Magistrate Dougherty in the station house.

Peck said he was passing a house on Twenty-first street near Tasker, and heard an uproar inside. He went into the house, he said, and was surrounded by three men and two women, who took his revolver, his blackjack and a wallet containing $7.

Peck continued that as he walked into the room where the men and women were, he saw two other patrolmen, strangers to him, leave by rear door. Acting Lieutenant Milburn interrupted Peck.

"You don't know what you are testifying about," he said. Peck insisted he was telling the truth. The lieutenant retorted Peck was under the influence of liquor when he entered the house. The patrolman denied the charge.

On Peck's testimony Magistrate Dougherty decided to hold Richard Murray, Nathaniel Tague, Eugene Lynch and Nancy Coon as material witnesses for a further hearing next Friday. He held Anna Lynch for a further hearing on a charge of assault and battery.

After the hearing Milburn demanded Peck's badge and keys. The patrolman refused to surrender them. The lieutenant suspended him, ordered him from the stationhouse, and telephoned a report of the suspension to Superintendent of Police Mills.

MAKES $200 BEQUEST

Rest of Woman's $6300 Estate Goes to Private Beneficiaries

A bequest of $200 was made in the will of Laura Hunter, 2422 North Sixteenth street, probated in the Recorder of Wills office this morning. The remainder of her $6300 estate went to private bequests. Other wills probated, all made up of private bequests, were those of Sarah E. Barnes, Woodbury, N. J., $15,000; Robert Crowe, 1311 Federal street, $5500; Mary L. R. Carter, 2043 North Nineteenth street, $6434; Emma V. Nickerson, 1535 Montgomery street, $5500.

Inventories of personal estates were filed as follows: William Feldmayer, $16,285.60; Harry H. Mustin, $15,720.99; Frank L. Hurlock, $8,382.28; and John M. Seitzer, $5488.00.

Letters of administration were granted in the cases of Hannah McMenamin, 41 Saunders avenue, $11,200; Benjamin Goldhammer, 2010 North Market street, $9000; and Agnes E. Thompson, 3105 North Sixteenth street, $30,000.

PRODUCE DEALER ROBBED

Footpads Take $138 From Man in Garage

Two footpads held up Gilbert Einhorn, a produce dealer, in front of a garage at Seventeenth and Fountain streets at 3 o'clock this morning and took $138. They escaped.

Einhorn lives at 1731 Susquehanna avenue. He went to the garage to get his motortruck, intending to go to a wharf and buy a load of produce.

Einhorn opened the garage and was stooping to crank the machine when two Negroes ordered him to throw up his hands. The dealer later told police he was too astonished to notice whether the men had revolvers. After getting his money they ran through an alley.

AGED WOMAN, TWO DOGS DIE IN GAS-FILLED ROOM

Mrs. Sara J. Romig, 1724 North 20th Street, Accidentally Killed

Mrs. Sara J. Romig, seventy years old, was found dead in bed this morning from accidental gas asphyxiation in the home of her daughter at 1724 North Twentieth street. In the same room were found two poodle dogs, which also succumbed to the gas which was escaping from a small heater.

Eight other dogs—six poodles and two collies—were found in another part of the house, where they had escaped from the fumes.

EASY AUTO ROUTE TO "TIGER" GAME

Best Way for Motorists to Princeton Football Match Is Picked

43 MILES FROM CITY HALL

For benefit of motorists who wish to attend the Princeton-Chicago football game Saturday at Princeton, the Keystone Automobile Club has prepared a route which it believes will give the motorist the benefit of easy travel.

Starting from City Hall it is forty-three and one-tenth miles and goes as follows:

North on Broad street, turn right on Roosevelt Boulevard. At end of boulevard turn left on Welsh road. Bustleton is the first town.

From Lawrenceville five miles to Princeton. University is on right.
