

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

Letters to the Editor

Don't Want Skeezix Changed
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Dear "King" (of late portraiture):
I write at the behest of the I. O. O. F. F. (International Order of Skeezix Fans) to voice a protest and a testimonial.

Bureau of Missing Persons
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I was very much interested in the article on page ten of today's "Evening Public Ledger" under the heading "Now Fads in Law." The matter of topic under discussion by Captain J. J. Skewitz and contained much valuable information and was of interest to all citizens.

Wages and Living Expenses
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—They want to cut wages down, but I don't think they can do it. I am a reliable worker and I am a reliable worker. I am a reliable worker and I am a reliable worker.

Various Suggestions to Help the Unemployed
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—It makes my heart ache to see so many unemployable men out of employment, and the labor market is to be seen everywhere looking for work.

Would Divide Work
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—A reflex of Philadelphia's awakened spirit of fair play and fellow interest is shown in the fact that recently a large establishment employed only married women.

Ending Unemployment
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—A writer to your "People's Forum" recently wrote: "Unemployment will not be permanently swept away until there arises a new kind of industry."

One Set of Unemployed
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Regarding the many letters to the Evening Public Ledger's "People's Forum" on the unemployed situation, the average business man will get busy to help the situation.

Ex-Service Men First
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—It makes my heart ache to see so many unemployable men out of employment, and the labor market is to be seen everywhere looking for work.

To Aid Unemployed Young Men
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I have read with great interest the many letters you have printed regarding various methods to aid the unemployed. Most of these letters were suggestions as to giving them employment, which, naturally, is the first need.

Letters to the Editor should be as brief and to the point as possible, avoiding anything that would open a denominational or sectarian discussion. No attention will be paid to anonymous letters. Names and addresses must be signed as an evidence of good faith, although names will not be printed if request is made that they be omitted.

Questions Answered

First Railroad to Atlantic City
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—What was the name given to the first railroad to run from Camden to Atlantic City? When was it completed?
H. D. F.
Philadelphia, October 25, 1921.

Examination Following Failure
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If I took a Civil Service examination and failed to pass, may I try again?
H. W. L.
Philadelphia, October 23, 1921.

Wants Puzzle Solved
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Would you kindly help me solve this puzzle?
IRWIN H. EUSER.
Philadelphia, October 27, 1921.

Joined the Canadians
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—My husband was born in Pennsylvania, but during the war he joined the Canadian Army. He returned to America two years ago, but did not take out any papers. Is he an American now, or is he a British subject through fighting for the British government? What am I, an American or British subject?
J. T. P.
Philadelphia, October 25, 1921.

United States: Not America
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to take exception through the People's Forum, to the use of the word "America" when referring to the United States. We are the American people, not the American nation.

The New Equality
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If a girl pays part of the cost of an evening's entertainment it is not necessarily because she is crazy for the young man's company, or because he is staid, but it indicates a new feeling of equality between the sexes.

Our State Flag
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—When was our State flag adopted? Has it always been blue?
G. T. Y.
Philadelphia, October 23, 1921.

Poems and Songs Desired
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to know the name of the poet who wrote the following poem:
'I knew him not; I sought him not,
It was my father's guest;
I never gave him smile more sweet
Than aught I smile more sweet.'
Philadelphia, Oct. 28, 1921.

A Carlyle Poem
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Can you tell me if the appended verses were written by Thomas Carlyle? I have been told that they were, but while I am quite familiar with the vigorous Scotchman's works, I must confess to being ignorant of any specific writing by him.

Two Poems Supplied
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I am inclosing two poems which were sent for readers of the People's Forum. E. R. Reichenbach asked for Joyce Kilmer's "Trees," and A. J. Cushman for another poem, of which I have a copy.
M. P. C.
Philadelphia, October 24, 1921.

Willem Willeke
Cellist
First Cellist, New York Symphony Orchestra.
In his hands the 'cello becomes an instrument to express unlimited paths, beauty and power.

Bronislaw Huberman
Violinist
Who toured America as a child prodigy and now returns to thrill music lovers with the perfection of his matured genius.

Richard Strauss
Composer-Conductor
The musical world has almost exhausted the honors it can heap upon him in his two-fold capacity as creator and conductor of the world's greatest music.

