

Glenn Warner and Panther Football Team, With Band of Sixty Pieces, Due Here Tomorrow

PITT GRID SQUAD IS PURELY LOCAL

All Panther Football Players Hail From Western Section of Keystone State

ARRIVE HERE TOMORROW

Pittsburgh, Oct. 26.—The University of Pittsburgh football team, which meets Old Penn at Franklin Field Saturday in the annual game between the Keystone State rivals, is entirely a Western Pennsylvania product, every boy on the Panther team having been prepared for the University at a Western Pennsylvania high or prep school.

Center Herb Stein, who was honored by Walter Camp as All-American center in 1920, prepared at Kutztown, Pa. The school also prepared Captain Tom Davies, quarterback Tom Holleran and End Frank Williams. Stein's home is in Silesburg, Pa., where he is a brother of Russell Stein, captain of the W. and J. team. Herb was captain of the varsity last year. Tom Holleran is a Pittsburgh boy, being born within a few squares of the university campus. Tom Davies' home is in Washington, Pa., not far from Pittsburgh, and Frank Williams lives at Farmington, Pa., near the University.

The two guards are both graduates of Fifth Avenue High School, Pittsburgh, who being Jack Sacks, who was on the varsity last year, and Harry C. Bowers, a graduate of Johnstown High School, plays the end opposite Williams.

The backfield consists of Holleran at quarterback, Davies at left halfback and John Anderson, a graduate of the same school, at right halfback. The fullback is Orville Hewitt, a graduate of Wilkes-Barre High School, also a suburb of Pittsburgh.

No Tramp Athletes

It is a notable fact that not a single man on the varsity has played football at any other college. In fact, there is but one man on the entire varsity squad of thirty-eight, who has been at any other institution, he being Fred C. Peters, sub right guard, who played at Pennsylvania during the S. A. T. C. period. He is a senior in his second year here, and was in residence one year before coming out for the team. He is now working as an understudy to Schellman and pushing him hard for the regular position.

The heaviest man on the varsity eleven is Fullback Tiny Hewitt, who weighs 199 pounds, although Harvey Harman tips the beam at just about the same weight. The lightest man is Captain Tom Davies, who weighs 155. The heaviest man on the entire varsity squad is John P. Miller, a graduate of Mount Union High School, who weighs 244 pounds. Miller is a sort of protégé of "Pop" Warner, who spotted him at a student assembly one day and decided he would make a football player out of him. Miller has been under Warner's watchful eye for almost a year now, and is developing fast. He is expected to make a strong light for a varsity berth.

Coach Warner has some excellent substitute material on the Panther squad. Freddy Fretter, a Kiski graduate; Magrath, Pittsburgh high school boy, and Miller are the sub centers. Sub guards are Peters, James W. Clark, a graduate of North Side High School, Pittsburgh; L. B. Byers, a graduate of McKeesport High School, and L. B. Lear, a graduate of Monaca High School. Leo Kelly, graduate of Mansfield Normal, L. M. Simpson, Huntington High School, and P. C. Norkaler, of Wyoming Seminary, are the sub tackles.

Jordan Sub End

The end material, other than the varsity players, consists of Jack Johnson and Fred Ewing, both of Kiski; Cook, of Irwin High School; Hutches, of Crafton High; Young, of Pittsburgh High; and L. P. Jordan, of Punxsutawney High. Jordan is the Panthers' star basketball player and looks like a coming end. On the varsity basketball team last year he averaged half a dozen goals a game and his individual work did much to do with the Panthers' administering defeats to Yale and Dartmouth on the local floor.

The backfield substitutes consist of P. E. Byers, Pittsburgh creek High; J. P. Currie, Pittsburgh High; N. A. Colonna, Woodlawn High; Tom J. Elias, Pittsburgh High; M. J. Hartnett, Johnstown High; J. J. Laughran, Broad St. High; Nick Sluder, Ellwood City High; A. Williams, Wilkesburg High; and J. C. Wauchope, Elizabeth High. Wauchope is pressing John Anderson hard for the regular right halfback position. He received the latter when he was injured in the Syracuse game and made one of the longest runs in that contest. He also did fine work in the West Virginia game.

