Nancy Wynne Tells of the Bonnells' Tea on Saturday She Goes to the Rose Tree Races-Tea at Settlement House This Afternoon Interests Society

Chestnut is very much interested in so near home she does not have to miss any of the week-end dances, and yet can do good work in college as she does not ge to parties during the week.

Mariana is rather dark and has large soft dark brown eyes. She wore a vertry frock of white brocaded chiffon we remember, was Miss Hele not soft brown full gold. A NOTHER college girl made her A debut on Saturday. I mean Mariana Bonnell, Mr. Henry Bonnell's Middleton Coxe, at the home of her grandmother, whose tea was given by her parents at their home, in Chestnut Mrs. Edward C. Dale, 1215 Spruce. THAT reminds me. I hear that little Charlie Mather is improving each day, and while he is not entirely scious, yet when they moved him from the hospital to his home he said "too het." referring to the blankets over him, and the day after he reached home heckoned or waved to his little brother from his bed. So he is recovering con-sciousness at intervals and slowly, but it will be invited to join in and thus will be started some good games. There are five Morris girls you know,

DID you hear that the Workman Place House in which so many of the women are interested is to open the new gymnasium this afternoon and there's to be a ten to celebrate the occasion? You know the Alpha Pi Fraterity has this settlement house especially under its wing, and it is kept up every year through the donation day and proceeds of the Pony Show which Mrs. Billie Clothier has each year at her Wynnewood home.

The board of managers of the house for this year includes Mrs. T. Wister Brown, 3d., chairman; Mrs. John F. Meigs, 2d, vice chairman; Mrs. Jacob Disston, Jr., treasurer; Margaret Remak, secretary; Mrs. Billie Clothier, have moved from 2203 Walnut attention.
