Research Bureau Cites Jersey Law, in Force Several Years, as Cure for Evil

"IS PLAIN HORSE SENSE"

The practice of excess borrowing by the city was criticized today by Bureau of Municipal Research. V Council authorizes the borrowing of $1,000,000, for example, the bureau pointed out, a premium over and above that sum is received if the successful bidders bid above par. "One of the best cures for excess borrowings, and consequently for preventguise of premiums, for current expenses. Jersey for several years, having been prescribed by the Legislature of 1916.

"This is a remedy that Philadelphia can use immediately, without waiting for either legislative authority or legislative command. It is simple enough for any one to understand. It is plain When a municipality in New Jersey desires to borrow, say $1,000,000 it advertises, not that it offers $1,000. 000 of bonds for sale, but that it wants $1,000,000 and will accept that money from the bidder or bidders who agree to take the smallest amount, of bonds $1,000,000 of bonds. In case two or more hidders should each agree to sup-ply the desired sum for the same additional premium, but than 51000, is awarded the loan. Thus relatively unimportant sums,

Another Way of Doing It the bonds as will be necessary to so une to the bonds as will be necessary to so une the sum desired. For example, if $1,000,000 of 52, per com fifteen year bonds are effected and the highest bid is 102.46 instead of issuing the $1,000.

On of bonds and consequently berrowing $1,024,600, the cita would assue $076.