The Panther team will leave tonight and will rest in Philadelphia Friday.

Coach Warner will likely call off all pipes that day, although he may decide at the last minute to transfer up either on Franklin Field or on one of the available Quaker City gridirons. The famous Pitt band of sixty pieces, will leave Friday morning, accompanied by a troupe of students. Hundreds of Pitt alumni from all points of the East will be in the stands at Franklin Field to root for their favorites.

O'DOWD VICTOR OVER LYNCH

Former Bantam Champion Fails in Attempt at "Comeback"

New York, Oct. 27.—Phil O'Dowd, Columbus, O., was awarded the judges' decision after a slashing twelve-round bout here, with Joe Lynch, former bantamweight champion.

It was Lynch's first fight since his defeat by Pete Herman in Brooklyn last summer. O'Dowd, who was making his first pugilistic appearance in New York, displayed a cleverness that Lynch was unable to exploit.

O'Dowd used his left to advantage throughout the contest and won eight out of the twelve rounds. Lynch had the better of two of the rounds and was even in the other two. The fighting was fast throughout.

Lynch pushed O'Dowd to the floor in the fifth round after an exchange of body blows. O'Dowd took the count of nine and then came back at Lynch so furiously that he had him groggy at the bell. In the sixth round O'Dowd had Lynch near a knockout after two hard rights to the jaw. Lynch staggered to his corner when the bell rang.

LEONARD GUEST HERE

Champion to Be Honored by David Phillips Tonight

Benny Leonard will be the guest of honor at a banquet tendered him by David Phillips this evening at the Green Valley Country Club. Several hundred sportsmen from this district have been invited to meet the lightweight champion.

Leonard is not a newcomer at the Green Valley Country Club, as he visits the place at every opportunity when he comes to Philadelphia. Benny is a golf enthusiast and likes the Green Valley course.

Prep's Pet Patter

Joe Howard, captain of West Philadelphia's baseball team during the past season, is expected to lead the Phillies' batting line in the Philadelphia game at the Civic Arena, Friday.

Ward, of Villanova Prep, has been showing great form in his batting lately, and it is expected that he will have to knock the bats to win the honors today.

Catholic High's Soccer Team made a wonderful showing against West Philadelphia last night. The team, which was coached by Coach Phillips, played the game at the West End Y. M. C. A. and won by a score of 2-0.

Speaking of soccer, the Eagles' game last night was a most interesting affair. The team, which was coached by Coach Phillips, played the game at the West End Y. M. C. A. and won by a score of 2-0.

Matt Kane, right now, a pitcher's bargain in the Philadelphia market, is expected to be a big factor in the team's success.

Paul Hefner is out of luck during the football season, according to another Blue Devils' athlete. He says that Paul plays wonderful ball, but that his weight is against him.

It might be of interest to West Philadelphia fans to know that Tommie Cochran, a former all-around athlete at the Walnut street gymnasium, is on the varsity football squad at Penn.

CELTICS ARE BANNED BY EASTERN LEAGUE

Cage Moguls Decide to Prohibit Members of Circuit From Opposing New Yorkers

SKETEERS ON TOP

THE Eastern Basketball League has decided that no player in the ranks of the teams that compose their circuit can compete against the Celtics, of New York, in any game under penalty of a heavy fine and suspension.

The players who are members of the Celtics and who are on the lists of Eastern League clubs are Johnny Beckman, Nat Holman, Eric Reich and George Haggerty. The first two are under contract to Tom Furey at salaries of $500 per week. Reich receives $400 per week, and while in this city on Monday "Horse" Haggerty did not disclose his salary, but said he was receiving more in one week than he ever received before in one month.