Questions Answered

First Railroad to Atlantic City
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—What was the name given to the first railroad to run from Camden to Atlantic City? When was it completed?
H. D. F.
Philadelphia, October 25, 1921.

Examination Following Failure
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If I took a Civil Service examination and failed to pass, may I try again?
H. W. L.
Philadelphia, October 23, 1921.

Wants Puzzle Solved
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Would you kindly help me solve this puzzle?
IRWIN H. EUSER.
Philadelphia, October 27, 1921.

Joined the Canadians
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—My husband was born in Pennsylvania, but during the war he joined the Canadian Army. He returned to America two years ago, but did not take out any papers. Is he an American now, or is he a British subject through fighting for the British government? What am I, an American or British subject?
J. T. P.
Philadelphia, October 25, 1921.

United States: Not America
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to take exception through the People's Forum, to the use of the word "America" when referring to the United States. We are the American people, not the American nation.

The New Equality
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If a girl pays part of the cost of an evening's entertainment it is not necessarily because she is crazy for the young man's company, or because he is staid, but it indicates a new feeling of equality between the sexes.

Our State Flag
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—When was our State flag adopted? Has it always been blue?
G. T. Y.
Philadelphia, October 23, 1921.

Poems and Songs Desired
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to know the name of the poet who wrote the following poem:
'I knew him not; I sought him not,
It was my father's guest;
I never gave him smile more sweet
Than aught I smile more sweet.'
Philadelphia, Oct. 28, 1921.

A Carlyle Poem
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Can you tell me if the appended verses were written by Thomas Carlyle? I have been told that they were, but while I am quite familiar with the vigorous Scotchman's works, I must confess to being ignorant of any specific writing by him.

Two Poems Supplied
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I am inclosing two poems which were sent for readers of the People's Forum. E. R. Reichenbach asked for Joyce Kilmer's "Trees," and A. J. Cushman for another poem, of which I have a copy.
M. P. C.
Philadelphia, October 24, 1921.

Willem Willeke
Cellist
First Cellist, New York Symphony Orchestra.
In his hands the 'cello becomes an instrument to express unlimited paths, beauty and power.

Bronislaw Huberman
Violinist
Who toured America as a child prodigy and now returns to thrill music lovers with the perfection of his matured genius.

Richard Strauss
Composer-Conductor
The musical world has almost exhausted the honors it can heap upon him in his two-fold capacity as creator and conductor of the world's greatest music.

Questions Answered

First Railroad to Atlantic City
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—What was the name given to the first railroad to run from Camden to Atlantic City? When was it completed?
H. D. F.
Philadelphia, October 25, 1921.

Examination Following Failure
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If I took a Civil Service examination and failed to pass, may I try again?
H. W. L.
Philadelphia, October 23, 1921.

Wants Puzzle Solved
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Would you kindly help me solve this puzzle?
IRWIN H. EUSER.
Philadelphia, October 27, 1921.

Joined the Canadians
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—My husband was born in Pennsylvania, but during the war he joined the Canadian Army. He returned to America two years ago, but did not take out any papers. Is he an American now, or is he a British subject through fighting for the British government? What am I, an American or British subject?
J. T. P.
Philadelphia, October 25, 1921.

United States: Not America
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to take exception through the People's Forum, to the use of the word "America" when referring to the United States. We are the American people, not the American nation.

The New Equality
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If a girl pays part of the cost of an evening's entertainment it is not necessarily because she is crazy for the young man's company, or because he is staid, but it indicates a new feeling of equality between the sexes.

Our State Flag
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—When was our State flag adopted? Has it always been blue?
G. T. Y.
Philadelphia, October 23, 1921.

Poems and Songs Desired
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to know the name of the poet who wrote the following poem:
'I knew him not; I sought him not,
It was my father's guest;
I never gave him smile more sweet
Than aught I smile more sweet.'
Philadelphia, Oct. 28, 1921.

A Carlyle Poem
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Can you tell me if the appended verses were written by Thomas Carlyle? I have been told that they were, but while I am quite familiar with the vigorous Scotchman's works, I must confess to being ignorant of any specific writing by him.

