

CROW'S NEIGHBORS BID HIM GODSPEED

Turn Out in Force to See His Installation as U. S. Senator

BIG DAY FOR UNIONTOWN

By a Staff Correspondent
Washington, Oct. 24.—(By A. P.)—The day for Senator Crow's installation as U. S. Senator was a big day for Uniontown.

Hotel registers began to fill up yesterday. Last night scores more were added. Today the list grew and grew with names after names written down at Uniontown, Pa., after it. The town was here—or most of it. Business men and old friends are here—not merely politicians.

They crowded the corridors, jostled each other and huddled in the office at the Capitol, gathered in groups to talk over the event, besieged the office and committee rooms of Senator Penrose, and the Senate and laid out on the coat rack of the new junior Senator himself.

But as it was all good-humored, no one was angry. There was no talk of bodies or future governorships or senatorships today. This is Old Home Day for Uniontown and the western part of the State, and Governor Sprout and Lieutenant Governor Beidler and the other dignitaries from Harrisburg came down to help make it a success.

Off to the Capitol
It was not until along after 10 o'clock that the boys got their first morning's glimpse of him and gave him a rousing cheer as plain State Senator "Bill" Crow, to become within the hour a member of the greatest deliberative body in the world.

At 10:30 Leighton C. Taylor, secretary to Senator Penrose, called at the Washington Hotel in the Senator's car. He was joined by Senator Crow, Governor Sprout and Secretary W. Harry Baker, of the Republican State Committee. Together they drove to the Capitol.

There, in a committee room, they met Senator Penrose, and at 11 o'clock the two walked into the Senate chamber to Penrose's seat. They were immaculate as to attire and professed as to dignity. That portion of Uniontown which could crowd into the limited gallery space craned its necks and whispered excitedly.

There was a very short wait, the Senate was called to order and Penrose at his seat to announce that the new junior Senator was present and desired to present his credentials.

The ceremony, including the administration of the oath, lasted only a few minutes. Then the two Senators left the Senate chamber and crowded downstairs to shake their hands.

Senator Crow announced he would remain in Washington for a day or two and then, if he could be spared, return to Atlantic City. He appears in excellent health, and declared he is "feeling fine." He expects to go back to the shore to complete his rest and recuperation from an attack of illness which has held him in semi-subjection for seven months.

Aside from the Governor and his party from Harrisburg, the Pennsylvania guests included Mayor E. V. Rabeck and State Senator Leslie from Pittsburgh, and numerous present and former State officials.

Philadelphians Present
Philadelphia was represented by William J. Ryan, Joseph M. Albright, Miss Armstrong, James S. Benn, C. W. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Chapman, Miss G. Friedlander and Mrs. D. Friedlander, Ben Golder, George Gray, Miss E. Hunt, Dr. Frank H. Husted, John Irwin, A. J. Noble, J. T. Nulty, George Gray, Mrs. Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Robinson, Charles Scott and J. W. Weiland.

The Senator Penrose's secretarial staff sent several dozen packages of Senate gallery cards down to the Washington Hotel this morning for the accommodation of "the boys." They were distributed to all who sought them with the autographed stamped signature, "Bill Crow," and the guest list, they were told.

KILLED BY AUTO ON FERRY
Woman Crushed to Death—Three Others Pushed Overboard
Perth Amboy, N. J., Oct. 24.—(By A. P.)—Mrs. George Sleight, of Totenville, N. Y., was instantly killed last night on a ferryboat when an automobile in the vehicle gangway started forward and crushed her against a stanchion as the boat was entering the slip.

John Peterson and his wife, of Totenville, who accompanied her, were pushed overboard in the confusion, together with Charles Parcell, also of Totenville. They were rescued by members of the crew and taken to a hospital suffering from internal injuries.

The driver of the automobile was arrested, charged with technical homicide. He was unable to explain how his car had started.

