IN A farming community in New York State, famous for its splendid varieties of winter apples, there lives Mrs. Ellen Ebbitts, who sends to this corner a splendid collection of apple recipes. She writes as follows:

"My Dear Mrs. Wilson—I read with interest your Cosmopolitan Kitchen and feel that I would like to send you some real apple recipes from an apple country. We grow the finest apples here, and as we have some culls we use these at home."

Mother Ebbitts' Apple Conserve
Place in a small preserving kettle:
Four cups of sugar,
One cup of water,
Four tablespoons of brown sugar,
Two tablespoons of shortening,
One teaspoon of oil vanon,
Rub very lightly between the fingers to mix and then spread over the pudding and bake in slow oven for forty-five minutes. Better put this pudding under lock and key, if you wish to keep it for dinner and especially where there are young folks around. Mother Ebbitts says it is the most tantalizing dish you can make.

Mother Ebbitts' Baked Apples
Wash and core the apples of the same size. Now pare a thin strip from the top and bottom of the apple. Place the apples in a double roaster and for one dozen apples add:
One cup of seeded raisins,
One-half cup of brown sugar,
Three-fourths cup of boiling water.
Put the raisins in the space made by removing the core and stir sugar and water together in a small saucepan and add:
One-half teaspoon of nutmeg,
Pinch of cloves,
Four over the apples. Close the roasting pan and bake in a slow oven for forty minutes.

Apple Roll
Pare six apples and then chop them very fine. Now place in a mixing bowl:
Two cups of flour,
One-half teaspoon of salt,
Four teaspoons of baking powder,
Three tablespoons of sugar,
Rub between the hands to mix and then add the four five level table-spoons of shortening and then use seven tablespoons of milk to form a dough. Pat out on a floured pastry board and roll out one-half inch thick. Spread lightly with shortening and then cover with brown sugar and cinnamon. Now spread the prepared apples, roll as for jelly roll and tuck the ends securely in. Lift to a baking pan and brush with milk of one egg,
Four tablespoons of milk.
Mix. Dust very lightly with cinnamon and then bake in a slow oven for fifty minutes. Serve with thin apple sauce.

Apple Pancakes
Pare three apples and then cut the apples in very thin whole slices, so that each slice will have a bit of the core in the center to hold it together. Place in a mixing bowl:
Two cups of flour,
One-half teaspoon of salt,
Two teaspoons of sugar,
Four teaspoons of baking powder,
One cup of thin apple sauce.
Beat to mix thoroughly and then drop in a pan of hot fat from the spoon, as for pancakes. Lay a thin slice of apple in the center of the pancake and cook until nicely browned. Turn and cook side with apple in. Lift on a soft piece of paper to drain. Now spread with thick apple sauce. Dust with powdered sugar and serve.

Apple Pudding
Crush one-half pound of soda crackers fine and then rub a pudding dish with butter. Now place a layer of thin sliced apples in the bottom of the dish, season with brown sugar, cinnamon and a bit of butter. Then a layer of the crushed soda crackers. Repeat this until the dish is full and have the apples on top. Pour one and one-half cups of thin apple sauce over the pudding and then cover the top with crumbs prepared as follows:
Six tablepoons of flour,

Bring to a boil and cook for five minutes. Now pare and cut in slices. Add to the sirup with
Thinly grated rind of one-half lemon,
Juice of one lemon,
One cup of candied citron,
One-half cup of candied orange peel,
One-half cup of candied ginger,
One package of seeded raisins.
And the following spices tied in a piece of cheesecloth:
One teaspoon of ginger,
One teaspoon of cinnamon,
One-half teaspoon of nutmeg,
One-half teaspoon of allspice,
One-fourth teaspoon of cloves.
Cook very slowly, stirring frequently until thick like jam. Store in sterilized half-pint jars. When cold cover with paraffin and then seal.
Mother Ebbitts tells me that Great-grandfather Ebbitts was an East India merchant and that he not only brought home fine spices and Oriental sweetmeats, but also a collection of fine Old World recipes which are still guarded very jealously by the women folk of the household and handed down from one generation to another.

The room of all rooms

ISN'T it true that much as you love the living room, the dining room and the library, you love your bedroom more?

In this room, with its tasteful hangings, rugs, lamps and pictures, you probably spend one-third of every day—more time than you devote to any other room or interest.

Truly, the bedroom is the heart of a home—and the heart of the bedroom is the bed itself.

You want a strong bed—without rest-disturbing creaks or rattles—a bed that harmonizes with the furnishings of the room—a bed blessed with welcoming comfort.

Such a bed is a Barcalo bed. Built of clean, sturdy steel, splendidly designed, and beautifully finished in rich mahogany or walnut.

Your furniture dealer will be proud to show you one of the latest creations of Barcalo craftsmen. There are many designs to choose from—perhaps you will select one of those shown here.

Together with a Barcalo mattress and Barcalo springs, a modern Barcalo bed will give the health-bringing rest to the body and the satisfying delight to the eye that is worthy of your own bedroom—the room of all rooms.

BARCALO BEDS

This Barcalo twin is number 2705, finished in rich mahogany, walnut, oak, or ivory enamel. The same design is also furnished in a standard full width bedstead.

At $25 to $39 there is a splendid collection of real Winter coats. These are of velour, broadcloth and the new variations of the soft and cozy Bolivia weaves.

Some are without fur, others have wide, luxurious collars of Australian opossum, nutria, skunk opossum, wolf and beaverette (beaver-dyed coney).

Nearly all are lined throughout with silk and interlined.

Colors are exactly the ones that women want for practical wear, navy, brown, malay and black.

Sizes for women and young women. (Market)