Two Poems Supplied
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I am inclosing two poems which were sent for readers of the People's Forum. E. R. Reichenbach asked for Joyce Kilmer's "Trees," and A. J. Cushman for another poem, of which I have a copy.
M. P. C.
Philadelphia, October 24, 1921.

Willem Willeke
Cellist
First Cellist, New York Symphony Orchestra.
In his hands the 'cello becomes an instrument to express unlimited paths, beauty and power.

Bronislaw Huberman
Violinist
Who toured America as a child prodigy and now returns to thrill music lovers with the perfection of his matured genius.

Richard Strauss
Composer-Conductor
The musical world has almost exhausted the honors it can heap upon him in his two-fold capacity as creator and conductor of the world's greatest music.

Questions Answered

First Railroad to Atlantic City
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—What was the name given to the first railroad to run from Camden to Atlantic City? When was it completed?
H. D. F.
Philadelphia, October 25, 1921.

Examination Following Failure
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If I took a Civil Service examination and failed to pass, may I try again?
H. W. L.
Philadelphia, October 23, 1921.

Wants Puzzle Solved
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Would you kindly help me solve this puzzle?
IRWIN H. EUSER.
Philadelphia, October 27, 1921.

Joined the Canadians
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—My husband was born in Pennsylvania, but during the war he joined the Canadian Army. He returned to America two years ago, but did not take out any papers. Is he an American now, or is he a British subject through fighting for the British government? What am I, an American or British subject?
J. T. P.
Philadelphia, October 25, 1921.

United States: Not America
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to take exception through the People's Forum, to the use of the word "America" when referring to the United States. We are the American people, not the American nation.

The New Equality
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If a girl pays part of the cost of an evening's entertainment it is not necessarily because she is crazy for the young man's company, or because he is staid, but it indicates a new feeling of equality between the sexes.

Our State Flag
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—When was our State flag adopted? Has it always been blue?
G. T. Y.
Philadelphia, October 23, 1921.

Poems and Songs Desired
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to know the name of the poet who wrote the following poem:
'I knew him not; I sought him not,
It was my father's guest;
I never gave him smile more sweet
Than aught I smile more sweet.'
Philadelphia, Oct. 28, 1921.

A Carlyle Poem
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Can you tell me if the appended verses were written by Thomas Carlyle? I have been told that they were, but while I am quite familiar with the vigorous Scotchman's works, I must confess to being ignorant of any specific writing by him.

Two Poems Supplied
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I am inclosing two poems which were sent for readers of the People's Forum. E. R. Reichenbach asked for Joyce Kilmer's "Trees," and A. J. Cushman for another poem, of which I have a copy.
M. P. C.
Philadelphia, October 24, 1921.

Willem Willeke
Cellist
First Cellist, New York Symphony Orchestra.
In his hands the 'cello becomes an instrument to express unlimited paths, beauty and power.

Bronislaw Huberman
Violinist
Who toured America as a child prodigy and now returns to thrill music lovers with the perfection of his matured genius.

Richard Strauss
Composer-Conductor
The musical world has almost exhausted the honors it can heap upon him in his two-fold capacity as creator and conductor of the world's greatest music.

Academy of Music Today

Advertisement for the Academy of Music Today, featuring Willem Willeke, Bronislaw Huberman, and Richard Strauss. Includes photos of the musicians and text describing their performances.

All Three of These Artists

Advertisement for Brunswick Records, featuring the three artists from the previous ad. Includes a photo of a record and text about the records.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

Advertisement for Chesterfield Cigarettes, featuring the text 'Taste is a matter of tobacco quality' and 'Chesterfield CIGARETTES of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—blended'. Includes a small illustration of a person.

WRIGLEY'S P-K'S

Large advertisement for Wrigley's P-K's chewing gum. Features a cartoon character holding a pack of gum and text describing the product as 'The new sugar-coated chewing gum which everybody likes - you will, too.' Includes a photo of the gum pack.

Advertisement for 'He Broke Up Her Home'. Features a cartoon illustration of a man and a woman and text describing a mutual arrangement between them. Includes contact information for Bell-Walnut 3000 and Keystone-Main 1601.