The league moguls apparently are sincere in their determination to bar the big longhairs from furnishing the Celtics any attractions, and the New Yorkers are almost dependent on teams of the caliber of the Eastern League to make any kind of a showing.

League Ball Next Year

The whole thing resolves itself into the fact that next year New York will be the hotbed of basketball, for there will be at least one Eastern League club there and in Brooklyn. While the Celtics have the corner on the market, they so far outdistance their opponents that two teams of almost equal strength playing in the Eastern League would turn the tide the other way.

It would not be surprising to see a team in the big city this year if any of the weaker clubs decides for the time being to give up its franchise. The moguls are at last realizing the possibilities of the cage game and the contracts of Beckman and Holman call for twenty-two weeks at $500 per week, or $11,000 for the season.

They are to play four games per week at this figure, but at present are playing but two. Later on Wednesday evening games will be instituted at the Garden and the team will also travel. Tom Furey, who is the promoter, is credited with having an outfit of $10,000 for equipment, cage, etc., and in the short space of a month or so has $11,000 of his original outlay back. Two games are played each Sunday and the attendance is never below 15,000.

Sketeers Tie for Lead

It remained one of old timer last night in the Camden Armory when Camden and Trenton clashed. The Pottery came with the usual big crowd of large numbers, and the armory was packed with about 3500 fans in attendance.

It was a repetition of other Camden-Trenton meetings. These teams can get at will against other opponents, but when they come together they forget all about their ability to score. This time the figures were Camden, 28; Trenton, 15, but the thirteen points difference does not show how close the game was played. By the victory Camden ties Sketeers for first place.

The figures at half time were 15 to 11 in favor of the home brigade and all the three field losses by the visitors came in the initial session. The sketeers led by far the better of the final period, when they won the game by scoring

MACKMEN IN CAGE

McCann and Galloway to Play With All-American Five

Two of Connie Mack's Athletics will keep in shape during the off season by playing basketball. They are Emmet McCann and Chick Galloway, who will appear in the line-up of the All-American team managed by Walter Haffey, of West Philadelphia and formerly with the West Walnut Club.

Other basketballers who are to be given a tryout for positions on the All-American team are Jack Galscott and George Harrigan, guards, and Joe Algie, Lou Reppetto and Jimmy Haffey forwards. McCann will play center and Galloway will be one of the forwards.

Manager Haffey is booking game with all first-class home teams, preferring Tamora, Media, West Chester, Downingtown and all local clubs. Address Walter Haffey, 847 South Fifty-third Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Reds to Train at Mineral Springs

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 27.—Mineral Springs, Pa., is expected to be the training camp for the Cincinnati National League baseball club next spring. President Herrmann said that the five cities which have been named for the team have been selected, and it is now a question of when they will get there for their preliminary practice.

Another K. O. for Burman

Joe Burman, scotchman bantamweight, scored his third straight knockout last night at the Blue Theatre, when he put Joe Martin, Joe Phelan's heavyweight, knocked out in four rounds. The victory was a heavy blow to Phelan's reputation as a trainer.

RUTH DENIES ANY DATE WITH LANDIS

Bustin' Bambino Says Judge Must Wait His Convenience to Discuss Case

Herb Ruth, who has been for two days visiting Herbert F. Pennock, of Kennett Square, said today he was not aware he had any engagement with Judge Landis, high commissioner of baseball, this week and had heard of no rumors he is to be banished from organized baseball next season because of his recent barnstorming trip.

Reports have been received from Chicago that Ruth was to have conferred with Judge Landis early this week, but instead he had gone on a hunting trip.

The "Busting Bambino" said he

RUTH DENIES ANY DATE WITH LANDIS

Ruth was reluctant to discuss the merits of his barnstorming case or the recent statements of Judge Landis. The Home Run King said his vaudeville tour begins November 7 at Boston. He leaves today for New York and will go to Pittsburgh tonight on business in connection with his vaudeville engagement.
