PRINCE OF WALES GOING TO INDIA I

Sails Tomorrow for Visit That Has Aroused Much Anxiety in England

MAY FACE NATIVE BOYCOTT

London, Oct. 25.—The Prince of Wales leaves for Portsmouth tomorrow to board the battleship Renown for his ong anticipated trip to India, The Prince's journey has been a topic much interest in the press for months marked anxiety among the members of the royal family.

This anxiety was increased by the disturbances in the Moplah region late in August and by utterances of various mass meting in Lahore, Northwestern India, presided over by Lala Lajpat Rai, nationalist leader, a resolution was adopted saying "that while the wound resulting from martial law in Punjab are still unhealed, the Khilafat pledges are unredeemed and the famine condi-tions prevail throughout the country, the people of Lahore are not prepared to extend a welcome to the Prince of

Even if there should be no danger of physical attack upon the Prince, it is by Khandi, leader of the passive resistwhich would be injurious to British prestige and humiliating to the royal

The Prince, however, has insisted upon the trip, arguing that a show of cowardice on his part would be far more injurious to the prestige of Great Brit-ain than any events in India could possibly be.
Another phase of the visit that has Another plane to the troubled the King and Queen is the plan of the sport-loving Prince to take part in the Kadir Cup hunt, the annual boar hunting classic in India, that is raught with danger for even nd experienced hunters. The Prince's attitude has attracted much praise for his bravery, but nevertheless prayers are being said through-out England for his safe return. FLAG TRAIN JUST IN TIME

P. R. R. Passenger Saved From Crashing Into Freight Wreck Harrisburg, Oct. 25 .- (By A. P.)-Two employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad off duty were attracted to the milroad near their homes at Rockville ast night by the crash of a freight wreck and were just in time to flag an eastbound passenger train that other-wise would have piled into the wreck-

The freight cars buckled and were thrown out over the passenger tracks. The passenger train was stopped within few feet of the wreck.
