CONNIE FINDS OUT SOME MEMBERS OF "PENROD" CAST

By CONSTANCE PALMER

Hollywood, Calif. 'VE just had word that Marjerie Daw Mr. Marshall Neilan. She is to play the part of Penrod's sister, so exas-perating to and exasperated by the hero, in the drama of that name. "Sunshine Sammy," the little coon who has delighted you in so many of Harold Lloyd's comedies, has been loaned Mr. Lloyd's comedies, has been loaned Mr. Neilan for the picture, also. He is to play Herman, one of the inimitable brothers, Herman and Verman. Remember? Tully Marshall is to do Penrod's father, and Claire MacDowell his mother. Johnny Harron, brother of the late Bobby, is also in the cast. Could any one ask a better band of players?

Gareth Hughes may go to Mexico to film scenes for his new picture, called, inappropriately enough, "Stay Home." I hear Gareth is to play an unwilling outlaw. Careful, Gareth; it might get vurry, yurry rough down among the hot vurry, vurry rough down among the hot

THERE seems to be a vogue for Jew-1 ish pictures. Witness "Humor-esque" and "No Woman Knows"—al-though I didn't discover what she didn't know. Goldwyn has "Hungry Hearts" in production, and within a day or so Edward Sloman will start making "The Man Who Smiled!" The last named was written by Mr. Sloman himself and William Mong, the actor. He has appeared in all of the late Frothingham productions, and, of course, will be seen in this, the newest one.

"Hungry Hearts" is one of those true-to-tenement-life sort of things. Very grimy. But I'm sure it will be interesting just the same. E. Mason Hopper is directing, so that vouches for a good deal of success. Helen Ferguson looks very charming in her peasant shawls, woolen stockings and wooden shoes. Otto Lederer does a sort of sympathetic heavy. The make-up of each onthetic heavy. The make-up of each character is really marvelous. Each of them is to be congratulated, together with the director, in reaching practical I time, and especially at night, offers difficulties which are undecamed of in artistic perfection. (Gawsh! Get that!)

Alice Lake's new story promises to be very up-to-date. It's called "Kisses," and has to do with a young woman's success in esablishing a candy factory, and the kisses no doubt hinge on that. Harry Myers aids and abetts her in her enterprise. They are filming scenes in ganization rarely has to cope.
