GANG BEATS MAN, ATTACKS WOMAN

Two of Eight Youths Caught After Chase on Tilton Street

ARE HELD WITHOUT BAIL

James Doyle, forty-nine years old James Doyle, forty-nine years old.
2311 Almond street, was hadly beaten last night when attacked by eight youths at Tioga and Tilton streets.
After the attack the young men fled and two of them, it is charged, entered the yard of Mrs. Agnes Urues. 33-46 Tilton street, engaged her in an argument and knocked her down: The woman was holding an infant in her arms when the alleged attack was made.

The two were caught after a chase Patrolman Heim, and at a hearing before Magistrate Costello, at the Bel-grade and Clearfield streets station. this morning they were held without bail on charges of assault and battery and highway robbery. They gave their names as Joseph Snyder, eighteen. Venango street near Cambria, and Carree Ford, nighteen Miller and the Alien Property Custodian to the street of the street

George Ford, eighteen, Miller and Westmoreland streets.

The six other youths who helped in the attack on Doyle escaped.

Doyle, in company with John Bailey, 343 Potter street, started for a walk about 6 o'clock last night on Tioga street. The bandit gang attacked them when they reached Tilton. Bailey was Doyle was treated at the Northeastern Hospital for his injuries. Four men held up Edward Woodford, 1730 Lombard street, near Water and Vine streets last night ,and after covring him with a revolver, took $45. He was warned not to move for ten minutes, during which time the men ande their escape. He reported his loss and a description of the bandits to the Third street and Fairmount avenue po-

FUNERAL OF G. BROMHEAD. FAMOUS CRICKET COACH =

Developed Many International Play ers at Germantown Cricket Club Funeral services for the late George Bromhead, the noted Manheim Cricket coach, were held today at his home, 5953 McCallum street, Germantown, Cricketers representing all the clubs in the city were present.

The pallbearers were Charles Braith-wait, Merion; George Wooley, Philadelphia: Tom Irving, Germantown; Philip Bishop, Merion; William H. Coupe, Germantown, and Harry John-sen, Chestnut Hill, Mr. Bromhead. who was in his sixty-third year, was stricken on the field during the national tennis tournament at Manheim and was taken to the Germantown Hospital.

Mr. Bromhead was one of the most notable figures in the development of Philadelphia cricket. He came from England in 1881 to the Young America Club, then at Wayne Junction, and with them and the Germantown Club. Manheim, he possessed an unbroken

WANT PUBLIC "SINGS"

Mayor Would Have Young Folk
Meet on Fixed Night Weekly
The advisability of opening recreation centers to encourage community singing has been under consideration by Mayor Moore. Director Tustin and Miss Sophia Ross, head of the Bureau of Recreation. Director Tustin feels, following up the general plan of public dancing and the like, that there could be established in certain of the centers and public schools a fixed night each with the Soap. 25c; Black and White Soap. 25c; B and public schools a fixed night each work for the young people to assemble for the singing of patriotic and folk songs, which would be a valuable con-
