Demonstration Against American Embassy Tomorrow Is Prohibited

RADICALS MAY DEFEY ORDER

By the Associated Press. Paris, Oct. 22.—The French Government took action today to prevent the demonstration before the American Embassy here Sunday, planned by Communists as a spectacular movement in connection with the Sacco-Vanzetti murder case in the United States against the verdict in which the Communists are protesting. The Communist leaders have been informed by the authorities that the proposed demonstration will not be permitted, this action being taken in pursuance of a decision reached at a Cabinet council presided over by President Millerand.

WEDDING FORECAST FOR MARY GARDEN

Horoscopist Says It Will Be in 1924—Bridegroom Not Yet Picked Out

RETURNS FROM ABROAD

New York, Oct. 22.—With her hair bobbed, unadorned, wearing a heavy square fur coat and carrying a stout cane with a carved ivory head of a griffin, Mary Garden returned yesterday on the Cunard steamship Aquitania from Southampton. She will leave for Chicago today to take up the problems of the Chicago Opera Company.

Mary Garden returned from Europe with a conviction that American girls might well ignore the Parisian suggestion that longer skirts are the mode.

CELLAR-GROWN BEER GOT START IN ANCIENT EGYPT

Archaeologist Says Of Timers Were Master Brewers of Their Day, but Shucks, Process Is Lost

The question of home-brewed beer is not new. The nature of the brew will be of no very recent origin after all. Thirty centuries ago the Egyptians were brewing beer of some kind.

WILL MARY GARDEN WED IN 1924?

"Anticipating marriage is a great feeling," said Mary Garden, opera director, on her return from Europe yesterday. She declared a "horoscope" in Paris had forecast a wedding for her in 1924, but neglected to name the bridegroom.
