

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK
By Lee Pape

Pop was smoking and thinking after supper and I sed, Hay Pop?
Who me? sed pop. Meaning wat, and I sed, Do you want to know everything I did today?
Your slightest movement intrigues me strangely, on with the tale, sed pop. Meaning if I told him he would listen. Wich I started to tell him, saying, Well, in the first place I got an extra eye on account of thinking it was 8 o'clock already and it wasn't 7 yet, and I thavt of going back to bed agen and then I thavt I wnts the use, and I dident.
That's wat I call starting the day rite, the fighting spirit, sed pop.
Yes sir, and then I went about 3 ex-rands for ma before skool and she dident give me anything for going and I dident ask her for anything, I dident even ix-pect anything, I sed.
Good, fine, if theres anything I want to keep out of the family its a mercen-ary spirit, sed pop, and I sed, Yes sir, and then I went to skool and I was so ery I was the first one in line wen we marched in and the teacher was surprised and sed I was doing very well.
Better and more of it, will these won-ders never cease? sed pop, and I sed No sir, and this afternoon I went 2 more ex-rands for ma without complaining, and then I saw smeas on your shaving mirror, so I polished it.
Im glad to hear it, erriety needed it, sed pop, and I sed, Yes sir, 42 you say of saw it, pop, it looked grate, it was too bad it had to go and drop rite out of my hands.
Wat, sed pop, did it brake?
Well, the glass part of it did, I sed, You blithering little lyeas, sed pop. And he gave me 3 ferse cracks some place with his slipper, not being very enjoyable but being less than I expected.