PENNA. MAN NOT DESERTER
Harry N. Phillips, of Westmoreland County, Served During War
Washington, Oct. 24.—The stigma of draft desertion has been removed from Harry M. Phillips, of Westmoreland County, Pa., by order of the War Department.

Phillips, who was listed for alleged failure to report for military duty April 25, 1918, in reality enlisted in the army August 4, 1917, and was honorably discharged two years later.

SELECT AMERICA'S 'UNKNOWN SOLDIER'

Hero to Be Buried in Arlington Chosen by Army Sergeant in France

SIMPLE CEREMONY HELD

By the Associated Press
Chalons-sur-Marne, Oct. 24.—America's "unknown soldier," who will find an honored resting place in the National Cemetery at Arlington, Va., was chosen here this morning. The ceremony of selecting the casket to be taken to America took place in an improvised chapel in the City Hall, and, in keeping with a request from the United States Government, was very simple and brief.

Sergeant Edward F. Younger, of Chicago, was handed a small bouquet of white and pink roses by American officers present, and advanced to the little chapel, passing through a line of French troops. Four caskets had been placed in the chapel by a contingent brought here from Coblenz.

Every one had been asked to leave the chapel before Sergeant Younger entered. He walked slowly around the four caskets three times, then stopped and placed the roses on the casket facing the entrance to the chamber. He then turned, facing the entrance, saluted and reported to the American officers that he had made his selection. While the ceremony was going on, a

French military band played the dead march from "Lili Marlene."

The casket was then removed to another room and prepared for its long trip to America. General Dubois, commanding the French Sixth Army Corps; Major General Harry L. Rogers, quartermaster of the American army on the Rhine, and Colonel Harry F. Bethers, of the American Graves Registration Service, were present. There were also a number of American officers from Coblenz at the City Hall and several companies of French Infantry rendered military honors.

The only words spoken at the ceremony were by General Dubois, who said: "The French army feels deeply honored to pay a simple and loving tribute to the American unknown soldier."

Later the casket of the American warrior was placed in the rounds of the City Hall, which was decorated with American flowers and flags. The casket was draped in an American flag, the only flowers on it being the little bouquet which was used by Sergeant Younger in making the selection of the body.

Have, Oct. 24.—(By A. P.)—The United States cruiser Olympia arrived here today to await the arrival of the body of the American unknown soldier from Chalons-sur-Marne. The Olympia will convey the body to America.

Washington, Oct. 24.—(By A. P.)—Officials in charge of arrangements for the armament conference and those formulating the program for the American unknown dead exercises on Armistice Day are somewhat perplexed as to how the two events can be arranged without having the programs conflict.

The military escort for the unknown dead is scheduled to leave the Capitol with President Harding and Cabinet members at its head at 8:30 o'clock on the morning of November 11. The Arlington as planned would continue well into the afternoon and would be followed by luncheon for the distinguished visitors. While the opening session of the conference would, in the opinion of some officials, be more appropriately held in the morning and adjournment taken out of respect to the American unknown dead and in recognition of Armistice Day, it would seem impossible before 8 A. M. Consequently it was thought probable that the initial meeting of the conference might be postponed until late on the afternoon of Armistice Day.

TO USE ARMORIES MORE

Athletics and Social Affairs Will Be Introduced in Jersey Guard

Trenton, Oct. 24.—Athletic and recreational activities will be introduced into the State National Guard during the coming winter, according to an announcement by Adjutant General Gilkyson here today.

The armories afford facilities for indoor sports, as well as social functions, and General Gilkyson desires to make them more attractive and used to a greater extent.

20 Gallons of Whisky Seized
Mount Holly, N. J., Oct. 24.—Twenty gallons of whisky, valued at $200, was seized last night at Riverton under direction of Special Agent Carlisle. Four Camden men were arrested before they delivered it to a Riverton party and are in jail here. They gave the names of Francis D. Mulvihill, Fifth and Cherry streets; Steve Marzavelli, 2277 South Seventh street; Michael J. Mulvihill, 515 Berkeley street, and Paul Panovich, 1719 South Sixth street.
