

MINISTERS TO SEE MAYOR ON CRIMES Moore Will Meet Church Leaders Friday to Discuss Means of Abatement COMES OF BAPTIST PROTEST

Mayor Moore will meet clergymen of various denominations in his reception room in City Hall Friday to discuss crime in the city, and means for its abatement.

This meeting is the result of correspondence between the Mayor, and Rev. Samuel Z. Batten, secretary of the Department of Social Service of the American Baptist Publication Society.

Mayor Moore, in his last letter to Mr. Batten, explained the limitations of his office, and declined to accept responsibility for much that takes place.

"I can hardly believe the Chief Executive of a great American city is as helpless in the face of conditions as you imply you are at present.

Expect to Tie Up Roads The four brotherhoods and the state organizations, believed, union men said, that they could tie up transportation without any assistance from other groups.

Decision of the arbitrator, and station employees, numerically one of the largest of the railway men a unions, having a membership of 350,000, not to join the big four brotherhoods and the switchmen in the strike placed the brotherhoods today greatly in the minority in their announced determination to walk out.

Mr. Stone, head of the engineers, and W. G. Lee, head of the trainmen, indicated the "big five" had not changed the strike plans in any respect.

Mr. Stone asserted the consequences of the strike would rest upon the Railroad Labor Board, while Lee declared he had "an abiding faith in the fairness of the American people when they understand the truth of the situation."

In response to Mr. Stone's statement blaming the labor board for the present strained situation, Chairman R. M. Barton, of the board, today declared he "willing to let the public decide who is to blame."

You may say for me as emphatically as you wish, that I am not a member of the Railroad Labor Board, and I am not responsible for anything or not, these men cannot justify their action on that ground.

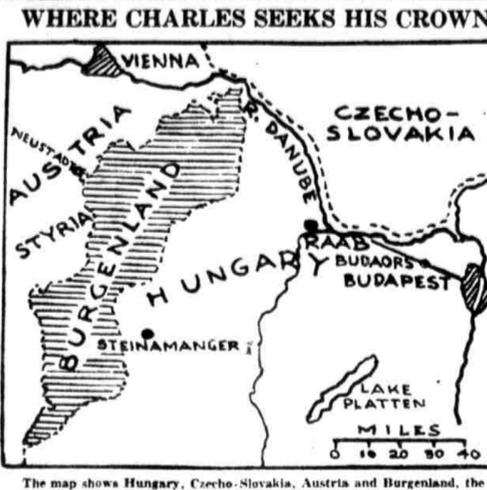

Washington, Oct. 24.—(By A. P.)—Back from a trip into the Middle West, where he was reported as having made an informal survey of the railroad strike situation, Attorney General Clegg today called today at the White House.

The Attorney General later in the day planned to confer with United States District Attorneys Hayward of New York City, and Clegg of Chicago, Cleveland, Lockwood, of Buffalo, and Van Noy, of Indianapolis. The conference, it was understood, would be for the purpose of mapping out a plan of action in event of a strike.

The Supreme Court today ordered the rearrangement of the Wisconsin rail rate case December 6. This case involves constitutionality of the transportation act of 1920.

Chief Justice Taft announced that the court would hear on January 3 arguments in the case brought by the State of North Carolina also to test the constitutionality of the act.

BROTHERHOOD HEADS STILL IN CONFERENCE Cleveland, Oct. 24.—(By A. P.)—Railroad brotherhood chiefs today concluded their conference on the general strike situation, and on plans for compliance with the citation of the Railroad Labor Board ordering them, their grand officers and general chairmen, to appear before the board Wednesday in Chicago.

STARTED DAY WRONG Distributor of Radical Literature Calls at Patrolman's House

When Communists distribute seditious literature in the future they will try to avoid the homes of patrolmen, Andrew Pannor, forty years old, a Russian, who lives on Eads street, did not take this precaution, and now he is in jail awaiting a call from Department of Justice agents.

Pannor showed a paper headed "Stand With Soviet Russia" under the front door of the home of Patrolman John Elliott, at 2414 Millar street.

Pannor rushed from the house and nabbed him. The police found a city map marked off into zones in the man's pocket, and believe they have gotten on the trail of a gang of seditious literature printers and distributors.

SEEK MISSING MAN Michael Hartung, thirty-eight years old, left his home at 1010 South Fifth street, Saturday, telling his wife, Mrs. Mary, he was going for a walk, and has not been seen since.

Several days before he prevailed upon his wife to let him withdraw their life savings to establish a bank here, but Japan's population is increasing at the rate of 700,000 a year, which makes it essential to seek agricultural and commercial openings in China, and he has no desire to keep out other nations.

Why Clark Resigned The beginning of the new era in railroad control dates from the resignation of Chairman Clark, from the Interstate Commerce Commission, on Oct. 21.

Clark was the only member of the board who had been in the railroad business more deeply in the railroad business than it ever was before the war. If rates are made without regard to expenses, the Government guarantee of earnings must continue.

Government credit is steadily being used to produce social results. The distribution of the Adamson law, from shipper and consumer, that is the meaning of all the various credits for the benefit of agriculture. Steps have been taken which imply a Government credit for railroads.

URGENT REPEAL OF R. R. GUARANTY PROVISION Washington, Oct. 24.—(By A. P.)—The long-simmering movement in Congress for the repeal of the railroads 6 per cent guaranty provision and also repeal of the Adamson law wage law appeared in the open before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee today when Representatives of State Railway Commissioners and agricultural organizations appeared to urge such changes.

John E. Benton, solicitor of the National Association of Railway and Utilities Commissioners, urged enactment of the Capper bill to restore the original jurisdiction of state railway commissioners over interstate rates and to repeal the 6 per cent guaranty of the carriers.
